- (a) The defendant acted under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance for which there was a reasonable explanation or excuse, the 6 reasonableness of which is to be determined from the viewpoint of a person in the defendant's situation under the circumstances as the defendant believed them to be, provided, however, it shall not be an affirmative defense that the defendant acted under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance upon the discovery, knowledge or disclosure of the victim's sexual orientation, sex, gender or sex assigned at 12 birth. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall constitute a defense to a prosecution for, or preclude a conviction of, manslaughter in the first degree or any other crime; or
  - § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 125.26 of the penal law, as added by chapter 765 of the laws of 2005 and such subdivision as renumbered by chapter 482 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as
- (a) The defendant acted under the influence of extreme emotional 20 disturbance for which there was a reasonable explanation or excuse, the reasonableness of which is to be determined from the viewpoint of a 22 person in the defendant's situation under the circumstances as the defendant believed them to be, provided, however, it shall not be an 24 affirmative defense that the defendant acted under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance upon the discovery, knowledge or disclosure of the victim's sexual orientation, sex, gender or sex assigned at 27 birth. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall constitute a defense 28 to prosecution for, or preclude a conviction of, aggravated
