Introduced by Sen. RITCHIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to the receipt of electronic reports by the state central register of child abuse and maltreatment; and to require the office of children and family services to develop and implement a web intake incident form for the receipt of electronic communications alleging child abuse or maltreatment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 422 of the social services law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 717 of the laws of 1986, paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 357 of the laws of 2014 and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 1039 of the laws of 1973, are amended to read as follows:

6 2. (a) The central register shall be capable of receiving telephone 7 calls and electronic reports alleging child abuse or maltreatment and of immediately identifying prior reports of child abuse or maltreatment and 9 capable of monitoring the provision of child protective service twenty-10 four hours a day, seven days a week. To effectuate this purpose, but 11 subject to the provisions of the appropriate local plan for the provision of child protective services, there shall be a single state-13 wide telephone number and internet address that all persons, whether mandated by the law or not, may use to make telephone calls or send 14 15 electronic communications alleging child abuse or maltreatment and that all persons so authorized by this title may use for determining the 16 17 existence of prior reports in order to evaluate the condition or circum-18 stances of a child. In addition to the single statewide telephone number and internet address, there shall be a special unlisted express 19 20 telephone number and a telephone facsimile number and internet address 21 for use only by persons mandated by law to make telephone calls, or to 22 transmit telephone facsimile or electronic information on a form 23 provided by the commissioner of children and family services, alleging child abuse or maltreatment, and for use by all persons so authorized by this title for determining the existence of prior reports in order to 3 evaluate the condition or circumstances of a child. The webpage created to accept electronic reports shall be capable of receiving digital images and electronic documents in common file formats. When any allegations contained in such telephone calls or electronic report could reasonably constitute a report of child abuse or maltreatment, such 7 allegations and any previous reports to the central registry involving 9 the subject of such report or children named in such report, including 10 any previous report containing allegations of child abuse and maltreat-11 ment alleged to have occurred in other counties and districts in New York state shall be immediately transmitted orally or electronically by 12 the office of children and family services to the appropriate local 13 14 child protective service for investigation. The inability of the person 15 calling the register or making the allegation online to identify the 16 alleged perpetrator shall, in no circumstance, constitute the sole cause 17 for the register to reject such allegation or fail to transmit such allegation for investigation. If the records indicate a previous report 18 19 concerning a subject of the report, the child alleged to be abused or 20 maltreated, a sibling, other children in the household, other persons 21 named in the report or other pertinent information, the appropriate local child protective service shall be immediately notified of the 22 fact. If the report involves either (i) an allegation of an abused child 23 described in paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of subdivision (e) of section 24 25 thousand twelve of the family court act or sexual abuse of a child 26 or the death of a child or (ii) suspected maltreatment which alleges any 27 physical harm when the report is made by a person required to report 28 pursuant to section four hundred thirteen of this title within six 29 months of any other two reports that were indicated, or may still be 30 pending, involving the same child, sibling, or other children in the 31 household or the subject of the report, the office of children and fami-32 ly services shall identify the report as such and note any prior reports 33 when transmitting the report to the local child protective services for 34 investigation.

- (b) Any telephone call or electronic report made by a person required to report cases of suspected child abuse or maltreatment pursuant to section four hundred thirteen of this [chapter] title containing allegations, which if true would constitute child abuse or maltreatment shall constitute a report and shall be immediately transmitted orally or electronically by the [department] office of children and family services to the appropriate local child protective service for investigation.
- (c) Whenever a telephone call or electronic report to the statewide central register described in this section is received by the [department] office of children and family services, and the [department] office of children and family services finds that the person allegedly responsible for abuse or maltreatment of a child cannot be a subject of a report as defined in subdivision four of section four hundred twelve of this [chapter] title, but believes that the alleged acts or circumstances against a child described in the telephone call or electronic report may constitute a crime or an immediate threat to the child's health or safety, the [department] office of children and family services, shall convey by the most expedient means available the information contained in such telephone call or electronic report to the appropriate law enforcement agency, district attorney or other public official empowered to provide necessary aid or assistance.

3. The central register shall include but not be limited to the following information: all the information in the written and electronic report; a record of the final disposition of the report, including services offered and services accepted; the plan for rehabilitative treatment; the names and identifying data, dates and circumstances of any person requesting or receiving information from the register; and any other information which the commissioner believes might be helpful in the furtherance of the purposes of this chapter.

- § 2. 1. The office of children and family services shall develop and implement a web intake incident form on the office of children and family services website for the receipt of electronic communications alleging child abuse or maltreatment as authorized pursuant to section 422 of the social services law.
 - 2. The web intake incident form shall include but not be limited to:
 - (a) Information for mandated reporters;
- (b) Information for when the use of the web intake incident form is appropriate, including notification that use of the online form should not be used to report an incident that is an emergency and that the reporter should immediately contact emergency services;
- (c) Space to provide details on the incident in question, victim information, information of the perpetrator, and the reporter's contact information, if applicable;
- (d) Any information required pursuant to section 422 of the social services law or other applicable sections of law;
- (e) The ability to attach digital images and electronic documents in common file formats; and
- (f) A review page of the information entered on the form prior to the electronic submission of the report.
- § 3. This act shall take effect one year after this act shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the commissioner of the office of children and family services is authorized to promulgate any and all rules and regulations and take any other measures necessary to implement this act on its effective date, on or before such date.
