AN ACT to amend the arts and cultural affairs law, in relation to music licensing

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 31.04 of the arts and cultural affairs law, as 2 added by chapter 660 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 31.04. Copyrights. 1. As used in this section:

4 (a) "Copyright owner" means the owner of a copyright of a nondramatic
5 musical work recognized and enforceable under the copyright laws of the 6 United States pursuant to Title 17 of the United States Code, Pub. L.
7 94-553 (17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.). "Copyright owner" shall not include 8 the owner of a copyright in a motion picture or audiovisual work, or in 9 part of a motion picture or audiovisual work.

10 (b) "Performing rights society" means an association or corporation
11 that licenses the public performance of nondramatic musical works on 12 behalf of copyright owners, such as the American Society of Composers,
13 Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI), and SESAC, 14 Inc.

15 (c) "Proprietor" means the owner of a retail establishment, restau-
16 rant, inn, bar, tavern, sports or entertainment facility, or any other 17 similar place of business or professional office located in this state
18 in which the public may assemble and in which nondramatic musical works
19 or similar copyrighted works may be performed, broadcast, or otherwise
20 transmitted for the enjoyment of members of the public there assembled.

21 (d) "Royalty" or "royalties" means the fees payable to a copyright 22 owner or performing rights society for the public performance rights of 23 nondramatic musical works or other similar works.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets

8. A representative or agent of a performing rights society shall not:

(a) use obscene, abusive or profane language when communicating with the proprietor or his or her employees;

(b) communicate by telephone or in-person with a proprietor other than at the proprietor's place of business during the hours when the proprietor's business is open to the public. However, such communications may occur at a location other than the proprietor's place of business or during hours when the proprietor's business is not open to the public if the proprietor or the proprietor's agents, employees, or representatives so authorizes;

(c) engage in any coercive conduct, act, or practice that is substantially disruptive to a proprietor's business;

(d) use or attempt to use any unfair or deceptive act or practice in negotiating with a proprietor; or

(e) communicate with an unlicensed proprietor about licensing performances of musical works at the proprietor's establishment after receiving notification in writing from an attorney representing the proprietor that all further communications related to the licensing of the proprietor's establishment by the performing rights society should be addressed to the attorney. However, the performing rights society may resume communicating directly with the proprietor if the attorney fails to respond to communications from the performing rights society within sixty days, or the attorney becomes nonresponsive for a period of at least sixty days.

9. The department of state shall:

(a) inform proprietors of their rights and responsibilities regarding the public performance of copyrighted music as part of the business of licensing service; and

(b) encourage performing rights societies to conduct outreach campaigns to educate existing proprietors on their rights and responsibilities regarding the public performance of copyrighted music.

10. Anyone who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section may be liable for a civil penalty of not more than one thousand

1 dollars per violation. Multiple violations on a single day may be
2 considered separate violations. The attorney general may seek recovery
3 of all such penalties in a civil action. The attorney general may issue
4 civil investigative demands for the inspection of documents, interroga-
5 tory responses, and oral testimony in the enforcement of this section.

6 11. Any person who suffers a violation of this section may bring an 7 action to recover actual damages and reasonable attorney's fees and seek 8 an injunction or any other remedy available at law or in equity. This 9 section shall not apply to contracts between performing rights societies
10 and broadcasters licensed by the federal communications commission or to 11 contracts with cable operators, programmers or other transmission
12 services. This section shall also not apply to investigations conducted 13 by law enforcement agencies or other persons with respect to a suspected 14 violation of article two hundred seventy-five of the penal law.

15 12. Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit performing 16 rights societies from conducting investigations to determine the exist-
17 ence of music use by a proprietor's business or informing a proprietor
18 of the proprietor's obligations under the copyright laws of the United 19 States pursuant to Title 17 of the United States Code (17 U.S.C. Sec.
20 101, et seq.).

21 § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2019.
