Introduced by Sen. VALESKY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law and the mental hygiene law, in relation to health record access for a government benefit or program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The first undesignated paragraph of section 17 of the 2 public health law, as amended by chapter 576 of the laws of 1998, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 Upon the written request of any competent patient, parent or guardian 5 of an infant, a guardian appointed pursuant to article eighty-one of the 6 mental hygiene law, or conservator of a conservatee, an examining,
7 consulting or treating physician or hospital must release and deliver, 8 exclusive of personal notes of the said physician or hospital, copies of 9 all x-rays, medical records and test records including all laboratory
10 tests regarding that patient to any other designated physician or hospi-11 tal provided, however, that such records concerning the treatment of an 12 infant patient for venereal disease or the performance of an abortion 13 operation upon such infant patient shall not be released or in any 14 manner be made available to the parent or guardian of such infant, and 15 provided, further, that original mammograms, rather than copies thereof, 16 shall be released and delivered. Either the physician or hospital incur-17 ring the expense of providing copies of x-rays, medical records and test 18 records including all laboratory tests pursuant to the provisions of 19 this section may impose a reasonable charge to be paid by the person
20 requesting the release and deliverance of such records as reimbursement 21 for such expenses, provided, however, that the physician or hospital may 22 not impose a charge for copying an original mammogram when the original 23 has been released or delivered to any competent patient, parent or guar-24 dian of an infant, a guardian appointed pursuant to article eighty-one 25 of the mental hygiene law, or a conservator of a conservatee and

1 provided, further, that any charge for delivering an original mammogram
2 pursuant to this section shall not exceed the documented costs associ-
3 ated therewith. However, the reasonable charge for paper copies shall 4 not exceed seventy-five cents per page. A release of records under this 5 section shall not be denied solely because of inability to pay. No 6 charge may be imposed under this section for providing, releasing, or 7 delivering medical records or copies of medical records where requested 8 for the purpose of supporting an application, claim or appeal for any 9 government benefit or program, provided that, where a provider maintains 10 medical records in electronic form, it shall provide the copy in either 11 electronic or paper form, as required by the government benefit or 12 program, or at the patient's request.

13 § 2. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 2 of section 18 of the public health 14 law, as amended by chapter 576 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read 15 as follows:

16 (e) The provider may impose a reasonable charge for all inspections
17 and copies, not exceeding the costs incurred by such provider, provided, 18 however, that a provider may not impose a charge for copying an original 19 mammogram when the original has been furnished to any qualified person 20 and provided, further, that any charge for furnishing an original mammo-
21 gram pursuant to this section shall not exceed the documented costs
22 associated therewith. However, the reasonable charge for paper copies 23 shall not exceed seventy-five cents per page. A qualified person shall 24 not be denied access to patient information solely because of inability 25 to pay. No charge may be imposed under this section for providing, 26 releasing, or delivering patient information or copies of patient infor-
27 mation where requested for the purpose of supporting an application, 28 claim or appeal for any government benefit or program, provided that,
29 where a provider maintains patient information in electronic form, it 30 shall provide the copy in either electronic or paper form, as required 31 by the government benefit or program, or at the patient's request.

32 § 3. Paragraph 6 of subdivision (b) of section 33.16 of the mental 33 hygiene law, as amended by chapter 165 of the laws of 1991 and as renun-
34 bered by chapter 233 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

35 6. The facility may impose a reasonable charge for all inspections and 36 copies, not exceeding the costs incurred by such provider. However, the 37 reasonable charge for paper copies shall not exceed seventy-five cents 38 per page. A qualified person shall not be denied access to the clinical 39 record solely because of inability to pay. No charge may be imposed 40 under this section for providing, releasing, or delivering clinical 41 records or copies of clinical records where requested for the purpose of 42 supporting an application, claim or appeal for any government benefit or 43 program, provided that, where a provider maintains clinical records in 44 electronic form, it shall provide the copy in either electronic or paper 45 form, as required by the government benefit or program, or at the 46 patient's request.

47 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
