AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to reforming the statutory short form and other powers of attorney for purposes of financial and estate planning; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating to statutory gift riders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (j) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1501 of the 2 general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010,
3 is amended to read as follows:

4 (j) "Power of attorney" means a written document, other than a docu-
5 ment referred to in section 5-1501C of this title, by which a principal 6 with capacity designates an agent to act on his or her behalf and 7 includes both a statutory short form power of attorney and a non-statu-8 tory power of attorney.

9 § 2. Paragraph (n) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1501 of the general
10 obligations law is REPEALED, and paragraphs (o), (p) and (q) are relet-11 tered paragraphs (n), (o) and (p).

12 § 3. Paragraph (n) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1501 of the general 13 obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010 and as 14 relettered by section two of this act, is amended to read as follows:

15 (n) "Statutory short form power of attorney" means a power of attorney 16 that meets the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subdivi-
17 sion one of section 5-1501B of this title, and that ~~[contains the exact]~~
18 substantially conforms to the wording of the form set forth in section 19 5-1513 of this title; provided however, that any section indicated as 20 "Optional" that is not used may be omitted and replaced by the words

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 "Intentionally Omitted". ~~[A mistake in wording, such as in spelling,~~
2 ~~punctuation or formatting, or the use of bold or italic type,] Any~~ 3 insubstantial variations in the form shall not prevent a power of attor-4 ney from being deemed a statutory short form power of attorney, but the 5 wording of the form set forth in section 5-1513 of this title shall 6 govern. The use of the form set forth in section 5-1513 of this title is 7 lawful and when used, it shall be construed as a statutory short form
8 power of attorney. A statutory short form power of attorney may be used 9 to grant authority provided in sections 5-1502A through 5-1502N of this 10 title. A "statutory short form power of attorney" may contain modifica-11 tions or additions as provided in section 5-1503 of this title~~[, but in~~ 12 ~~no event may it be modified to grant any authority provided in section~~
13 ~~5-1514 of this title. If the authority (SGR) on the statutory short form~~
14 ~~is initialed by the principal, the statutory short form power of attor-~~
15 ~~ney must be executed in the manner provided in section 5-1501B of this~~ 16 ~~title, simultaneously with the statutory gifts rider. A statutory short~~ 17 ~~form power of attorney and a statutory gifts rider which supplements it~~
18 ~~must be read together as a single instrument].~~

19 § 4. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 5-1501B of the general obli-
20 gations law, as added by chapter 644 of the laws of 2008, the opening 21 paragraph and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 1, and the opening 22 paragraph and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 340
23 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

24 1. To be valid, except as otherwise provided in section 5-1512 of this 25 title, a statutory short form power of attorney, or a non-statutory 26 power of attorney, executed in this state by a principal, must:

27 (a) Be typed or printed using letters which are legible or of clear
28 type no less than twelve point in size, or, if in writing, a reasonable 29 equivalent thereof.

30 (b) Be signed, initialed and dated by a principal with capacity, or in 31 the name of such principal by another person, other than a person desig-
32 nated as the principal's agent or successor agent, in the principal's 33 presence and at the principal's direction, in either case with the 34 signature of the [principal] person signing duly acknowledged in the 35 manner prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real proper-
36 ty in the presence of the principal. When a person signs at the direc-37 tion of a principal he or she shall sign by writing or printing the 38 principal's name, and printing and signing his or her own name.

39 (c) Be signed and dated by any agent acting on behalf of the principal 40 with the signature of the agent duly acknowledged in the manner
41 prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property. A 42 power of attorney executed pursuant to this section is not invalid sole-43 ly because there has been a lapse of time between the date of acknowl-44 edgment of the signature of the principal and the date or dates of 45 acknowledgment of the signature or signatures of any agent or agents or 46 successor agent or successor agents authorized to act on behalf of the 47 principal or because the principal became incapacitated during any such 48 lapse of time.

49 (d) ~~[Contain the exact]~~ Substantially conform to the wording of the:

50 (1) "Caution to the Principal" in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of 51 section 5-1513 of this title; and

52 (2) "Important Information for the Agent" in paragraph (n) of subdivi-53 sion one of section 5-1513 of this title.

54 2. ~~[In addition to the requirements of subdivision one of this~~ 55 ~~section, to be valid for the purpose of authorizing the agent to make~~ 56 ~~certain gift transactions described in section 5-1514 of this title:~~

~~(a) a statutory short form power of attorney must contain the authority (SGR) initialed by the principal and be accompanied by a valid statutory gifts rider; and~~

~~(b) a non-statutory power of attorney must be executed pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section 5-1514 of this title.]~~ Insubstantial variation in the wording of the "Caution to the Principal" of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 5-1513 of this title or of the "Important Information for the Agent" of paragraph (n) of subdivision one of section 5-1513 of this title shall not prevent a power of attorney from being deemed a statutory short form power of attorney or a non-statutory power of attorney.

22 of this title or a statutory short form power of attorney properly
23 executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its 24 execution. [A] If a special proceeding as authorized by section 5-1510
25 of this title is brought to compel the third party to honor the statuto-26 ry short form power of attorney, the court may award damages, including 27 reasonable attorney's fees and costs, if the court finds that the third 28 party acted unreasonably in refusing to honor the agent's authority
29 under the statutory short form power of attorney. Such special proceed-30 ing shall be the exclusive remedy for a violation of this section.

31 [~~3-~~] 5. In the absence of actual knowledge that the principal lacked 32 capacity to execute a statutory short form power of attorney or that the 33 statutory short form power of attorney was procured through fraud, 34 duress or undue influence, no third party receiving and retaining a 35 [~~properly executed~~] statutory short form power of attorney properly 36 executed in accordance with section 5-1501B of this title, [~~including a~~
37 ~~statutory short form power of attorney which is supplemented by a statu-~~
38 ~~tory gifts rider]~~ or a statutory short form power of attorney properly 39 executed in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its 40 execution, or a complete photostatic copy of the properly executed
41 original thereof, nor any officer, agent, attorney-in-fact or employee 42 of such third party shall incur any liability by reason of acting upon 43 the authority thereof unless the third party shall have received actual 44 notice of the revocation or termination of such power of attorney.

45 If a principal maintains an account at a financial institution, the 46 financial institution is deemed to have actual notice after it has had a 47 reasonable opportunity to act on a written notice of the revocation or 48 termination following its receipt of the same at its office where such 49 account is located.

50 [~~4-~~] 6. If the application of the provisions of subdivision [~~one or~~] 51 two or four of this section shall be held invalid to any third party the 52 application of such provisions to any third party other than those to 53 which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

54 [~~5-~~] 7. When the power of attorney is presented to a third party, it 55 shall not be deemed unreasonable for a third party to require the agent 56 to execute an acknowledged affidavit pursuant to this subdivision stating that the power of attorney is in full force and effect. Such an affidavit is conclusive proof to the third party relying on the power of attorney that the power of attorney is valid and effective, and has not been terminated, revoked or modified, except as to any third party who had actual notice that the power of attorney had terminated, been revoked or been modified prior to the execution of the affidavit. Such affidavit shall state that:

(a) the agent does not have, at the time of the transaction, actual notice of the termination or revocation of the power of attorney, or notice of any facts indicating that the power of attorney has been terminated or revoked;

(b) the agent does not have, at the time of the transaction, actual notice that the power of attorney has been modified in any way that would affect the ability of the agent to authorize or engage in the transaction, or notice of any facts indicating that the power of attorney has been so modified;

(c) if the agent was named as a successor agent, the prior agent is no longer able or willing to serve; and

(d) if the agent has been the principal's spouse, the power of attorney expressly provides that divorce or annulment as defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (f) of section 5-1.4 of the estates, powers and trusts law does not terminate the agent's authority thereunder, or the agent does not have actual notice that the marriage has been terminated by divorce or annulment as defined in subparagraph two of paragraph (f) of section 5-1.4 of the estates, powers and trusts law at the time of the transaction.

~~[6-]~~ 8. Nothing in this section shall require the acceptance of a form that is not a statutory short form power of attorney.

~~[7-]~~ 9. A statutory short form power of attorney or a non-statutory power of attorney that meets the requirements of subdivision one of section 5-1501B of this title shall be accepted for recording so long as it has been signed by one agent named therein whose signature has been acknowledged. If two or more agents acting on behalf of the principal are required to act together, the power of attorney shall be accepted for recording as long as their signatures have been acknowledged. When a successor or co-agent authorized to act separately from any other agents presents a certified copy of a recorded statutory short form power of attorney or non-statutory power of attorney with the agent's signature acknowledged, the instrument shall be accepted for recording.

§ 15. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1505 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

(2) To keep the principal's property separate and distinct from any other property owned or controlled by the agent, except for property that is jointly owned by the principal and agent at the time of the execution of the power of attorney, and property that becomes jointly owned after the execution of the power of attorney as the result of the agent's acquisition of an interest in the principal's property by reason of the agent's exercise of authority granted in the modifications section of a statutory ~~[gifts rider]~~ short form power of attorney or in a non-statutory power of attorney ~~[signed and dated by the principal with the signature of the principal duly acknowledged in the manner prescribed for the acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, and which is executed pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section 5-1514 of this title]~~. The agent may not

1 make gifts ~~[to]~~ of the principal's property to himself or herself with-
2 out specific authorization in a power of attorney.

3 § 16. Paragraphs (h) and (i) of subdivision 2 of section 5-1510 of the 4 general obligations law, as added by chapter 644 of the laws of 2008,
5 are amended to read as follows:

6 (h) to construe any provision of a power of attorney; or

7 (i) to compel acceptance of the power of attorney ~~[in which event the~~ 8 ~~relief to be granted is limited to an order compelling acceptance]~~.

9 § 17. Section 5-1513 of the general obligations law, as amended by 10 chapter 340 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

11 § 5-1513. Statutory short form power of attorney. ~~[1.]~~ The use of the 12 following form, or one which substantially conforms to the following 13 form, in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, 14 and executed in accordance with subdivision one of section 5-1501B of 15 this title, it shall be construed as a statutory short form power of 16 attorney in accordance with the provisions of this title; provided 17 however, that any section indicated as "Optional" which is not used may 18 be omitted and replaced by the words "Intentionally Omitted":

19 "POWER OF ATTORNEY

20 NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

21 (a) CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important 22 document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your 23 "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your prop-24 erty during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your 25 authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authori-26 ty.

27 When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according 28 to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific 29 instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the 30 Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibil-31 ities.

32 Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of 33 Attorney before a notary public.

34 You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are 35 revoking a prior Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of 36 the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may 37 have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your 38 accounts are located.

39 You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any 40 reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound 41 mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

42 Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute 43 a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

44 The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York
45 General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a 46 law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly 47 websites, ~~[www.senate.state.ny.us]~~ www.nysenate.gov or 37 special legal relationship is created between you and the principal.

You may resign by giving written notice to the principal and to any co-agent, successor agent, monitor if one has been named in this document, or the principal's guardian if one has been appointed.
