2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

September 11, 2017

Introduced by Sen. DeFRANCISCO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, the state finance law and the tax law, in relation to the funding of the multi-year capital program of the metropolitan transportation authority and other regional transportation systems

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration of purpose. 1. The 2 metropolitan transportation authority (MTA), regional transportation
3 systems and other transportation infrastructure are essential to meeting
4 the basic mobility and economic needs of the citizens in the state. The 5 contributions of such mass transportation services are also essential to 6 addressing fundamental environmental policy and social needs of the 7 state's residents.

8 2. The MTA, regional transportation systems and other transportation 9 infrastructure must continue to function as the primary provider of 10 reasonably priced, safe and reliable mass transportation services. It 11 is of vital importance to the ability of the metropolitan transportation 12 authority to meet the continued need for mobility and for the economic 13 health of the MTA and the state that additional dedicated sources of 14 reliable funding are made promptly available.

15 3. It is the intent of the legislature to continue to fund the multi-16 year capital program of the MTA and other regional transportation
17 systems to ensure the continuation of reasonable fares and provide for a 18 safe, reliable, efficient mass transportation system.

19 4. Multi-year investment in transportation infrastructure is critical 20 to economic development and the safe and reliable movement of citizens 21 and goods in the state.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

§ 2. Subdivision (a) of section 1225-g of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 576 of the laws of 1972, is amended to read as follows:

(a) To enable the fund to realize its public and governmental purpose, the fund may enter into agreements with the transportation authority, to which the transit authority may be a party, pursuant to which the transportation authority may plan, design, construct, acquire, extend, reconstruct, rehabilitate, modernize, or otherwise improve any transit facility, and the fund may lease any such transit facility from the transportation authority. The fund may apply the resources of the fund to the payment of rentals and other payments required from the fund by any such lease or other agreement and may pledge such resources as security for such payments to the transportation authority with respect to such leases or other agreements. The fund shall enter into such leases or other agreements with the transportation authority providing for the payment of rentals and other payments sufficient to allow the transportation authority to finance the costs of planning and design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, replacement, improvement, reconditioning, rehabilitation and preservation, including the acquisition of real property and interests therein required or expected to be required in connection therewith, of transit facilities, not to exceed four billion five hundred million dollars, which are capital elements set forth in the two thousand fifteen--two thousand nineteen capital program plans approved by the metropolitan transportation authority capital program review board.

§ 3. Subdivision 1 of section 2799-gg of the public authorities law, as amended by chapter 182 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-ff of this title to pay the cost of any project and to fund reserves to secure such bonds, including incidental expenses in connection therewith, and to pay the cost of any project or element contained in a budgeted and approved capital plan of the metropolitan transportation authority.

The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations outstanding shall not exceed [~~thirteen billion, five hundred million dollars ($13,500,000,000)~~] eighteen billion dollars ($18,000,000,000), excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued pursuant to sections twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-ss and twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-tt of this title; provided, however, that upon any refunding or repayment of bonds (which term shall not, for this purpose, include bond anticipation notes), the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than [~~thirteen billion, five hundred million dollars ($13,500,000,000)~~] eighteen billion dollars ($18,000,000,000) only if the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations were issued in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (a) of subdivision two of paragraph b of section 90.10 of the local finance law, as amended from time to time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the authority may be outstanding in an amount greater than the amount permitted by the preceding sentence, provided that such additional amount at issuance, together with the amount of indebtedness contracted by the city of New York, shall not exceed the limit

1 prescribed by section 104.00 of the local finance law. The authority
2 shall have the power from time to time to refund any bonds of the 3 authority by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded 4 have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds of 5 the authority then outstanding and partly to pay the cost of any project
6 pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-ff of this title.
7 Bonds issued by the authority shall be payable solely out of particular 8 revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the 9 proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized 10 to be issued, subject to any agreements entered into between the author-11 ity and the city, and subject to any agreements with the holders of 12 outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues or moneys.

13 § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 92-ff of the state finance law, as added 14 by section 1 of part G of chapter 25 of the laws of 2009, is amended to 15 read as follows:

16 3. Such fund shall consist of all moneys collected [~~therefore~~] there-17 for or credited or transferred thereto from any other fund, account or 18 source, including, without limitation, the revenues derived from the 19 metropolitan commuter transportation mobility tax imposed by article 20 twenty-three of the tax law; revenues derived from section six hundred 21 ninety-eight-a of the tax law; revenues derived from the special supple-22 mental tax on passenger car rentals imposed by section eleven hundred 23 sixty-six-a of the tax law; revenues derived from the transportation
24 surcharge imposed by article twenty-nine-A of the tax law; the supple-
25 mental registration fees imposed by article seventeen-C of the vehicle
26 and traffic law; and the supplemental metropolitan commuter transporta-27 tion district license fees imposed by section five hundred three of the 28 vehicle and traffic law. Any interest received by the comptroller on 29 moneys on deposit in the metropolitan transportation authority financial 30 assistance fund shall be retained in and become a part of such fund.

31 § 5. Section 698 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 477 of the laws
32 of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

33 § 698. Deposit and disposition of revenue. [~~All~~] Except as provided 34 in section six hundred ninety-eight-a of this part, all taxes, interest
35 and penalties collected or received by the commissioner under this arti-36 cle shall be deposited and disposed of pursuant to the provisions of 37 section one hundred seventy-one-a of this chapter. Notwithstanding the 38 foregoing, unemployment insurance contributions and payments and aggre-39 gate withholding taxes collected or received by the commissioner from 40 employers in a single remittance accompanying the quarterly combined
41 withholding, wage reporting and unemployment insurance returns required 42 by paragraph four of subsection (a) of section six hundred seventy-four 43 of this article shall, if necessary, be deposited into an account to be 44 maintained jointly by the department and the department of labor at such 45 responsible bank, banking house or trust company as may be designated by 46 the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security from 47 such depository. Such departments shall determine the proper allocation
48 of the monies in such account as between unemployment insurance contrib-
49 utions and payments and aggregate withholding taxes. Unemployment insur-50 ance contributions and payments shall then be deposited and disposed of 51 pursuant to the provisions of title four of article eighteen of the 52 labor law, and aggregate withholding taxes shall be deposited and 53 disposed of pursuant to the provisions of sections one hundred seventy-54 one-a, thirteen hundred thirteen and thirteen hundred thirty-three of 55 this chapter, as applicable.

§ 6. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 698-a to read as follows:

§ 698-a. Deposit and disposition of certain revenue. Notwithstanding the provisions of section six hundred ninety-eight of this part to the contrary, for taxable year two thousand eighteen, one-half (.5) percent; for taxable year two thousand nineteen, one (1.0) percent; for taxable year two thousand twenty, one and one-half (1.5) percent; and for taxable years beginning in two thousand twenty-one and every year thereafter, two (2.0) percent of the taxes, interest and penalties collected or received by the commissioner under this article shall be distributed as follows:

(a) eighty-five percent of the funds generated from taxpayers residing in the metropolitan commuter transportation district established pursuant to section twelve hundred sixty-two of the public authorities law shall be deposited and disposed of pursuant to section eight hundred five of this chapter; ten percent of the funds generated from taxpayers residing in the metropolitan commuter transportation district established pursuant to section twelve hundred sixty-two of the public authorities law shall be deposited into the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund; and five percent of the funds generated from taxpayers residing in the metropolitan commuter transportation district established pursuant to section twelve hundred sixty-two of the public authorities law shall be deposited into the dedicated mass transportation trust fund to the credit of the non-MTA account for payment to downstate transit systems other than those transit systems operated by the metropolitan transportation authority.

(b) The funds generated from the taxpayers residing outside of the metropolitan commuter transportation district established pursuant to section twelve hundred sixty-two of the public authorities law shall be deposited as follows: thirty percent of the revenues shall be deposited into the dedicated mass transportation trust fund to the credit of the non-MTA account for payment to upstate transit systems and seventy percent of the revenues shall be deposited into the dedicated highway and bridge trust fund.

§ 7. Subsection (a) of section 805 of the tax law, as added by section 1 of part C of chapter 25 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The taxes, interest, and penalties imposed by this article and by section six hundred ninety-eight-a of this chapter and collected or received by the commissioner shall be deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies, as may be designated by the comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller in trust for the metropolitan transportation authority. An account may be established in one or more of such depositories. Such deposits will be kept separate and apart from all other money in the possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security from all such depositories. Of the total revenue collected or received under this article, the comptroller shall retain such amount as the commissioner may determine to be necessary for refunds under this article. The commissioner is authorized and directed to deduct from the amounts it receives under this article, before deposit into the trust accounts designated by the comptroller, a reasonable amount necessary to effectuate refunds of appropriations of the department to reimburse the department for the costs incurred to administer, collect and distribute the taxes imposed by this article.
