 - § 21. Section 4-1.6 of the estates, powers and trusts law, as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:
 - § 4-1.6 Disqualification of joint tenant in certain instances

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a joint tenant convicted of murder in the second degree as defined in section 125.25 of the penal law or murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of the penal law or aggravated murder of a child as defined in section 125.28 of the penal law of another joint tenant shall not be entitled to the distribution of any monies in a joint bank account created or contributed to by the deceased joint tenant, except for those monies contributed by the convicted joint tenant.

Upon the conviction of such joint tenant of first or second degree murder and upon application by the prosecuting attorney, the court, as part of its sentence, shall issue an order directing the amount of any joint bank account to be distributed pursuant to the provisions of this section from the convicted joint tenant and to the deceased joint tenant's estate. The court and the prosecuting attorney shall each have 40 41 the power to subpoena records of a banking institution to determine the amount of money in such bank account and by whom deposits were made. The 43 court shall also have the power to freeze such account upon application 44 by the prosecuting attorney during the pendency of a trial for first or 45 second degree murder. If, upon receipt of such court orders described in 46 this section, the banking institution holding monies in such joint account complies with the terms of the order, such banking institution shall be held free from all liability for the distribution of such funds as were in such joint account. In the absence of actual or constructive notice of such order, the banking institution holding monies in such 50 51 account shall be held harmless for distributing the money according to 52 its ordinary course of business.

53 For purposes of this section, the term banking institution shall have 54 the same meaning as provided for in paragraph (b) of subdivision three 55 of section nine-f of the banking law.
