Introduced by Sen. RANZENHOFER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, in relation to authorizing the authorities budget office to suspend local authority board members and executive staff

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new 2 section 6-a to read as follows:

3 § 6-a. Power to suspend local authority board members and executive 4 staff. 1. The authorities budget office shall have the authority,
5 subject to subdivision two of this section, to suspend one or more
6 members of a local authority board of directors, or the chief executive 7 officer or equivalent position of a local authority for a period not to 8 exceed ninety days when such individual or individuals knowingly fails 9 or neglects to submit any report required by section twenty-eight 10 hundred of this chapter within thirty-six months of its due date. The 11 authorities budget office is authorized to terminate such a suspension 12 if the board member or chief executive officer demonstrates that he or 13 she has remedied their non-compliance. For the purposes of this section, 14 the "suspension" of an individual shall mean the temporary removal of 15 the rights, responsibilities, powers and duties of a person who is an 16 appointed board member of a local authority or the individual who serves 17 as chief executive officer through appointment or contract. Should the 18 authorities budget office suspend the full board of directors or a 19 majority of current board members the term "suspension" shall mean the 20 board of directors is prohibited from taking actions, votes, or adopting 21 resolutions, that bind the board to future agreements, contracts, finan-
22 cial commitments, indebtedness, or other actions, other than actions 23 necessary to resolve the noncompliance or satisfy existing legal or 24 administrative obligations.

25 2. (a) Pursuant to policies and procedures developed by the authori-
26 ties budget office and made available on its website, when the authori-

1 ties budget office has reason to believe that one or more board members 2 of a local authority has knowingly failed or neglected to submit any 3 report required by section twenty-eight hundred of this chapter within 4 thirty-six months of its due date, the authorities budget office shall 5 provide at least thirty days' notice of its intent to initiate suspen-
6 sion proceedings to the chairperson of the local authority, to the indi-7 vidual or individuals responsible for appointing such board members, and 8 to each such board member. If the authorities budget office has reason 9 to believe that the chief executive officer of a local authority has 10 knowingly failed or neglected to submit any report required by section 11 twenty-eight hundred of this chapter within thirty-six months of its due 12 date, the authorities budget office shall provide at least thirty days'
13 notice of its intent to initiate suspension proceedings to the chair-14 person of the local authority and to the chief executive officer. Such 15 notice shall include, but shall not be limited to (i) the date and a 16 brief description of the facts and nature of each non-compliance for 17 which such suspension is proposed; (ii) the number of days that the 18 authorities budget office proposes to suspend such board member or chief 19 executive officer; (iii) the option to submit a formal response to the 20 authorities budget office which demonstrates why such board member or 21 chief executive officer should not be suspended; and (iv) if applicable, 22 a period of time in which such local authority or board member or chief 23 executive officer may remedy the non-compliance.

24 (b) If, after the expiration of the deadline set forth in the notice
25 of intent pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (a) of this subdi-
26 vision, the board member or members or chief executive officer, whichev-
27 er is applicable, has not responded to the notice or has not remedied
28 the non-compliance to the satisfaction of the authorities budget office,
29 the authorities budget office shall issue to the non-compliant board 30 member or members or chief executive officer a notice of suspension 31 which shall include: (i) the number of days of suspension; and (ii) the 32 date that such suspension shall commence, which date shall be at least 33 one hundred eighty days from the date of the issuance of the notice of 34 suspension.

35 3. (a) Whenever the authorities budget office has suspended one or 36 more board members of a local authority, the individual or individuals 37 who appointed those board members may act to reinstate a suspended board 38 member. If the appointing authority is a legislative body or a member of 39 the legislative body, any action to reinstate a suspended board member 40 shall occur in a public meeting of such body and following an opportu-
41 nity for the public to comment. Such action shall be deemed valid upon 42 passage of a written resolution of reinstatement by a majority and 43 recorded vote of the legislative body. Such resolution shall describe 44 the facts and circumstances by which the legislative body has reached 45 this determination. If the appointing authority is the chief executive 46 official of the municipality for whose benefit the local authority was 47 created, any action to reinstate a suspended board member shall be 48 through an official act of the chief executive official. Such act shall 49 be recorded in writing and shall describe the facts and circumstances by 50 which the chief executive official reached this determination.

51 (b) Whenever the authorities budget office has suspended the chief 52 executive officer of a local authority, the chairperson of such local 53 authority may initiate action to reinstate the suspended chief executive 54 officer. Any action to reinstate a suspended chief executive officer 55 shall occur in a public meeting of the board of directors and following 56 an opportunity for the public to comment. Such action shall be deemed

1 valid upon passage of a written resolution of reinstatement by a majori-
2 ty and recorded vote of the current board of directors. Such resolution 3 shall describe the facts and circumstances by which the board of direc-
4 tors reached this determination.

5 (c) For the purposes of this section, "reinstatement" shall mean the 6 restoration of the rights, responsibilities, powers and duties of a 7 board member or chief executive officer of a local authority.

8 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 9 have become a law.
