AN ACT directing the empire state development corporation to study a proposed rule of the department of labor prior to its adoption

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature recognizes the importance of the administrative rulemaking of agencies of state governments. 2 The state administrative procedure act (SAPA) was enacted to ensure 3 uniform and equitable practices to meet the public interest. SAPA 4 provides for a job impact analysis by an agency to evaluate the potential impact of a proposed rule on jobs and employment opportunities. 5 SAPA also requires a regulatory impact statement and a regulatory flexibility analysis for small business, which includes a study of costs and 6 economic impact. 7

8 § 2. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the 9 proposed rule contained in the November 22, 2017 State Register 10 (LAB-47-17-00011-P) by the New York state department of labor, which 11 would revise the call-in pay requirements of the minimum wage order for 12 miscellaneous industries and occupations (12 NYCRR Part 142 at §§ 13 142-2.3 and 142-3.3) shall not be filed by the department of labor with 14 the secretary of state and published in the state register until not 15 less than 90 days after completion of a study providing additional evaluation of the potential impact of the rule by the empire state development corporation as provided for in this act. 16

17 § 3. The empire state development corporation shall, in conjunction 18 with a third party, undertake a study to provide additional evaluation 19 on the additional impacts on jobs and employment opportunities, cost and 20 the economic impact, particularly on small businesses, of the proposed 21 rule referenced herein. Stakeholders impacted by this rule shall be 22 contacted to obtain information. Upon completion, such study shall be 23 provided to the department of labor. Such study, including the addi- 24
