directly or indirectly controlled by the business entity, and any owner, 1 officer, director or partner of such business entity, or a relative of such person; 3

- 2. The "restricted participant contribution period" as used in this section shall:
- 6 (i) commence, with respect to a specific person, relative of any 7 person, organization, group of persons, or business entity that submits 8 a bid, quotation, application, offer, or response to the state or local 9 governmental entity posting or solicitation, at the earliest of the date of application or bid, or the date of posting on a state or local 10 11 governmental entity's website, in a newspaper of general circulation or in the procurement opportunities newsletter in accordance with article 12 13 four-C of the economic development law of written notice, advertisement 14 or solicitation of a request for proposal, invitation for bids, or solicitations of proposals, or any other method provided for by law or 15 16 regulation for soliciting a response from offerors intending to result 17 in a procurement contract grant or license with a state or local governmental entity or the date of application. The restricted participant 18 19 contribution period does not apply to a person, relative of any individ-20 ual, organization, group of persons or business entity that is respond-21 ing to a state governmental entity's request for information or other informational exchanges occurring prior to such governmental entity's 22 posting or solicitation for participation; and 23
- (ii) end with respect to a specific person, relative of any person, 24 25 organization, group of persons, or business entity;
 - (1) if the person, relative, organization, group of persons, or business entity is the recipient of the final contract grant or license award, the restricted vendor contribution period shall end one year after the final contract grant or license award and approval by the state or local governmental entity and, where applicable, the state comptroller; or
 - (2) if the person, relative, organization, group of persons, or business entity is not the recipient of the final contract, license or grant award, the restricted vendor contribution period shall end with the final contractor grant award and approval by the state or local governmental entity and, where applicable, the state comptroller, or the disapproval of the license or grant.
- 38 3. During the restricted participant contribution period, the contribution limits set forth in article fourteen of this chapter for any 39 person, relative of any person, organization, group of persons or busi-40 ness entity or any owner, director or officer, or their relative, of 41 42 such business entity that submits an application for any grant or 43 license, or a bid, quotation, offer, response or application to a state 44 or local entity in response to a solicitation or request for proposal 45 for procurement, construction, reconstruction or repair, shall be 46 reduced to fifteen percent of the contribution limits otherwise permitted pursuant to section 14-114 of this article to any officeholder of 47 the state or local governmental entity or entities responsible for, or 48 responsible for choosing, directly or indirectly, the person or persons 49 responsible for, issuing such posting, solicitation, license, request 50 51 for proposal, evaluating such response, or responsible for approving or awarding the final procurement contract, license or grant, or to any 52 53 candidate for an office of such governmental entity including to the 54 authorized political committees of such office holder or candidate.
 - 4. For purposes of this section, the assembly and senate shall be considered to be two separate and distinct governmental entities when a posting or solicitation for procurement is issued by only one respective 2 house.

- 5. The state or local governmental entity directly responsible for issuing such posting or solicitation for procurement shall include a notice of the prohibition established by this section and the state governmental entity responsible for evaluating responses to such posting or solicitation shall provide, to any person, organization, group of persons, or business entity that submits a proposal in response to such posting or solicitation for procurement, a notice of the prohibition established by this section and the restricted vendor contribution period commencement date.
- § 2. Section 14-126 of the election law is amended by adding a new 12 13 subdivision 7 to read as follows:
- 14 7. (a) Any person, relative of any person, organization, group of 15 persons, or business entity as such terms are used and defined in 16 section 14-131 of this article, who, under circumstances evincing an intent to violate such law, makes a contribution in contravention of 17 section 14-131 of this article shall be subject to a civil penalty not 18 19 to exceed the greater of ten thousand dollars or an amount equal to two 20 hundred percent of the contribution, to be recoverable in a special 21 proceeding or civil action to be brought by the state board of elections 22 chief enforcement counsel.
- (b) Any person who, acting as or on behalf of an officeholder, candidate, or political committee, accepts a contribution in contravention of 24 25 section 14-131 of this article shall be required to refund such contrib-26 ution.
- 27 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 28 it shall have become a law.
