AN ACT to amend the legislative law, in relation to term limits for legislators

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The legislative law is amended by adding a new section 2-a to read as follows:

§ 2-a. Legislative term limits. Any individual may serve a maximum of five two-year terms for the state assembly. Any individual may serve a maximum of five two-year terms for the state senate. No person shall serve more than ten years in each house. No person shall have more than twenty years of service, in the aggregate, as a state legislator.

§ 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2019; only terms commenced on or after such date shall be counted toward an individual's years of service.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
