Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing incapacity to consent when a person is under arrest, in detention or otherwise in actual custody

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 130.05 of the penal law is amended
2 by adding a new paragraph (j) to read as follows:

3 (j) under arrest, in detention or otherwise in the actual custody of a 4 police officer, peace officer or other law enforcement official and the 5 actor is a police officer, peace officer or other law enforcement offi-6 cial who either: (i) is responsible for effecting the arrest of such 7 person or maintaining such person in detention or actual custody; or 8 (ii) knows, or reasonably should know, that such person is under such 9 arrest, detention or actual custody.

10 § 2. Subdivision 4 of section 130.10 of the penal law, as amended by 11 chapter 205 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

12 4. In any prosecution under this article in which the victim's lack of 13 consent is based solely on his or her incapacity to consent because he 14 or she was less than seventeen years old, mentally disabled, a client or 15 patient and the actor is a health care provider, under arrest, in 16 detention or otherwise in actual custody of law enforcement under the 17 circumstances described in paragraph (j) of subdivision three of section 18 130.05 of this article, or committed to the care and custody or super-19 vision of the state department of corrections and community supervision 20 or a hospital and the actor is an employee, it shall be a defense that 21 the defendant was married to the victim as defined in subdivision four 22 of section 130.00 of this article.

23 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 24 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
