AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to enacting the "fair elections act"; to amend the election law, the state finance law and the tax law, in relation to providing for optional partial public financing of certain election campaigns in this state; and to amend the general business law, in relation to additional surcharges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "fair elections act".

§ 2. Legislative findings and declarations. The legislature declares that it is in the public interest to create and ensure a truly democratic political system in which citizens, irrespective of their income, status, or financial connections, are enabled and encouraged to compete for public office. Therefore, the legislature finds it necessary to establish a system of public financing for all qualified candidates for state elective offices and constitutional convention delegates. The legislature further finds that a new system of public financing would be best administered by a new "fair elections board" empowered with effective oversight and enforcement capabilities dedicated to working with and assisting candidates excel in the public financing system.

§ 3. Section 3-102 of the election law is amended by adding two new subdivisions 3-a and 16-b to read as follows:

3-a. notwithstanding subdivision three of this section, the fair elections board enforcement counsel, established pursuant to subdivision six of section 14-216 of this chapter, as it may deem necessary, after the fair elections board has considered the matter or matters in question shall conduct any investigation necessary to enforce the provisions of title two of article fourteen of this chapter on behalf of the board of elections. Such investigations shall be kept confidential until brought to the fair elections board for review and consideration.

16-b. hear and consider the recommendations of the fair elections board enforcement counsel regarding the enforcement of violations of title two of article fourteen of this chapter, as it may deem necessary, after the fair elections board has considered the matter or matters in question;

§ 4. Subdivision 1 of section 3-104 of the election law is amended by adding a new paragraph (a-1) to read as follows:

(a-1) There shall also be a unit known as the fair elections enforcement unit established within the fair elections board. The head of such unit shall be the enforcement counsel. Such unit shall have sole authority within the state board of elections to investigate alleged violations and complaints arising under title two of article fourteen of this chapter.

§ 5. Section 3-104 of the election law is amended by adding twelve new subdivisions 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20 to read as follows:

9. If the fair election board enforcement counsel determines that a violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter has occurred which could warrant a civil penalty, the enforcement counsel shall, upon his or her discretion, seek to resolve the matter extra-judicially or commence a special proceeding in the supreme court pursuant to section 16-114 of this chapter.

10. Upon receipt of a complaint and supporting information alleging any other violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter, the fair elections board enforcement counsel shall analyze the complaint to determine if an investigation should be undertaken. The fair elections board enforcement counsel shall, if necessary, request additional information from the complainant to assist such counsel in making this determination. Such analysis shall be confidential and include the following: first, whether the allegations, if true, would constitute a violation of article fourteen of this chapter and, second, whether the allegations are supported by credible evidence.

11. If the fair elections board enforcement counsel determines that the allegations, if true, would not constitute a violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter or that the allegations are not supported by credible evidence, he or she shall issue a letter to the complainant dismissing the complaint.

12. If the fair elections board enforcement counsel determines that the allegations, if true, would constitute a violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter and that the allegations appear to be supported by credible evidence, he or she shall notify the fair elections board of (a) his or her intent to resolve the matter extra-judicially due to the de minimus nature of the violation; or (b) his or her intent to commence an investigation, no later than the fair elections board’s next regularly scheduled meeting. Notification shall summarize the relevant facts and the applicable law and shall, to the extent possible, protect from public disclosure the identity of the complainant and the individual subject to the complaint. In determining whether a violation is de minimus in nature the enforcement counsel shall consider the following factors: (a) whether any unforeseen extraordinary circumstances, such as a natural disaster, contributed to the violation alleged in the complaint; (b) whether the participating candidate or such candidate’s campaign treasurer exercised due diligence to abide by the applicable rules; (c) whether the participating candidate or such candidate’s campaign treasurer has used such candidate’s or treasurer’s personal funds to remedy any alleged violations or reimburse the candidate’s committee for any alleged improper expenditures; (d) whether the participating candidate or such candidate’s campaign treasurer agrees to pay any penalties assessed by the board in relation to any potential excess expenditure; and (e) whether the subject of the complaint has made a good faith effort to correct any alleged violation.

13. If, upon considering the fair elections board enforcement counsel’s notice of intent to commence an investigation, the fair elections board believes that the allegations, if true, would not constitute a violation of article fourteen of this chapter, or the allegations are not supported by credible evidence or, that on balance, the equities favor a dismissal of the complaint, the board shall publicly direct that an investigation not be undertaken no later than sixty days after the receipt of notification from the fair elections board enforcement counsel of his or her intent to commence an investigation. In determining whether the equities favor a dismissal of the complaint, the fair elections board shall consider the following factors: (a) whether the complaint alleges a de minimus violation of article fourteen of this chapter; (b) whether the subject of the complaint has made a good faith effort to correct the violation; and (c) whether the subject of the complaint has a history of similar violations. Determinations of the fair elections board to dismiss a complaint and not proceed with a formal investigation shall be voted upon as provided in subdivision twelve of section 14-216 of this chapter at an open meeting pursuant to article seven of the public officers law, and shall be made on a fair and equitable basis and without regard to the status of the subject of the complaint.

14. Absent a timely determination by the fair elections board that an investigation shall not be undertaken, the fair elections board enforcement counsel shall commence an investigation on a timely basis. If the fair elections board enforcement counsel determines that additional investigative powers, as provided for in subdivisions four, five and six of section 3-102 of this title, are needed to complete the counsel’s investigation, he or she shall request, upon approval of the fair elections board, such additional powers from the state board of elections. Such powers shall be granted by the board in public, as provided in subdivision four of section 3-100 of this title, only when the board finds that further investigation is warranted and justified.

15. At the conclusion of its investigation, the fair elections board enforcement counsel shall provide the fair elections board with a written recommendation as to: (a) whether substantial reason exists to believe a violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter has occurred and, if so, the nature of the violation and any applicable penalty, as defined in section 14-126, 14-220 or 14-222 of this chapter, based on the nature of the violation; (b) whether the matter should be resolved extra-judicially; (c) whether a special proceeding should be commenced in the supreme court to recover a civil penalty; and (d) whether a referral should be made to a district attorney or the attorney general pursuant to subdivision seventeen of this section because reasonable cause exists to believe a violation warranting criminal prosecution has taken place.

16. The fair elections board shall accept, modify or reject the enforcement counsel's recommendation no later than sixty days after receipt of such recommendation. In making its determination, the board shall again consider: (a) whether the complaint alleges a de minimus violation of article fourteen of this chapter; (b) whether the subject of the complaint has made a good faith effort to correct the violation; and (c) whether the subject of the complaint has a history of similar violations. All such determinations shall be voted upon as provided in subdivision twelve of section 14-216 of this chapter at an open meeting pursuant to article seven of the public officers law, and shall be made on a fair and equitable basis, without regard to the status of the subject of the complaint.

17. (a) If the fair elections board determines, as provided in subdivision sixteen of this section, that substantial reason exists to believe that a person, acting as or on behalf of a candidate or political committee under circumstances evincing an intent to violate such law, has unlawfully accepted a contribution in excess of a contribution limitation established in title two of article fourteen of this chapter, which could warrant a civil penalty as provided for in subdivision three of section 14-126 or subdivision two of section 14-222 of this chapter, the board shall direct the commencement of a special proceeding in the supreme court.

(b) If the fair elections board determines, as provided in subdivision sixteen of this section that reasonable cause exists to believe a violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter warranting criminal prosecution has taken place, the board shall refer the matter to a district attorney and shall make available to such district attorney all papers, documents, testimony and findings relevant to its investigation. Where reasonable cause exists to believe that a candidate for the office of attorney general has violated title two of article fourteen of this chapter, the board shall refer the matter to the district attorney of the appropriate county.

(c) If the fair elections board determines, as provided in subdivision sixteen of this section that reasonable cause exists to believe a violation of title two of article fourteen of this chapter, warranting criminal prosecution has taken place, the board shall, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, refer the matter to the attorney general and shall make available to the same all papers, documents, testimony and findings relevant to its investigation.

18. Upon notification that a special proceeding has been commenced by a party other than the fair elections board, pursuant to section 16-114 of this chapter, the fair elections board shall direct the fair elections board enforcement counsel to investigate the alleged violations unless otherwise directed by the court.

19. The fair elections board enforcement counsel shall prepare a report, to be included in the annual report to the governor and legislature, summarizing the activities of the unit during the previous year. Such report shall include: (i) the number of complaints received; (ii) the number of complaints that were found to need investigation and the nature of each complaint; and (iii) the number of matters that have been resolved. The report shall not contain any information for which disclosure is not permitted.

20. The fair elections board may promulgate rules and regulations consistent with law to effectuate the provisions of this section.

§ 6. The state of New York shall appropriate during each fiscal year to the New York state fair elections board enforcement unit, not less than thirty-five percent of the appropriation available from the general fund for the state board of elections to pay for the expenses of such enforcement unit. Notwithstanding section fifty-one of the state finance law, such funding shall not be decreased by interchange with any other appropriation.

§ 7. The election law is amended by adding a new section 3-111 to read as follows:
§ 3-111. Personal use of campaign funds. Upon written request from any person who is subject to the requirements of section 14-130 of this chapter, the fair elections board shall render formal and advisory opinions on the requirements of said provision. An opinion rendered by the board, until and unless amended or revoked, shall be binding on the board in any subsequent proceeding concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted in good faith and reliance on such opinion, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person in the request for an opinion. Such opinion may also be relied upon by such person, and may be introduced and shall be defense in any criminal or civil action. Such request shall be confidential, but the board shall publish such opinions provided that the name of the requesting person and other identifying details shall not be included in the publication.

§ 8. Section 14-100 of the election law is amended by adding a new subdivision 17 to read as follows:

17. The amount of each public funds receipt limitation fixed in this section shall be adjusted by the amount of such percentage difference to the closest one hundred dollars by the state board which, not later than the first day of February in each such year, shall issue a regulation publishing the amount of each such contribution limit. Each public fund receipt limit as so adjusted shall be the public funds receipt limit in effect for any election held before the next such adjustment.

There shall be a board within the state board of elections known as the "fair elections board" composed of five members, of which one member shall be appointed by the governor and one member shall be appointed by each legislative leader of the senate and assembly. An officer or employee of the state or any state agency shall not be eligible to be a member of the fair elections board.
4. The members of the fair elections board shall be entitled to receive payment for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as members of such board.

5. A member of the fair elections board may be removed for cause by the appointing authority upon notice and an opportunity for a hearing.

6. 10. The fair elections board's administration of the fund shall be governed by the provisions of this title and section ninety-two-y of the state finance law.

11. The fair elections board and its proceedings shall be governed by the state administrative procedure act and subject to articles six and seven of the public officers law.

§ 14-218. Examinations and audits. 1. The fair elections board may conduct a thorough examination and pre-election audit of the contributions and qualified campaign expenses of the participating committee of every participating candidate who received payments pursuant to section 14-210 of this title. Such audits shall be conducted as frequently as the fair elections board deems necessary to ensure compliance with this title. The fair elections board shall notify, in writing, any candidate's authorized committee prior to the commencement of such pre-election audit. No pre-election audit shall commence in the absence of the notice requirement of this subdivision. Every candidate who receives public matching funds under this title shall also be audited by the fair elections board post-election. The cost of complying with a post-election audit shall be borne by the candidate's authorized committee. A candidate who runs in both a primary and a general election, must maintain a reserve of one percent of the total amount of public matching funds received by such candidate for both his or her primary and general election. A candidate may use public matching funds, private funds or a combination of public and private funds to comply with a post-election audit. The fair elections board shall issue to each campaign audited the final post-election audit report that details its findings and shall provide such audit to the governor and legislative leaders and make such audit report available on the state board of elections' website. Final post-election audit reports shall be completed no later than twelve months after the date of the election or elections for which the candidate received public funds. This audit deadline shall not apply in cases involving potential campaign-related fraud, knowing and willful violations of this article or criminal activity.

2. (a) If the fair elections board determines that any portion of the payment made to a participating committee from the fund was in excess of the aggregate amount of payments to which such eligible candidate was entitled pursuant to section 14-210 of this title, it shall notify such committee of the excess amount and such committee shall pay to the fair elections board an amount equal to the amount of excess payments; provided, however, that if the erroneous payment was due to an error made by the fair elections board, then the erroneous payment will be offset against any future payment, if any. The participating committee shall be liable for any repayments due to the fair elections board for deposit by such board into the New York state campaign fund. (b) If the board determines that any amount of payment made to a participating committee from the fund was used for purposes other than to defray qualified campaign expenses, it shall notify such participating committee of the amount disqualified and such participating committee shall pay to the fair elections board an amount equal to such disqualified amount. Such monies shall be deposited into the New York state fair elections fund created pursuant to section ninety-two-y of the state finance law. The candidate's authorized committee shall be liable for any repayments due to the fair elections board. (c) If the total of contributions and payments from the fund received by any participating candidate and such candidate's participating committee, exceeds the public funding receipt limitation of such candidate and committee, such candidate and committee shall use such excess funds to reimburse the fund for payments received by such committee from the fund not later than ten days after all permissible liabilities have been paid and in any event, not later than twenty days after the date on which the fair elections board issues its final audit report for the participating candidate's committee; provided, however, that all unspent matching funds for a participating candidate shall be immediately due and payable to the fair elections board for deposit into the New York state fair elections fund upon its determination that the participant willfully delayed the post-election audit process. A participating candidate may make post-election expenditures only for routine activities involving nominal costs associated with ending a campaign and responding to the post-election audit. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the post-election expenditure of public funds for debts incurred during the campaign for which public funds were eligible to be used. 3. If a court of competent jurisdiction disqualifies a candidate whose participating committee has received public funds on the grounds that such candidate committed fraudulent acts in order to obtain a place on the ballot and such decision is not reversed by a higher court, such candidate and such candidate's participating committee shall pay to the fair elections board an amount equal to the total of public funds received by such participating committee. 4. The board must provide written notice of all payments due from a participating candidate or such candidate's committee to the board and provide an opportunity for the candidate or committee to rebut, in whole or in part, the alleged amount due. Upon a final written determination by the board, the amount due shall be paid to the board within thirty days of such determination. 5. All payments received by the board pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the New York state fair elections fund established by section ninety-two-y of the state finance law. 6. Any advice provided by the staff or members of the fair elections board to a participating or non-participating candidate in connection with any action under this article, when relied upon in good faith, shall be presumptive evidence that such candidate or his or her committee did not knowingly and willfully violate the provisions of this article.
§ 14-220. Civil enforcement. 1. Any person or authorized committee who knowingly and wilfully fails to make a filing required by the provisions of this title shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed the amount of five thousand dollars.

2. Any person or authorized committee who knowingly and intentionally violates any other provision of this title or any rule promulgated hereunder shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed the amount of ten thousand dollars.

3. Fines authorized under this section will be imposed by the fair elections board after a hearing at which the subject person or authorized committee shall be given an opportunity to be heard. Such hearing shall be held in such manner and upon such notice as may be prescribed by the rules of the fair elections board. For purposes of conducting such hearings, the fair elections board shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized.

4. The fair elections board shall publish on the state board of elections' website the final order adjudicating any matter brought pursuant to this section.

5. All payments received by the fair elections board pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the New York state fair elections fund established by section ninety-two-y of the state finance law.

§ 14-222. Criminal penalties. 1. Any person who knowingly and willfully fails to make a filing required by the provisions of this title within ten days after the date provided for such, or anyone that knowingly and willfully violates any other provision of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition to such other penalties as may be provided by law, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed the amount of ten thousand dollars.

2. Any person who knowingly and willfully contributes, accepts or aids or participates in the contribution or acceptance of a contribution in an amount exceeding an applicable maximum specified in this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine not to exceed the amount of ten thousand dollars.

3. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement or knowingly omits a material fact to the fair elections board or an auditor designated by the fair elections board during any audit conducted pursuant to section 14-218 of this title shall be guilty of a class E felony.

4. In addition to any other sentence lawfully imposed upon a finding of guilt in a criminal prosecution commenced pursuant to the provisions of this section, the court may order a defendant to repay to the fair elections board any public matching funds obtained as a result of any criminal conduct.

5. All such prosecutions for criminal acts under this title shall be prosecuted by the attorney general of the state of New York.

6. Any and all fines imposed pursuant to this section shall be made payable to the fair elections board for deposit into the New York state fair elections fund.

§ 14-224. Reports. The fair elections board shall submit a report to the governor and legislative leaders on or before February first, two thousand nineteen, and every four years thereafter, which shall include:
1. a list of the participating and nonparticipating candidates in covered elections and the votes received by each candidate in those elections;
2. the amount of contributions and loans received, and expenditures made, on behalf of participating and nonparticipating candidates;
3. the amount of public matching funds each participating candidate received, spent, and repaid pursuant to this article;
4. analysis of the effect of this title on the election campaigns for all offices covered under section 14-206 of this title, including its effect on the sources and amounts of private financing, the level of campaign expenditures, voter participation, the number of candidates, the candidates' abilities to campaign effectively for public office, and the diversity of candidates seeking and elected to office;
5. recommendations for changes or amendments to this title, including charges in contribution limits, thresholds for eligibility and limits on total matching funds as well as instituting a program of full public campaign financing for election for all statewide offices; and
6. any other information that the fair elections board deems relevant.
§ 14-226. Debates. The fair elections board shall promulgate regulations to facilitate debates among participating candidates. Participating candidates are required to participate in at least one debate before the primary election and in at least one debate before the general election for which the candidate receives public funds, unless the participating candidate is running unopposed. A nonparticipating candidate may be a party to such debates.
§ 14-228. Distributions from fair elections fund. 1. This section governs the fair elections board's distribution of funds from the fair elections fund created by section ninety-two-y of the state finance law, except as otherwise provided in this title.
2. No moneys shall be paid to participating candidates in a primary election any earlier than two weeks after the last day to file designating petitions for such primary election.
3. No moneys shall be paid to participating candidates in a general election any earlier than a week after the primary election held to nominate candidates for such election.
4. No moneys shall be paid to any participating candidate who has been disqualified by the fair elections board or whose designating petitions have been declared invalid by the state board of elections or a court of competent jurisdiction until and unless such finding is reversed by an appellate court.
5. No payment from the fund in the possession of such a candidate or such a candidate's authorized committee on the date of such disqualification or invalidation may thereafter be expended for any purpose except the payment of liabilities incurred before that date. All excess public moneys paid to a disqualified candidate shall be returned to the fund not less than thirty days after the general election for those participating candidates who received public moneys for the general election, and otherwise, not less than thirty days after the primary election for those participating candidates who received public moneys solely for the primary election.
6. (a) Participating candidates shall pay to the fair elections board unspent public campaign funds from an election not later than thirty days after all liabilities for the election have been paid and, in any event, not less than twenty days after the date upon which the fair elections board issues its final audit report for the participating candidate's committee; provided, however, that all unspent public campaign funds for a participating candidate shall be immediately due and payable to the fair elections board upon its determination that the participating candidate has, without just cause, delayed the post-election audit process. Unspent campaign funds determinations made by the fair elections board shall be based on the participating candidate committee’s receipts and expenditures. The fair elections board may also consider any other relevant information revealed in the course of its audits or investigations or the investigations by any other agency.

(b)(i) A participating candidate may not use receipts for any purpose other than disbursements in the preceding election until all unspent public campaign funds have been repaid. A participating candidate shall have the burden of demonstrating that a post-election expenditure is for the preceding election.

(ii) Before repaying unspent public campaign funds, a participating candidate may make post-election expenditures only for routine activities involving nominal costs associated with winding up a campaign and responding to the post-election audit. Such expenditures may include: payment of utility bills and rent; reasonable staff salaries and consultant fees for responding to a post-election audit; reasonable moving expenses related to closing a campaign office; a holiday card mailing to contributors, campaign volunteers, and staff members; thank you notes for contributors, campaign volunteers, and staff members; payment of taxes and other reasonable expenses for compliance with applicable tax laws; and interest expenses. Such amount shall be deducted beginning from the first allowable disbursement from the fund until such excess amount is reached, at which point the public fund disbursement shall be provided to the candidate consistent with the provisions of this section.

3. Upon the fair elections board's failure to receive the amount due from a participating candidate or such candidate's committee after the issuance of written notice of such amount due, as required by subdivision four of section 14-218 of this chapter, such board is authorized to institute a special proceeding or civil action in Supreme Court, Albany county, to obtain a judgment for any amounts determined to be payable to the fair elections board.

4. The fair elections board is authorized to institute a special proceeding or civil action in Supreme Court, Albany county, to obtain a judgment for civil penalties determined to be payable to the fair elections board pursuant to section 14-218 of this chapter.

3. If any such county board of elections should disqualify any such candidate or rule the petition or certificate designating or nominating any such candidate invalid, it shall forthwith notify the state board of elections of such decision.

4. for the purposes of the fund as defined in this section and depositing them into the fund according to law. Monies in the fund shall be kept separate from and not commingled with other funds held in the custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance.

after such voucher is received by the state comptroller.

5. Commencing in two thousand nineteen, if the surplus in the fund on April first of the year after an election cycle exceeds twenty-five percent of the disbursements from the fund over the previous four years, the excess shall revert to the general fund of the state.

6. No public funds shall be paid to any participating candidates in a primary election any earlier than the day that such candidate is certi-
