AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to training and continuing education requirements for home inspector licensing

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of 2 section 444-e of the real property law, as amended by section 59 of part 3 D of chapter 60 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

4 (i) have successfully completed a course of study of not less than 5 ~~[one]~~ two hundred ~~[forty]~~ eighty hours approved by the secretary, of which at 6 least ~~[forty]~~ eighty hours shall have been in the form of unpaid field 7 based inspections in the presence of and under the direct supervision of 8 a home inspector licensed by the state of New York or a professional 9 engineer or architect regulated by the state of New York who oversees 10 and takes full responsibility for the inspection and any report provided 11 to a client; or

12 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 444-f of the real property law, as 13 amended by section 60 of part D of chapter 60 of the laws of 2012, is 14 amended to read as follows:

15 1. Home inspector licenses and renewals thereof shall be issued for a 16 period of two years, except that the secretary may, in order to stagger 17 the expiration date thereof, provide that those licenses first issued or 18 renewed after the effective date of this section shall expire or become 19 void on a date fixed by the secretary, not sooner than six months nor 20 later than twenty-nine months after the date of issue. No renewal of a 21 license shall be issued unless the applicant has successfully completed 22 ~~[a course]~~ at least thirty-two hours of continuing education approved by 23 the secretary within the two-year period immediately preceding such 24 renewal, up to eight hours of which may be completed through online
25 education that adheres to the requirements set forth by the secretary.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
