(ii) The system shall to the maximum extent practicable be designed to facilitate the procurement of books and non-print library materials and related ancillary services at the lowest possible cost through the combined market power of state agencies and authorized users or consortia thereof. A state agency or authorized user that elects to purchase items from a separate centralized contract shall be advised of the actual or approximate savings that would have resulted from using the comprehensive centralized system.

(iii) Whenever feasible, at least one remaining copy of a book or other material shall be retained by or shall otherwise be available to the system, when such retention is necessary and appropriate for archival purposes.

(iv) Electronic materials that are procured through the system shall be accessible to people with disabilities to the maximum extent practi-

§ 3. The education law is amended by adding a new section 245-a to § 245-a. Comprehensive centralized system; state library responsibilities. To ensure that the comprehensive centralized system procurement for books and non-print library materials and related ancillary services established pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-three of the state finance law is designed and operated to address the needs of state agencies and authorized users, the state library shall periodically assess the requirements of state agencies, public libraries and library systems and other authorized users for books and non-print library materials and related ancillary services, and shall advise the office of general services of such requirements.

- § 4. Paragraph a of subdivision 5 of section 355 of the education law, as amended by section 31 of part L of chapter 55 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:
- a. (i) purchase materials, proprietary electronic information resources including but not limited to academic, professional, and industry journals, reference handbooks and manuals, research tracking tools, indexes $[and]_{\star}$ abstracts $[\tau]$ and equipment and supplies, including computer equipment and motor vehicles, (ii) execute contracts for construction and construction-related services contracts, and (iii) contract for printing, without prior approval by any other state officer or agency, but subject to rules and regulations of the state comptroller not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this section and in accordance with guidelines promulgated by the state university board of trustees after consultation with the state comptroller; provided that 54 nothing in this section shall preclude the use of the comprehensive centralized system established pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-three of the state finance law;

§ 5. Paragraph a of subdivision 5 of section 355 of the education law, as amended by section 32 of part L of chapter 55 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

- 4 materials, proprietary electronic information (i) purchase 5 resources including but not limited to academic, professional, and industry journals, reference handbooks and manuals, research tracking 7 tools, indexes and abstracts equipment and supplies, including computer equipment and motor vehicles, where the amount for a single purchase 9 does not exceed twenty thousand dollars, (ii) execute contracts for 10 services and construction contracts to an amount not exceeding twenty 11 thousand dollars, and (iii) contract for printing to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, without prior approval by any other 12 state officer or agency, but subject to rules and regulations of the 13 14 state comptroller not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this 15 section and in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by 16 the state university board of trustees after consultation with the state 17 comptroller; provided that nothing in this section shall preclude the use of the comprehensive centralized system established pursuant to 18 paragraph e of subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-three of 19 20 the state finance law. In addition, the trustees, after consultation 21 with the commissioner of general services, are authorized to annually negotiate with the state comptroller increases in the aforementioned 22 dollar limits and the exemption of any articles, categories of articles 23 or commodities from these limits. Rules and regulations promulgated by 24 25 the state university board of trustees shall, to the extent practicable, require that competitive proposals be solicited for purchases, and shall 27 include requirements that purchases and contracts authorized under this 28 section be at the lowest available price, including consideration of 29 prices available through other state agencies, consistent with quality 30 requirements, and as will best promote the public interest. Such 31 purchases may be made directly from any contractor pursuant to any 32 contract for commodities let by the office of general services or any 33 other state agency;
 - § 6. Paragraph 1 of subdivision a of section 6218 of the education law, as amended by section 2 of subpart B of part D of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011 and subparagraph (i) as amended by section 33 of part L of chapter 55 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:
 - (1) (i) purchase materials; proprietary electronic information including, but not limited to, academic, professional and resources, industry journals, reference handbooks and manuals, research tracking tools, indexes and abstracts; and equipment and supplies, including computer equipment and motor vehicles, (ii) execute contracts for construction and construction-related services contracts, and (iii) contract for printing, without prior approval by any other state officer or agency, but subject to rules and regulations of the state comptroller not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this section and in accordance with the guidelines promulgated by the city university board of trustees after consultation with the state comptroller; provided that nothing in this section shall preclude the use of the comprehensive centralized system established pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-three of the state finance law.
 - § 7. Subdivision a of section 6218 of the education law, as amended by chapter 697 of the laws of 1993 and paragraph (i) as amended by section 34 of part L of chapter 55 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:

48 49 a. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph two of section one hundred twelve and sections one hundred fifteen, one hundred sixty-one, one hundred sixty-three and one hundred seventy-four of the state finance law and sections three and six of the New York state printing and public documents law or any other law to the contrary, the city university trustees are authorized and empowered to:

(i) purchase materials; proprietary electronic information resources, including, but not limited to, academic, professional and industry journals, reference handbooks and manuals, research tracking tools, indexes and abstracts; and equipment and supplies, including computer equipment and motor vehicles, where the amount for a single purchase does not exceed twenty thousand dollars, (ii) execute contracts for services to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars, and (iii) contract for printing to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, without prior approval by any other state officer or agency, but subject to rules and regulations of the state comptroller not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this section and in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the city university board of trustees after consultation with the state comptroller; provided that nothing in this section shall preclude the use of the comprehensive centralized system established pursuant to paragraph e of subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-three of the state finance law. In addition, the trustees authorized to annually negotiate with the state comptroller increases in the aforementioned dollar limits and the exemption of any articles, categories of articles or commodities from these limits. Rules and regulations promulgated by the city university board of trustees shall, to the extent practicable, require that competitive proposals be solicited for purchases, and shall include requirements that purchases and contracts authorized under this section be at the lowest possible price.

- § 8. The office of general services shall be authorized to charge fees to defray its reasonable costs and the reasonable costs incurred by the state library for the development and operation of the comprehensive centralized system, and shall transfer the appropriate portion of such fees to the state library. All such costs, charges and transfers shall be subject to audit and approval by the state comptroller.
 - § 9. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that:
- a. the comprehensive centralized system shall commence operation no later than the thirty-first day of May in the year next succeeding the year in which it shall have become a law;
- b. the amendments to subdivision 3 of section 163 of the state finance law made by section two of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall be deemed repealed therewith;
- c. the amendments to paragraph a of subdivision 5 of section 355 of the education law made by section four of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision pursuant to section 4 of subpart B of part D of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section five of this act shall take effect; and
- d. the amendments to paragraph 1 of subdivision a of section 6218 of the education law made by section six of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision pursuant to section 4 of subpart B of part D of chapter 58 of the laws of 2011, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section seven of this act shall take effect.
