AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to requiring structured out-of-cell programming for adolescents in segregated disciplinary confinement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The opening paragraph of subdivision 6 of section 137 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in paragraphs (d), (e), and (g) of this subdivision, the superintendent of a correctional facility may keep any inmate confined in a cell or room, apart from the accommodations provided for inmates who are participating in programs of the facility, for such period as may be necessary for maintenance of order or discipline, but in any such case the following conditions shall be observed:

Section 2. Subdivision 6 of section 137 of the correction law is amended by adding a new paragraph (g) to read as follows:

(g) Any inmate under the age of twenty-one who is in segregated disciplinary confinement must be offered at least four hours a day of structured out-of-cell programming, in addition to exercise, and may be provided with additional out-of-cell activities for good behavior. The inmate’s education, mental health and other programming needs must be addressed during any such period of segregated confinement and the inmate must be given significant daily opportunity to engage in physical activity. No such inmate shall be kept in punitive isolation, be denied telephone calls or visits or be placed on a restrictive diet as a sanction for misbehavior. Such inmates may not be housed in a special housing unit for adults unless there are exceptional circumstances which would create an unacceptable risk to the safety and security of other inmates or staff. In such exceptional circumstances the inmate’s case shall be immediately referred to the commissioner for review and resol--
