The district attorney prosecuting the charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding organization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding organization in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not be limited to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at least thirty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be determined by the court after taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organization in caring for the seized animal.

b. (1) Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision the court shall set a hearing on the petition to be conducted within ten business days of the filing of such petition. 7 The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of security.

8 (2) If the court orders the posting of a security, the security shall 9 be posted with the clerk of the court within five business days of the 10 hearing provided for in subparagraph one of this paragraph. The court 11 may order the immediate forfeiture of the seized animal to the impound-

13 so. Any animal forfeited shall be made available for adoption or euthan-14 ized subject to subdivision seven-a of section one hundred seventeen of 15 this chapter or section three hundred seventy-four of this article.

16 (3) In the case of an animal other than a companion animal or pet, if 17 a person ordered to post security fails to do so, the court may, in 18 addition to the forfeiture to [~~a duly incorporated society for the~~

25 redeem their interest in the animal and to purchase the interest of the 26 person ordered to post security, subject to such conditions as the court 27 deems appropriate to assure proper care and treatment of the animal. The 28 court may reimburse the person ordered to post security and any inter-
29 ested persons any money earned by the sale of the animal less any costs
30 including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care. Any animal

37 (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in 38 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any 39 animal described in this section. This section expressly does not impair 40 or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a security 41 interest in the animal or in the proceeds from the sale of such animal.

42 c. In no event shall the security prevent the impounding organization
43 having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal 44 pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to 45 the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the 46 court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom 47 the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition from the 48 impounding organization, the court may order the person from whom the 49 animal was seized or the owner of the animal to post an additional secu-
50 rity with the clerk of the court to secure payment of reasonable 51 expenses for an additional period of time pending a determination by the 52 court of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized.

54 security in whole or part for any expenses not incurred by such impound-

56 the security shall be entitled to a full refund of the security, including reimbursement by the impounding organization of any amount allowed by the court to be expended, and the return of the animal seized and impounded upon acquittal or dismissal of the charges, except where the dismissal is based upon an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal pursuant to section 215.30 of the criminal procedure law. The court order directing such refund and reimbursement shall provide for payment to be made within a reasonable time from the acquittal or dismissal of charges.

Upon such an order of forfeiture, the convicted person shall be deemed to have relinquished all rights to the animals which are the basis of the conviction, except those granted in subdivision two of this section.

2. In the case of farm animals, the court may, in addition to the forfeiture to an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents thereof, and subject to the restrictions of sections three hundred fifty-four and three hundred fifty-seven of this article, order the farm animals which were the basis of the conviction to be sold. In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the order of forfeiture or by any person charged with an animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated. The court shall reimburse the convicted person and any duly determined interested persons, pursuant to subdivision six of this section, any money earned by the sale of the farm animals less any costs including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care, and any fines or penalties imposed by the court. The court may order that the subject animals be provided with appropriate care and treatment pending the hearing and the disposition of the charges. Any farm animal ordered forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to the custody and charge of an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society or its authorized agent thereof and disposed of pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

3. The court may order that the convicted person shall not own, harbor, or have custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a period of time which the court deems reasonable. In making its determination of what period of time is reasonable, the court shall take into account the totality of the circumstances before it and

1 be bound to no single factor. Such order must be in writing and specif-
2 ically state the period of time imposed.

3 4. No dog or cat in the custody of a duly incorporated society for 4 the prevention of cruelty to animals, a duly incorporated humane society
5 or its authorized agents thereof, or a pound or shelter, shall be sold, 6 transferred or otherwise made available to any person for the purpose of 7 research, experimentation or testing. No authorized agent of a duly 8 incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, nor of a 9 duly incorporated humane society, shall use any animal placed in its 10 custody by the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty 11 to animals or duly incorporated humane society for the purpose of 12 research, experimentation or testing.

13 5. An animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, 14 district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 15 cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of 16 animals forfeited pursuant to subdivision one or two of this section 17 may, in its discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to 18 individuals other than the convicted person or person charged with an 19 animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlaw-20 ful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an 21 accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated, or humanely
22 dispose of them subject to section three hundred seventy-four of this 23 article.

24 6. (a) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing
25 shall be held within thirty days of conviction to determine the pecuni-26 ary interests of any other person in the farm animals which were the 27 basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five 28 days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, 29 notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven 30 days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, inter-31 ested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock
32 company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity
33 who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the farm
34 animals which are the subject of the forfeiture action.

35 (b) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the 36 hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in the 37 subject farm animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted 38 person. The convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or 39 her interest in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties 40 imposed by the court, as specified under subdivision two of this 41 section. In no case shall the court award custody or control of the 42 animals to any interested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the 43 unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or 44 should have known of the unlawful act.

45 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in 46 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any 47 farm animal described in this section. This section expressly does not 48 impair or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a secu-
