Introduced by Sen. SERINO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to a study to analyze the adequacy of health networks and the delivery of gerontologic services and senior health care in New York state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 2703 to read as follows:

3 § 2703. Delivery of gerontologic services and senior health care. The 4 commissioner, in conjunction with the Charles D. Cook Office of Rural 5 Health, shall conduct a study to analyze the adequacy of health networks 6 and the delivery of gerontologic services and senior health care in this 7 state. The study shall contain, but not be limited to, evaluations of 8 access to care and specialized practitioners in all areas of the state 9 with a focus on identifying underserved or unserved areas as well as 10 at-risk senior populations. The study shall consider, among other 11 things, transportation concerns related to accessing care, the utiliza-12 tion of telehealth and telemedicine in senior populations and any imped-
13 iments thereto, the availability of specialized practitioners, as well 14 as highly prevalent chronic diseases or conditions requiring additional 15 education, prevention, and service supports. The study shall also 16 consider incentive options used in New York state, other states, and at 17 the federal level to encourage physicians and nurse practitioners to 18 practice in gerontology or focus on services for the elderly including, 19 but not limited to, the incorporation of targeted gerontology supports 20 into the primary care practitioner scholarship program as articulated by 21 section nine hundred four of this chapter, as a qualifying shortage 22 specialty as defined in section two thousand eight hundred seven-m of 23 this chapter, or any other public health programming deemed appropriate.
24 The report shall contain recommendations to address the specified
25 considerations in addition to other relevant concerns related to health 26 care delivery and senior populations. The commissioner shall deliver the 27 report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the 28 speaker of the assembly no later than October first, two thousand nine-29 teen.

30 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
