15 16 Section one. Receipts from sales of and consideration given for supplies for emergency preparedness shall be exempt from sales and compensating use taxes imposed in this jurisdiction.

Section two. This resolution shall take effect September 1, (insert the year, but not earlier than the year 2018) and shall apply to sales made in accordance with the applicable transitional provisions in sections 1106, 1216 and 1217 of the New York tax law.

- § 3. The division of homeland security and emergency services, in conjunction with the department of taxation and finance, shall establish, promote, and publish on their respective websites a list of items eligible for the sales and use tax exemption for emergency preparedness supplies, as set forth in subdivision (n) of section 1210 of the tax law. Such list shall be derived from, but not limited to, information published by Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the American Red Cross relating to supplies necessary for the preparation of homes and businesses in the event of a natural or man-made emergency.
- 17 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to sales 18 made and uses occurring for the time periods set forth in subdivision 19 (n) of section 1210 of the tax law, as added by section two of this act, 20 commencing in the year 2019 and thereafter; provided, however, the 21 provisions required by section three of this act shall be completed by 22 April 1, 2019.
