24 actor is aware; or

25 (D) within one thousand feet of a mass gathering of people of which 26 the actor is aware and the mass gathering consisted of more than twen-
27 ty-five people.

28 § 2. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 490.20 of the penal law, as added
29 by chapter 300 of the laws of 2001, are amended to read as follows:

30 1. A person is guilty of making a terroristic threat when with intent
31 to intimidate or coerce a civilian population, the occupants of a
32 school, college or university, house of worship or business or persons
33 comprising a mass gathering of more than twenty-five people, influence 34 the policy of a unit of government by intimidation or coercion, or 35 affect the conduct of a unit of government by murder, assassination or 36 kidnapping, he or she threatens to commit or cause to be committed a
37 specified offense or an act of terrorism as defined in subparagraph (ii)
38 of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 490.05 of this article
39 and thereby causes a reasonable expectation or fear of the imminent
40 commission of such offense or act.

41 2. It shall be no defense to a prosecution pursuant to this section
42 that the defendant did not have the intent or capability of committing 43 the act of terrorism or specified offense or that the threat was not 44 made to a person who was a subject thereof.

45 § 3. Section 490.25 of the penal law, as added by chapter 300 of the 46 laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

47 § 490.25 Crime of terrorism.

48 1. A person is guilty of a crime of terrorism when, with intent to 49 intimidate or coerce a civilian population, the occupants of a school,
50 college or university, house of worship or business or persons compris-
51 ing a mass gathering of more than twenty-five people, influence the 52 policy of a unit of government by intimidation or coercion, or affect 53 the conduct of a unit of government by murder, assassination or kidnap-54 ping, he or she commits a specified offense or an act of terrorism as 55 defined in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of 56 section 490.05 of this article.

2. Sentencing. (a) When a person is convicted of a crime of terrorism pursuant to this section, and the specified offense is a class B, C, D or E felony offense, the crime of terrorism shall be deemed a violent felony offense.

(b) When a person is convicted of a crime of terrorism pursuant to this section, based upon an act of terrorism as defined in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 490.05 of this article that involved the unlawful discharge of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or assault weapon with the intent to damage private or public property, the crime of terrorism shall be deemed a class D non-felony violent felony offense.

(c) When a person is convicted of a crime of terrorism pursuant to this section, based upon an act of terrorism as defined in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 490.05 of this article that involved the unlawful discharge of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or assault weapon with the intent to cause physical injury or death to another person, the crime of terrorism shall be deemed a class C violent felony offense.

(d) When a person is convicted of a crime of terrorism pursuant to this section, and the specified offense is a class C, D or E felony offense, the crime of terrorism shall be deemed to be one category higher than the specified offense the defendant committed, or one category higher than the offense level applicable to the defendant's conviction for an attempt or conspiracy to commit the offense, whichever is applicable.

~~[(e)]~~ (e) When a person is convicted of a crime of terrorism pursuant to this section, and the specified offense is a class B felony offense, the crime of terrorism shall be deemed a class A-I felony offense and the sentence imposed upon conviction of such offense shall be in accordance with section 70.00 of this chapter.

~~[(d)]~~ (f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a person is convicted of a crime of terrorism pursuant to this section, and the specified offense is a class A-I felony offense, the sentence upon conviction of such offense shall be life imprisonment without parole; provided, however, that nothing herein shall preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the specified offense is murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter.

§ 4. Section 490.30 of the penal law, as added by chapter 300 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

§ 490.30 Hindering prosecution of terrorism in the second degree.

1. A person is guilty of hindering prosecution of terrorism in the second degree when he or she renders criminal assistance to a person who has committed an act of terrorism, knowing or believing that such person engaged in conduct constituting an act of terrorism.

2. Sentencing. (a) When a person is convicted of hindering prosecution of terrorism in the second degree and the person to whom he or she rendered criminal assistance committed an act of terrorism that involved the commission of a specified offense, the crime of hindering prosecution of terrorism in the second degree shall be deemed to be a non-violent felony offense of the same category as the specified offense.

(b) When a person is convicted of hindering prosecution of terrorism in the second degree and the person to whom he or she rendered criminal assistance committed an act of terrorism that involved the unlawful discharge of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or assault weapon with the intent to cause physical injury or death to another person that did not consti-

1 tute a specified offense, the crime of hindering prosecution of terror-
2 ism in the second degree shall be deemed to be a class D non-violent
3 felony offense.

4 (c) When a person is convicted of hindering prosecution of terrorism
5 in the second degree and the person to whom he or she rendered criminal 6 assistance committed an act of terrorism that involved the unlawful
7 discharge of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or assault weapon with the intent
8 to damage private or public property that did not constitute a specified
9 offense, the crime of hindering prosecution of terrorism shall be deemed
10 to be a class E non-violent felony offense.

11 Hindering prosecution of terrorism in the second degree is a class C 12 felony.

13 § 5. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section
