IN SENATE

January 4, 2017

Introduced by Sen. CARLUCCI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to requiring that websites providing inmate information be searchable by the inmate's name, former name or alias

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 9 of the correction law, as added by section 2 of 2 part 00 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as 3 follows:
4 § 9. Access to inmate information via the internet. Notwithstanding 5 any provision of law to the contrary, any information relating to the 6 conviction of a person, except for a person convicted of an offense that 7 would make such person ineligible for merit time under section eight
8 hundred three of this chapter or an offense for which registration as a 9 sex offender is required as set forth in subdivision two or three of 10 section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this chapter, that is posted on a 11 website maintained by or for the department, under article six of the 12 public officers law, may be posted on such website for a period not to 13 exceed five years after the expiration of such person's sentence of 14 imprisonment and any period of parole or post-release supervision;
15 provided, however, that in the case of a person who has been committed 16 to the department on more than one occasion, the department may post 17 conviction information relating to any prior commitment on such website 18 for a period not to exceed five years after the expiration of such 19 person's sentence of imprisonment and any period of parole or post-re-
20 lease supervision arising from the most recent commitment to the depart-21 ment; provided further, however, that any such website that allows the 22 public to search for inmate information shall be programmed in such a 23 manner that the search may be successful by input of the inmate's
