

STATE OF NEW YORK

7933

IN SENATE

March 12, 2018

Introduced by Sen. BENJAMIN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Civil Service and Pensions

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to credit for unused sick leave for employees of community colleges

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 4 of section 167 of the civil service law, as 2 amended by section 7 of part T of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 4. Upon the retirement, on or after July first, nineteen hundred
5 sixty-five, of a state employee whose salary or compensation is paid
6 directly by the state, who is subject to a plan established by law, 7 rule, regulation, written order or written policy which provides for the 8 regular earning and accumulation of sick leave, and who is eligible to 9 continue coverage under the health benefit plan after retirement, the 10 department shall determine, based on the employee's age at the time of 11 retirement, the actuarial equivalent in monthly installments for the 12 remaining life expectancy of such retired employee, of the dollar value 13 of the earned and accumulated but unused sick leave standing to his or 14 her credit at the time of retirement, without interest. Such dollar
15 value shall be based on the employee's salary at the time of retirement.
16 In addition to regular employer contributions, contributions in the 17 amount of such monthly installments shall be paid from the state's 18 appropriation to the health insurance fund and applied towards the 19 charges for health benefits on account of such retired employee and his 20 or her dependents, to the extent necessary to pay such charges. The 21 remaining amount, if any, necessary to pay such charges shall be 22 contributed by such retired employee. On or after October first, nine-23 teen hundred seventy when such dollar value of such sick leave amounts 24 to less than one hundred dollars for a particular retired employee, in 25 lieu of contributions which would otherwise be required from such 26 retired employee, additional contributions shall be paid for the state's 27 appropriation to the health insurance fund and applied towards the 28 charges for health benefits on account of such retired employee and his

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD15079-01-8

1 or her dependents until the sum of such additional contributions equals
2 such dollar value of such sick leave. The remaining amount, if any,
3 necessary to pay such charges shall be contributed by such retired
4 employee. For purposes of this subdivision, employees of the state 5 colleges of agriculture, home economics, industrial labor relations, and 6 veterinary medicine, the state agricultural experiment station at Gene-7 va, and any other institution or agency under the management and control 8 of Cornell university as the representative of the board of trustees of 9 the state university of New York, and employees of the state college of 10 ceramics under the management and control of Alfred university as the 11 representative of the board of trustees of the state university of New 12 York, and employees of a community college as such term is defined in 13 article one hundred twenty-six of the education law, shall be deemed to 14 be state employees whose salaries or compensation is paid directly by 15 the state.

16 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to any 17 sick leave accrued by an applicable employee who has not otherwise 18 retired prior to the effective date of this act.