Introduced by Sen. FUNKE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to the musical and theatrical production credit; and to amend part HH of chapter 59 of the laws of 2014 amending the tax law relating to a musical and theatrical production credit, in relation to extending the effectiveness of such provisions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision (e) of section 24-a of the tax law, as added by 2 section 1 of part HH of chapter 59 of the laws of 2014, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 (e) Maximum amount of credits. (1) The aggregate amount of tax credits
5 allowed under this section, subdivision forty-seven of section two 6 hundred ten-B and subsection (u) of section six hundred six of this 7 chapter in any calendar year shall be [~~four~~ six million dollars. Such 8 aggregate amount of credits shall be allocated by the department of 9 economic development among taxpayers in order of priority based upon the 10 date of filing an application for allocation of musical and theatrical 11 production credit with such department. If the total amount of allocated 12 credits applied for in any particular year exceeds the aggregate amount 13 of tax credits allowed for such year under this section, such excess 14 shall be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the 15 subsequent year.

16 (2) The commissioner of economic development, after consulting with 17 the commissioner, shall promulgate regulations by October thirty-first, 18 two thousand fourteen to establish procedures for the allocation of tax 19 credits as required by subdivision (a) of this section. Such rules and 20 regulations shall include provisions describing the application process, 21 the due dates for such applications, the standards which shall be used 22 to evaluate the applications, the documentation that will be provided to 23 taxpayers to substantiate to the department the amount of tax credits 24 allocated to such taxpayers, and such other provisions as deemed necessary and appropriate. Such rules and regulations shall permit an applicant for credits under this section to provide the required certifications by providing information and other documentation provided by a licensed auditor on behalf of the applicant. Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary in the state administrative procedure act, such rules and regulations may be adopted on an emergency basis if necessary to meet such October thirty-first, two thousand fourteen deadline.

§ 2. Section 5 of part HH of chapter 59 of the laws of 2014 amending the tax law relating to a musical and theatrical production credit, is amended to read as follows:

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately, provided that section two of this act shall take effect on January 1, 2015, and shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, with respect to "qualified production expenditures" and "transportation expenditures" paid or incurred on or after such effective date, regardless of whether the production of the qualified musical or theatrical production commenced before such date, provided further that this act shall expire and be deemed repealed [~~4 years after such date~~] March 31, 2023.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately, provided, however, that the amendments to section 24-a of the tax law made by section one of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall expire and be deemed to repeal therewith.
