AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to New York itemized deductions of a resident individual

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 615 of the tax law, as amended by section 1 of part HH of chapter 57 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

4 (a) General. If federal taxable income of a resident individual is determined by itemizing deductions from his federal adjusted gross income, he may elect to deduct his New York itemized deduction in lieu of his New York standard deduction. The New York itemized deduction of a resident individual means the total amount of his deductions from federal adjusted gross income, other than federal deductions for personal exemptions, as provided in the laws of the United States for the taxable year two thousand seventeen, with the modifications specified in this section, except as provided for under subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
