5 laws of 1994 and subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 597 of the laws of 6 1998, is amended to read as follows:

7 § 120.14 Menacing in the second degree.

8 A person is guilty of menacing in the second degree when:

9 1. He or she intentionally places or attempts to place another person 10 in reasonable fear of physical injury, serious physical injury or death 11 by displaying a deadly weapon, dangerous instrument or what appears to 12 be a pistol, revolver, rifle, shotgun, machine gun or other firearm; or 13 2. He or she repeatedly follows a person or engages in a course of 14 conduct or repeatedly commits acts over a period of time intentionally 15 placing or attempting to place another person in reasonable fear of 16 physical injury, serious physical injury or death; or 17 3. He or she commits the crime of menacing in the third degree in 18 violation of that part of a duly served order of protection, or such 19 order which the defendant has actual knowledge of because he or she was 20 present in court when such order was issued, pursuant to article eight 21 of the family court act, section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law, 22 or an order of protection issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in 23 another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction, which directed the 24 respondent or defendant to stay away from the person or persons on whose 25 behalf the order was issued.

26 Menacing in the second degree is a class [~~A-misdemeanor~~] E felony.

27 § 5. Section 120.15 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 345 of the 28 laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:

29 § 120.15 Menacing in the third degree.

30 A person is guilty of menacing in the third degree when, by physical 31 menace, he or she intentionally places or attempts to place another 32 person in fear of death, imminent serious physical injury or physical 33 injury.

34 Menacing in the third degree is a class [~~B~~] A misdemeanor.

35 § 6. Section 121.11 of the penal law, as added by chapter 405 of the 36 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

37 § 121.11 Criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation.

38 A person is guilty of criminal obstruction of breathing or blood 39 circulation when, with intent to impede the normal breathing or circu-40 lation of the blood of another person, he or she:

41 a. applies pressure on the throat or neck of such person; or 42 b. blocks the nose or mouth of such person.

43 Criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation is a class [~~A~~ 44 ~~misdemeanor~~] E felony.

45 § 7. Section 135.05 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

46 § 135.05 Unlawful imprisonment in the second degree.

47 A person is guilty of unlawful imprisonment in the second degree when 48 he restrains another person.

49 Unlawful imprisonment in the second degree is a class [~~A-misdemeanor~~]
50 E felony.

51 § 8. Section 135.10 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

52 § 135.10 Unlawful imprisonment in the first degree.

53 A person is guilty of unlawful imprisonment in the first degree when 54 he restrains another person under circumstances which expose the latter 55 to a risk of serious physical injury.

56 Unlawful imprisonment in the first degree is a class [~~E~~] D felony.

§ 9. Section 135.60 of the penal law, as amended by section 1 of part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

§ 135.60 Coercion in the third degree.

A person is guilty of coercion in the third degree when he or she compels or induces a person to engage in conduct which the latter has a legal right to abstain from engaging in, or to abstain from engaging in conduct in which he or she has a legal right to engage, or compels or induces a person to join a group, organization or criminal enterprise which such latter person has a right to abstain from joining, by means of instilling in him or her a fear that, if the demand is not complied with, the actor or another will:

1. Cause physical injury to a person; or
2. Cause damage to property; or
3. Engage in other conduct constituting a crime; or
4. Accuse some person of a crime or cause criminal charges to be instituted against him or her; or
5. Expose a secret or publicize an asserted fact, whether true or false, tending to subject some person to hatred, contempt or ridicule; or
6. Cause a strike, boycott or other collective labor group action injurious to some person's business; except that such a threat shall not be deemed coercive when the act or omission compelled is for the benefit of the group in whose interest the actor purports to act; or
7. Testify or provide information or withhold testimony or information with respect to another's legal claim or defense; or
8. Use or abuse his or her position as a public servant by performing some act within or related to his or her official duties, or by failing or refusing to perform an official duty, in such manner as to affect some person adversely; or
9. Perform any other act which would not in itself materially benefit the actor but which is calculated to harm another person materially with respect to his or her health, safety, business, calling, career, financial condition, reputation or personal relationships.

Coercion in the third degree is a class [~~A misdemeanor~~] E felony.

§ 10. Section 135.61 of the penal law, as added by section 2 of part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

§ 135.61 Coercion in the second degree.

A person is guilty of coercion in the second degree when he or she commits the crime of coercion in the third degree as defined in section 135.60 of this article and thereby compels or induces a person to engage in sexual intercourse, oral sexual conduct or anal sexual conduct as such terms are defined in section [~~130 of the penal law~~] 130.00 of this title.

Coercion in the second degree is a class [~~E~~] D felony.

§ 11. Section 135.65 of the penal law, as amended by section 3 of part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

§ 135.65 Coercion in the first degree.

A person is guilty of coercion in the first degree when he or she commits the crime of coercion in the third degree, and when:

1. He or she commits such crime by instilling in the victim a fear that he or she will cause physical injury to a person or cause damage to property; or
2. He or she thereby compels or induces the victim to:
 - (a) Commit or attempt to commit a felony; or
 - (b) Cause or attempt to cause physical injury to a person; or
 - (c) Violate his or her duty as a public servant.

1 Coercion in the first degree is a class [D] C felony.

2 § 12. Section 140.17 of the penal law, as added by chapter 341 of the 3 laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:

4 § [~~140.17.~~] 140.17 Criminal trespass in the first degree.

5 A person is guilty of criminal trespass in the first degree when he 6 knowingly enters or remains unlawfully in a building, and when, in the 7 course of committing such crime, he:

8 1. Possesses, or knows that another participant in the crime 9 possesses, an explosive or a deadly weapon; or 10 2. Possesses a firearm, rifle or shotgun, as those terms are defined 11 in section 265.00 of this part, and also possesses or has readily acces-12 sible a quantity of ammunition which is capable of being discharged from 13 such firearm, rifle or shotgun; or

14 3. Knows that another participant in the crime possesses a firearm, 15 rifle or shotgun under circumstances described in subdivision two of 16 this section.

17 Criminal trespass in the first degree is a class [D] C felony.

18 § 13. Section 145.15 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 585 of 19 the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

20 § 145.15 Criminal tampering in the second degree.

21 A person is guilty of criminal tampering in the second degree when, 22 having no right to do so nor any reasonable ground to believe that he 23 has such right, he or she tampers or makes connection with property of a 24 gas, electric, sewer, steam or water-works corporation, telephone or 25 telegraph corporation, common carrier, nuclear powered electric generat-26 ing facility, or public utility operated by a municipality or district; 27 except that in any prosecution under this section, it is an affirmative 28 defense that the defendant did not engage in such conduct for a larce-29 nous or otherwise unlawful or wrongful purpose.

30 Criminal tampering in the second degree is a class [~~A-misdemeanor~~] E 31 felony.

32 § 14. Section 150.05 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 225 of 33 the laws of 1979, is amended to read as follows:

34 § 150.05 Arson in the fourth degree.

35 1. A person is guilty of arson in the fourth degree when he recklessly 36 damages a building or motor vehicle by intentionally starting a fire or 37 causing an explosion.

38 2. In any prosecution under this section, it is an affirmative defense 39 that no person other than the defendant had a possessory or proprietary 40 interest in the building or motor vehicle.

41 Arson in the fourth degree is a class [~~E~~] D felony.

42 § 15. Section 215.50 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 702 of 43 the laws of 1972, is amended to read as follows:

45 A person is guilty of criminal contempt in the second degree when he 46 engages in any of the following conduct:

47 1. Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior, committed during 48 the sitting of a court, in its immediate view and presence and directly 49 tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its 50 authority; or

51 2. Breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance, directly tending 52 to interrupt a court's proceedings; or

53 3. Intentional disobedience or resistance to the lawful process or 54 other mandate of a court except in cases involving or growing out of 55 labor disputes as defined by subdivision two of section seven hundred 56 fifty-three-a of the judiciary law; or

1 4. Contumacious and unlawful refusal to be sworn as a witness in any 2 court proceeding or, after being sworn, to answer any legal and proper 3 interrogatory; or

4 5. Knowingly publishing a false or grossly inaccurate report of a 5 court's proceedings; or

6 6. Intentional failure to obey any mandate, process or notice, issued 7 pursuant to articles sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, or eighteen-a of the 8 judiciary law, or to rules adopted pursuant to any such statute or to 9 any special statute establishing commissioners of jurors and prescribing 10 their duties or who refuses to be sworn as provided therein; or 11 7. On or along a public street or sidewalk within a radius of two 12 hundred feet of any building established as a courthouse, he calls 13 aloud, shouts, holds or displays placards or signs containing written or 14 printed matter, concerning the conduct of a trial being held in such 15 courthouse or the character of the court or jury engaged in such trial 16 or calling for or demanding any specified action or determination by 17 such court or jury in connection with such trial.

18 Criminal contempt in the second degree is a class [~~A—misdemeanor~~] E 19 felony.

20 § 16. Section 215.51 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 222 of 21 the laws of 1994, subdivision (b) as added by chapter 353 of the laws of 22 1996, the opening paragraph of subdivision (b) and subdivision (d) as 23 amended by chapter 597 of the laws of 1998, and subdivision (c) as 24 amended by chapter 349 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as 25 follows:

26 § 215.51 Criminal contempt in the first degree.

27 A person is guilty of criminal contempt in the first degree when:

28 (a) he contumaciously and unlawfully refuses to be sworn as a witness 29 before a grand jury, or, when after having been sworn as a witness 30 before a grand jury, he refuses to answer any legal and proper interro-31 gatory; or

32 (b) in violation of a duly served order of protection, or such order 33 of which the defendant has actual knowledge because he or she was pres-34 ent in court when such order was issued, or an order of protection 35 issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in this or another state, 36 territorial or tribal jurisdiction, he or she:

37 (i) intentionally places or attempts to place a person for whose 38 protection such order was issued in reasonable fear of physical injury, 39 serious physical injury or death by displaying a deadly weapon, danger-40 ous instrument or what appears to be a pistol, revolver, rifle, shotgun, 41 machine gun or other firearm or by means of a threat or threats; or 42 (ii) intentionally places or attempts to place a person for whose 43 protection such order was issued in reasonable fear of physical injury, 44 serious physical injury or death by repeatedly following such person or 45 engaging in a course of conduct or repeatedly committing acts over a 46 period of time; or

47 (iii) intentionally places or attempts to place a person for whose 48 protection such order was issued in reasonable fear of physical injury, 49 serious physical injury or death when he or she communicates or causes a 50 communication to be initiated with such person by mechanical or elec-51 tronic means or otherwise, anonymously or otherwise, by telephone, or by 52 telegraph, mail or any other form of written communication; or 53 (iv) with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm a person for 54 whose protection such order was issued, repeatedly makes telephone calls 55 to such person, whether or not a conversation ensues, with no purpose of 56 legitimate communication; or

2 protection such order was issued, strikes, shoves, kicks or otherwise 3 subjects such other person to physical contact or attempts or threatens 4 to do the same; or

5 (vi) by physical menace, intentionally places or attempts to place a 6 person for whose protection such order was issued in reasonable fear of 7 death, imminent serious physical injury or physical injury.

8 (c) he or she commits the crime of criminal contempt in the second 9 degree as defined in subdivision three of section 215.50 of this article 10 by violating that part of a duly served order of protection, or such 11 order of which the defendant has actual knowledge because he or she was 12 present in court when such order was issued, under sections two hundred 13 forty and two hundred fifty-two of the domestic relations law, articles 14 four, five, six and eight of the family court act and section 530.12 of 15 the criminal procedure law, or an order of protection issued by a court 16 of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal juris-17 diction, which requires the respondent or defendant to stay away from 18 the person or persons on whose behalf the order was issued, and where 19 the defendant has been previously convicted of the crime of aggravated 20 criminal contempt or criminal contempt in the first or second degree for 21 violating an order of protection as described herein within the preced-22 ing five years; or

23 (d) in violation of a duly served order of protection, or such order 24 of which the defendant has actual knowledge because he or she was pres-25 ent in court when such order was issued, or an order issued by a court 26 of competent jurisdiction in this or another state, territorial or 27 tribal jurisdiction, he or she intentionally or recklessly damages the 28 property of a person for whose protection such order was issued in an 29 amount exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.

30 Criminal contempt in the first degree is a class [B] D felony.

31 § 17. Section 240.25 of the penal law as amended by chapter 109 of the 32 laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

33 § 240.25 Harassment in the first degree.

34 A person is guilty of harassment in the first degree when he or she 35 intentionally and repeatedly harasses another person by following such 36 person in or about a public place or places or by engaging in a course 37 of conduct or by repeatedly committing acts which places such person in 38 reasonable fear of physical injury. This section shall not apply to 39 activities regulated by the national labor relations act, as amended, 40 the railway labor act, as amended, or the federal employment labor 41 management act, as amended.

42 Harassment in the first degree is a class [B] A misdemeanor.

43 § 18. Section 240.30 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 188 of 44 the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

45 § 240.30 Aggravated harassment in the second degree.

46 A person is guilty of aggravated harassment in the second degree when:

47 1. With intent to harass another person, the actor either:

48 (a) communicates, anonymously or otherwise, by telephone, by computer 49 or any other electronic means, or by mail, or by transmitting or deliv-50 ering any other form of communication, a threat to cause physical harm 51 to, or unlawful harm to the property of, such person, or a member of 52 such person's same family or household as defined in subdivision one of 53 section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, and the actor knows or 54 reasonably should know that such communication will cause such person to 55 reasonably fear harm to such person's physical safety or property, or to

1 the physical safety or property of a member of such person's same family 2 or household; or

3 (b) causes a communication to be initiated anonymously or otherwise, 4 by telephone, by computer or any other electronic means, or by mail, or 5 by transmitting or delivering any other form of communication, a threat 6 to cause physical harm to, or unlawful harm to the property of, such 7 person, a member of such person's same family or household as defined in 8 subdivision one of section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, and the 9 actor knows or reasonably should know that such communication will cause 10 such person to reasonably fear harm to such person's physical safety or 11 property, or to the physical safety or property of a member of such 12 person's same family or household; or

13 2. With intent to harass or threaten another person, he or she makes a 14 telephone call, whether or not a conversation ensues, with no purpose of 15 legitimate communication; or

16 3. With the intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, 17 he or she strikes, shoves, kicks, or otherwise subjects another person 18 to physical contact, or attempts or threatens to do the same because of 19 a belief or perception regarding such person's race, color, national 20 origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability 21 or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the belief or perception is 22 correct; or

23 4. With the intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, 24 he or she strikes, shoves, kicks or otherwise subjects another person to 25 physical contact thereby causing physical injury to such person or to a 26 family or household member of such person as defined in section 530.11 27 of the criminal procedure law; or

28 5. He or she commits the crime of harassment in the first degree and 29 has previously been convicted of the crime of harassment in the first 30 degree as defined by section 240.25 of this article within the preceding 31 ten years.

32 Aggravated harassment in the second degree is a class [~~A-misdemeanor~~
33 E felony].

34 § 19. Section 240.31 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 49 of the 35 laws of 2006 and subdivisions 3 and 4 as amended and subdivision 5 as 36 added by chapter 74 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

37 § 240.31 Aggravated harassment in the first degree.

38 A person is guilty of aggravated harassment in the first degree when 39 with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, because 40 of a belief or perception regarding such person's race, color, national 41 origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability 42 or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the belief or perception is 43 correct, he or she:

44 1. Damages premises primarily used for religious purposes, or acquired 45 pursuant to section six of the religious corporation law and maintained 46 for purposes of religious instruction, and the damage to the premises 47 exceeds fifty dollars; or

49 the manner proscribed by the provisions of subdivision three of section 50 240.30 of this article and has been previously convicted of the crime of 51 aggravated harassment in the second degree for the commission of conduct 52 proscribed by the provisions of subdivision three of section 240.30 or 53 he or she has been previously convicted of the crime of aggravated 54 harassment in the first degree within the preceding ten years; or

55 3. Etches, paints, draws upon or otherwise places a swastika, commonly 56 exhibited as the emblem of Nazi Germany, on any building or other real property, public or private, owned by any person, firm or corporation or any public agency or instrumentality, without express permission of the owner or operator of such building or real property;

4. Sets on fire a cross in public view; or

5. Etches, paints, draws upon or otherwise places or displays a noose, commonly exhibited as a symbol of racism and intimidation, on any building or other real property, public or private, owned by any person, firm or corporation or any public agency or instrumentality, without express permission of the owner or operator of such building or real property.

Aggravated harassment in the first degree is a class [REDACTED] D felony.

§ 20. Subdivision 1 of section 370.15 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a new subdivision 1 is added to read as follows:

1. When a defendant has been charged with assault in the third degree, menacing in the third degree, menacing in the second degree, criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation, unlawful imprisonment in the second degree, coercion in the third degree, criminal contempt in the second degree, harassment in the first degree, aggravated harassment in the second degree, or attempt to commit any of the above-listed offenses, the people may, at arraignment or no later than forty-five days after arraignment, serve on the defendant and file with the court a notice alleging that the defendant and the person alleged to be the victim of such crime were members of the same family or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this chapter.

§ 21. Section 380.97 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED and a new section 380.97 is added to read as follows:

§ 380.97 Notification to division of criminal justice services of certain misdemeanor convictions.

Upon judgement of conviction of assault in the third degree, menacing in the third degree, menacing in the second degree, criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation, unlawful imprisonment in the second degree, coercion in the third degree, criminal contempt in the second degree, harassment in the first degree, or aggravated harassment in the second degree, or attempt to commit any of the above-listed offenses, when the defendant and victim have been determined, pursuant to section 370.15 of this part, to be members of the same family or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this chapter, the clerk of the court shall include notification and a copy of the written determination in a report of such conviction to the division of criminal justice services to enable the division to report such determination to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and assist the bureau in identifying persons prohibited from purchasing and possessing a firearm or other weapon due to conviction of an offense specified in paragraph (c) of subdivision seventeen of section 265.00 of the penal law.

§ 22. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that sections nine, ten and eleven of this act shall take effect on the same date as part NN of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018 takes effect.
