25 inclement weather without ready access to, or the ability to enter, a 26 house, apartment building, office building, or any other permanent 27 structure that complies with the standards established under paragraph 28 (ii) of subdivision (b) of section 280.20 of this article.

29 (k) "Fur-bearing animal" shall include arctic fox, red fox, silver 30 fox, chinchilla, mink, pine marten, muskrat, and those fur-bearing 31 animals included within the provisions of section 11-1907 of the envi-32 ronmental conservation law.

33 (l) "Cage and box dryer" shall mean a product that is attached to or 34 near a cage or box for the purpose of drying or aiding in the drying of 35 a companion animal contained in a cage or box, which is capable of func-36 tioning without a person manually holding a dryer.

37 (m) "Companion animal grooming facility" shall mean an establishment 38 where a companion animal may be bathed, brushed, clipped or styled for a 39 fee.

40 (n) "Tattoo" shall mean a mark on the body made with indelible ink or 41 pigments injected beneath the outer layer of the skin.

42 (o) "Baby rabbit" shall mean a rabbit of less than two months of age.

53 section to occur on premises under his or her control; or

54 (e) owns, possesses or keeps any animal trained to engage in animal 55 fighting on premises where an exhibition of animal fighting is being

1 conducted under circumstances evincing an intent that such animal engage 2 in animal fighting.

3 Facilitating animal fighting in the first degree is a class D felony.
4 § 280.06 Facilitating animal fighting in the second degree.

5 A person is guilty of facilitating animal fighting in the second 6 degree when he or she:

7 (a) owns, possesses or keeps any animal under circumstances evincing 8 an intent that such animal engage in animal fighting;

9 (b) paid an admission fee or made a wager at any place where an exhi-10 bition of animal fighting is being conducted;

11 (c) knowingly participates as a spectator at any place where an exhi-12 bition of animal fighting is being conducted and has been previously 13 found guilty of such offense or for violating subdivision (b) of this 14 section in the previous five years; or 15 (d) intentionally owns, possesses, sells, transfers or manufactures 16 animal fighting paraphernalia with the intent to engage in or otherwise 17 promote or facilitate animal fighting and has been previously found 18 guilty of such offense in the previous five years.

20 meanor.

21 § 280.07 Facilitating animal fighting in the third degree.

22 A person is guilty of facilitating animal fighting in the third degree 23 when he or she:

24 (a) knowingly participates as a spectator at any place where an exhi-25 bition of animal fighting is being conducted; or

26 (b) intentionally owns, possesses, sells, transfers or manufactures 27 animal fighting paraphernalia, as defined in subdivision (g) of section 28 280.00 of this article, with the intent to engage in or otherwise 29 promote or facilitate animal fighting.

30 Facilitating animal fighting in the third degree is a class B misde-31 meanor.

32 § 280.10 Overdriving, torturing or injuring animals; failure to provide 33 proper sustenance.

45 sary food or drink; or

46 (v) wilfully instigates, engages in, or in any way furthers any act of 47 cruelty to any animal, or any act tending to produce such cruelty.

48 (b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or inter-49 fere with any properly conducted scientific tests, experiments or inves-50 tigations, involving the use of living animals, performed or conducted 51 in laboratories or institutions, which are approved for these purposes 52 by the commissioner of health. The commissioner of health shall 53 prescribe the rules under which such approvals shall be granted, includ-54 ing therein standards regarding the care and treatment of any such 55 animals. Such rules shall be published and copies thereof conspicuously 56 posted in each such laboratory or institution. The commissioner of 1 health or his or her duly authorized representative shall have the power 2 to inspect such laboratories or institutions to insure compliance with 3 such rules and standards. Each such approval may be revoked at any time 4 for failure to comply with such rules and in any case the approval shall 5 be limited to a period not exceeding one year.

10 she, with no justifiable purpose, intentionally kills or intentionally 11 causes serious physical injury to a companion animal with aggravated 12 cruelty. For purposes of this section, "aggravated cruelty" shall mean 13 conduct which:

14 (i) is intended to cause extreme physical pain; or

15 (ii) is done or carried out in an especially depraved or sadistic 16 manner.

17 (b) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit 18 or interfere in any way with anyone lawfully engaged in hunting, trap-19 ping, or fishing, as provided in article eleven of the environmental 20 conservation law; the dispatch of rabid or diseased animals, as provided 21 in article twenty-one of the public health law; the dispatch of animals 22 posing a threat to human safety or other animals, where such action is 23 otherwise legally authorized; or any properly conducted scientific 24 tests, experiments, or investigations involving the use of living 25 animals, performed or conducted in laboratories or institutions approved 26 for such purposes by the commissioner of health pursuant to subdivision 27 (b) of section 280.10 of this article.

28 Aggravated cruelty to animals is a class D felony.

29 § 280.20 Failure to provide appropriate shelter for a dog left outdoors.

30 (a) A person is guilty of failing to provide appropriate shelter for a 31 dog left outdoors, as defined in subdivision (j) of section 280.00 of 32 this article, when he or she knowingly fails to provide appropriate 33 shelter specific to the breed and physical condition of such dog and the 34 climate outdoors.

35 (b) For purposes of this section, minimum standards for determining 36 whether shelter is appropriate to the breed and physical condition, as 37 defined in subdivision (h) of section 280.00 of this article, of such 38 dog and the climate outdoors shall include:

39 (i) for dogs that are restrained in any manner outdoors, shade by 40 natural or artificial means to protect such dog from direct sunlight at 41 all times when exposure to sunlight is likely to threaten the health of 42 such dog;

43 (ii) for all dogs left outdoors in inclement weather, a housing facil-
44 ity, which must: (1) have a waterproof roof; (2) be structurally sound 45 with insulation appropriate to local climatic conditions and sufficient 46 to protect such dog from inclement weather; (3) be constructed to allow 47 each dog adequate freedom of movement to make normal postural adjust-48 ments, including the ability to stand up, turn around and lie down with 49 its limbs outstretched; and (4) allow for effective removal of excre-50 tions, other waste material including but not limited to, dirt and 51 trash. Such housing facility and the area immediately surrounding it 52 shall be regularly cleaned to maintain a healthy and sanitary environ-53 ment and to minimize health hazards.

54 (c) Inadequate shelter may be indicated by the appearance of the hous-55 ing facility itself, including but not limited to, size, structural 56 soundness, evidence of crowding within such housing facility, healthful

1 environment in the area immediately surrounding such facility, or by the 2 appearance or physical condition of the dog.

3 (d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any 4 protections afforded to dogs or other animals under any other provisions 5 of this article.

6 (e) Nothing in this section shall prevent the seizure of a dog for a 7 violation of this section pursuant to the authority granted under this 8 article. Upon a finding of any violation of this section, any dog or 9 dogs seized pursuant to the provisions of this article that have not 10 been voluntarily surrendered by the owner or custodian or forfeited 11 pursuant to court order shall be returned to the owner or custodian only 12 upon proof that appropriate shelter as required by this section is being 13 provided.

14 (f) Beginning seventy-two hours after a charge of violating this 15 section, each day that a defendant fails to correct the deficiencies in 16 the dog shelter for a dog that he or she owns or that is in his or her 17 custody or control and that is left outdoors, so as to bring such shel-18 ter into compliance with the provisions of this section, shall consti-19 tute a separate offense.

20 Failure to provide appropriate shelter for dogs left outdoors is a 21 violation punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more 22 than one hundred dollars for a first offense, and a fine of not less 23 than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars for a 24 second and subsequent offenses. The court may, in its discretion, reduce 25 the amount of any fine imposed for a violation of this section by the 26 amount which the defendant proves he or she has spent providing a dog 27 shelter or repairing an existing dog shelter to comply with the require-28 ments of this section.

29 § 280.25 Electrocution of fur-bearing animals.

30 A person is guilty of electrocution of fur-bearing animals when he or 31 she, notwithstanding any other provision of law, intentionally kills or 32 stuns a fur-bearing animal by means of an electrical current.

33 Electrocution of fur-bearing animals is a class A misdemeanor.

34 § 280.30 Confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle; extreme temper-35 atures.

36 (a) A person is guilty of confinement of a companion animal in a vehi-37 cle in extreme temperatures when he or she confines a companion animal 38 in a motor vehicle in extreme heat or cold without proper ventilation or 39 other protection from such extreme temperatures where such confinement 40 places such companion animal in imminent danger of death or serious 41 physical injury due to exposure to such extreme heat or cold.

42 (b) If the operator of such vehicle cannot be promptly located, a 43 police officer, peace officer, or peace officer acting as an agent of a 44 duly incorporated humane society may take necessary steps to remove the 45 animal or animals from such vehicle.

46 (i) Police officers, peace officers or peace officers acting as agents 47 of a duly incorporated humane society removing an animal or animals from 48 a vehicle pursuant to this section shall place a written notice on or in 49 the vehicle, bearing the name of the officer or agent, and the depart-50 ment or agency and address where the animal or animals will be taken.

51 (ii) An animal or animals removed from a vehicle pursuant to this 52 section shall, after receipt of any necessary emergency veterinary 53 treatment, be delivered to the duly incorporated humane society or soci-54 ety for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or designated agent there-55 of, in the jurisdiction where the animal or animals were seized.

1 (iii) Officers shall not be held criminally or civilly liable for 2 actions taken reasonably and in good faith in carrying out the 3 provisions of this section.

4 (c) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect any 5 other protections afforded to companion animals under any other 6 provisions of this article.

7 Confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle in extreme temperatures 8 is a violation punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor 9 more than one hundred dollars for a first offense, and a fine of not 10 less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars 11 for a second and subsequent offenses.

12 § 280.35 Participation in a prohibited practice at a companion animal 13 grooming facility.

14 (a) A person is guilty of participating in a prohibited practice at a 15 companion animal grooming facility, as defined in subdivision (m) of 16 section 280.00 of this article, when he or she uses a cage or box dryer, 17 as defined in subdivision (l) of section 280.00 of this section, which 18 contains a heating element with the heating element turned on for the 19 purpose of drying or aiding in the drying of a companion animal.

20 (b) Nothing contained in this section shall limit or abrogate any 21 claim or cause of action any person may have under common law or by 22 statute. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to any such 23 common law and statutory remedies.

24 Participation in a prohibited practice at a companion animal grooming 25 facility is a violation punishable by a civil penalty of not less than 26 two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each 27 violation.

28 § 280.40 Piercing and tattooing of a companion animal.

29 A person is guilty of piercing or tattooing of a companion animal when 30 he or she:

31 (a) pierces or causes to have pierced a companion animal, unless such 32 piercing provides a medical benefit to the companion animal whereas such 33 piercing shall be performed by a licensed veterinarian or under the 34 supervision of a licensed veterinarian; or

35 (b) tattoos or causes to have tattooed a companion animal, unless such 36 tattoo, as defined in subdivision (n) of section 280.00 of this article:

37 (i) is done in conjunction with a medical procedure performed by a 38 licensed veterinarian or under the supervision of a licensed veterinari-39 an for the benefit of the companion animal and to indicate that such 40 medical procedure has been done, provided that such tattoo is not for 41 design purposes; or

42 (ii) is done for the purpose of identification of the companion animal 43 and not for design purposes, and such tattoo includes only such numbers 44 and/or letters allotted by a corporation that, in the regular course of 45 its business, maintains an animal tattoo identification registry.

46 Piercing and tattooing of a companion animal is a violation.

47 § 280.45 Unlawful sale of baby chicks and baby rabbits.

48 (a) A person is guilty of unlawful sale of baby chicks or baby rabbits 49 when he or she:

50 (i) sells, offers for sale, barter or gives away living baby chicks, 51 ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits, as defined in subdivision (o) 52 of section 280.00 of this article, unless such person provides proper 53 brooder facilities appropriate for the care of such baby chicks, duck-54 lings or other fowl or baby rabbits during the time they are in the 55 possession of such person;

1 (ii) sells, offers for sale, barter or displays living baby chicks, 2 ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits which have been dyed, colored or 3 otherwise treated so as to impart to them an artificial color; or 4 (iii) sells, offers for sale, barter or gives away living baby 5 chicks, ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits under two months of age 6 in any quantity less than six.

7 (b) Nothing under this section shall be interpreted or applied to 8 prevent or restrict teachers and qualified instructors of youth under 9 the guidance and supervision of the New York state cooperative extension 10 service from using eggs for non-profit educational purposes or from 11 observing fowl hatched from such eggs for non-profit educational 12 purposes.

13 Unlawful sale of baby chicks and baby rabbits is a class A misdemea-14 nor.

15 § 280.50 Abandonment of an animal.

16 A person is guilty of abandonment of an animal when he or she, being 17 the owner or possessor, or having charge or custody of an animal, aban-18 dons such animal, or leaves it to die in a street, road or public place, 19 or who allows such animal, if it becomes disabled, to lie in a public 20 street, road or public place more than three hours after he or she 21 receives notice that it is left disabled.

22 Abandonment of an animal is a class A misdemeanor.

23 § 280.55 Failure to provide proper food and drink to impounded animals.

24 (a) A person is guilty of failure provide proper food and drink to 25 impounded animals when he or she, having impounded or confined any 26 animal, refuses or neglects to supply to such animal during its confine-27 ment a sufficient supply of good and wholesome air, food, shelter and 28 water.

29 (b) If any animal shall be impounded pursuant to subdivision (a) of 30 this section, and shall continue to be without necessary food and water 31 for more than twelve successive hours, it shall be lawful for any 32 person, from time to time, and as often as it shall be necessary, to 33 enter into and upon such impound and supply such animal with necessary 34 food and water, so long as it shall remain so confined; such person 35 shall not be liable to any action for such entry, and the reasonable 36 cost of such food and water may be collected by such person from the 37 owner of such animal, and such animal shall not be exempt from levy and 38 sale upon execution issued upon a judgment therefor.

39 Failure to provide proper food and drink to impounded animals is a
40 class A misdemeanor.

41 § 280.60 Carrying an animal in a cruel manner.

42 A person is guilty of carrying an animal in a cruel manner when:

43 (a) he or she carries or causes to be carried in or upon any vessel or 44 vehicle or otherwise, any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner, or so as 45 to produce torture; or

46 (b) a railway corporation, or an owner, agent, consignee, or person in 47 charge of any horses, sheep, cattle, or swine, in the course of, or for 48 transportation, who confines, or causes or suffers the same to be 49 confined, in cars for a longer period than twenty-eight consecutive 50 hours, or thirty-six consecutive hours where consent is given in the 51 manner hereinafter provided, without unloading for rest, water and feed-52 ing, during five consecutive hours, unless prevented by storm or inevi-53 table accident.

54 (i) The consent which will extend the period from twenty-eight to 55 thirty-six hours shall be given by the owner, or by the person in custo-

1 dy of a particular shipment, by writing separate and apart from any 2 printed bill of lading or other railroad form.

3 (ii) In estimating such confinement, the time during which the animals 4 have been confined without rest, on connecting roads from which they are 5 received, must be computed.

6 Carrying an animal in a cruel manner is a class A misdemeanor.

7 § 280.65 Poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the first degree.

8 A person is guilty of poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the 9 first degree when he or she:

10 (a) unjustifiably administers any poisonous or noxious drug or 11 substance to a horse, mule or domestic cattle; or

12 (b) unjustifiably exposes any such drug or substance with intent that 13 the same shall be taken by a horse, mule or by domestic cattle, whether 14 such horse, mule or domestic cattle is the property of such person or 15 another.

16 Poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the first degree is a 17 class E felony.

18 § 280.66 Poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the second degree.

19 A person is guilty of poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the 20 second degree when he or she:

21 (a) unjustifiably administers any poisonous or noxious drug or 22 substance to an animal, other than a horse, mule or domestic cattle; or

23 (b) unjustifiably exposes any such drug or substance with intent that 24 the same shall be taken by an animal other than a horse, mule or domes-25 tic cattle, whether such animal is the property of such person or anothe-26 er.

27 Poisoning or attempting to poison animals in the second degree is a
28 class A misdemeanor.

29 § 280.70 Interference with or injury to certain domestic animals.

30 A person is guilty of interference with or injury to certain domestic 31 animals when he or she willfully or unjustifiably interferes with, 32 injures, destroys or tampers with or who willfully permits, instigates, 33 engages in or in any way furthers any act by which any horse, mule, dog 34 or any other domestic animal used for the purposes of racing, breeding 35 or competitive exhibition of skill, breed or stamina, is interfered 36 with, injured, destroyed or tampered with, or any act tending to produce 37 such interference, injury, destruction or tampering, whether such horse, 38 mule, dog or other domestic animal is the property of such person or 39 another.

40 Interference with or injury to certain domestic animals is a class E 41 felony.

42 § 280.75 Throwing a substance injurious to animals in a public place.

43 A person is guilty of throwing a substance injurious to animals in a 44 public place when he or she willfully throws, drops or places, or causes 45 to be thrown, dropped or placed upon any road, highway, street or public 46 place, any glass, nails, pieces of metal, or other substance which might 47 wound, disable or injure any animal.

48 Throwing a substance injurious to animals in a public place is a class 49 A misdemeanor.

50 § 280.80 Unauthorized possession of dogs; presumptive evidence of larce-51 ny.

52 The unauthorized possession of a dog or dogs, by any person not the 53 true owner, for a period exceeding ten days, without notifying either 54 the owner, the local police authorities, or the superintendent of the 55 state police of such possession, shall be presumptive evidence of larce-56 ny.

1 § 280.85 Running horses on a highway.

2 A person is guilty of running horses on a highway when he or she is 3 driving any vehicle upon any plank road, turnpike or public highway, who 4 unjustifiably runs the horses drawing the same, or causes or permits 5 them to run.

6 Running horses on a highway is a class A misdemeanor.

7 § 280.90 Clipping or cutting the ears of a dog.

8 (a) A person is guilty of clipping or cutting the ears of a dog when 9 he or she clips or cuts off or causes or procures another to clip or cut 10 off the whole or any part of an ear of any dog unless an anaesthetic 11 shall have been given to the dog and the operation is performed by a 12 licensed veterinarian.

13 (b) Each applicant for a dog license must state on such application 14 whether any ear of the dog for which he or she applies for such license 15 has been cut off wholly or in part.

16 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing any dog 17 whose ear or ears have been clipped or cut off wholly or in part, not in 18 violation of this section, from being imported into the state exclusive-19 ly for breeding purposes.

20 Clipping or cutting the ears of a dog is a class A misdemeanor.

21 § 280.95 Stealing a companion animal.

22 A person is guilty of stealing a companion animal when he or she:

23 (a) removes or causes to be removed the collar, identification tag or 24 any other identification by which the owner may be ascertained from any 25 dog, cat or any other companion animal, as defined in subdivision (e) of 26 section 280.00 of this article;

27 (b) entices any identified dog, cat or other such companion animal 28 into or out of any house or enclosure for the purpose of removing its 29 collar, tag or any other identification, except with the owner's permis-30 sion;

31 (c) entices, seizes or molests any companion animal, while it is being 32 held or led by any person or while it is properly muzzled or wearing a 33 collar with an identification tag attached, except where such action is 34 incidental to the enforcement of some law or regulation; or

35 (d) transports any companion animal, not lawfully in his or her 36 possession, for the purpose of killing or selling such companion animal.

37 Stealing a companion animal is a class A misdemeanor.

38 § 280.100 Removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes.

39 A person is guilty of removing, seizing or transporting a dog for 40 research purposes when he or she removes, seizes or transports or causes 41 to remove, seize or transport any dog which belongs to or is licensed to 42 another for the purpose of sale, barter or to give away said dog to a 43 laboratory, hospital, research institute, medical school or any agency 44 or organization engaged in research activity, without the express writ-45 ten permission of the owner or licensee.

46 Removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes is a
47 class A misdemeanor.

48 § 280.105 Unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses.

49 (a) A person is guilty of unlawfully operating upon the tails of hors-50 es when he or she:

51 (i) cuts the bone, tissues, muscles or tendons of the tail of any 52 horse, mare or gelding, or otherwise operates upon it in any manner for 53 the purpose or with the effect of docking, setting, or otherwise alter-54 ing the natural carriage of the tail, or who knowingly permits the same 55 to be done upon premises of which he or she is the owner, lessee,

1 proprietor or user, or who assists in or is voluntarily present at such 2 cutting; or

3 (ii) shows or exhibits at any horse show or other like exhibition in 4 this state a horse, mare or gelding, the tail of which has been cut or 5 operated upon pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section.

6 (1) Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply with 7 respect to an animal the tail of which has been so cut or operated upon, 8 if the owner thereof furnishes to the manager or other official having 9 charge of the horse show or exhibition at which such animal is shown or 10 exhibited, an affidavit by the owner, or a licensed veterinarian, in a 11 form approved by the department of agriculture and markets, stating that 12 the tail of such horse was so cut in a state wherein such cutting was 13 not then specifically prohibited by the laws thereof.

14 (2) Such affidavit shall, to the best of the affiant's knowledge, 15 information and belief, identify the animal with respect to sex, age, 16 markings, sire and dam, and state the time and place of such cutting and 17 the name and address of the person by whom it was performed.

18 (3) The affidavit shall be subject to inspection at all reasonable 19 times by any peace officer, acting pursuant to his or her special 20 duties, or police officer of this state, or by a designated represen-21 tative of the commissioner of agriculture and markets.

22 (4) In lieu of furnishing such affidavit to the manager or other offi-23 cial having charge of such horse show or exhibition, the owner of such 24 horse may specify on the entry blank for the horse show or exhibition 25 the name and address of a central registry office designated by the 26 department of agriculture and markets where such an affidavit has 27 already been filed and is available for inspection.

28 (b) If a horse is found with the bone, tissues, muscles or tendons of 29 its tail cut as described in subdivision (a) of this section, and with 30 the wound resulting therefrom unhealed, upon the premises or in the 31 charge and custody of any person, such fact shall be prima facie 32 evidence of a violation of this section by the owner or user of such 33 premises or the person having such charge or custody, respectively.

34 Unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses is a class A misdemea-35 nor.

36 § 280.110 Evidentiary and impoundment procedures by members of law 37 enforcement.

38 Matters relating to the seizure, adoption, care, disposition and 39 destruction of animals by members of law enforcement and members of a 40 duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals 41 charged to enforce this article, ancillary to such enforcement of this 42 article, shall be governed by article twenty-six of the agriculture and 43 markets law and article six hundred ninety of the criminal procedure 44 law.

45 § 280.115 Disposition of animals through forfeiture procedures after 46 conviction.

47 (a) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, upon conviction 48 for any violation of section 280.05, 280.06, 280.07, 280.10, 280.15, 49 280.20, 280.50, 280.55, 280.60, 280.65, 280.66, 280.75, or 280.105 of 50 this article, the convicted person may, after a duly held hearing pursu-51 ant to subdivision (f) of this section, be ordered by the court to 52 forfeit, to a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to 53 animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents ther-54 eof, the animal or animals which are the basis of such conviction. Upon 55 such an order of forfeiture, the convicted person shall be deemed to 1 have relinquished all rights to the animals which are the basis of such 2 conviction, except those granted in subdivision (d) of this section.

3 (b) No animal in the custody of a duly incorporated society for the 4 prevention of cruelty to animals, a duly incorporated humane society, 5 duly incorporated animal protective association, pound or its authorized 6 agents thereof, shall be sold, transferred or otherwise made available 7 to any person for the purpose of research, experimentation or testing.
8 No authorized agent of a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 9 cruelty to animals, nor of a duly incorporated humane society, duly 10 incorporated animal protective association or pound shall use any animal 11 placed in its custody by the duly incorporated society for the 12 prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society for 13 the purpose of research, experimentation or testing.

14 (c) The court may additionally order that the convicted person or any 15 person dwelling in the same household who conspired, aided or abetted in 16 the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or 17 should have known of the unlawful act, shall not own, harbor, or have 18 custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a 19 period of time which the court deems reasonable.

20 (d) In the case of farm animals, the court may, in addition to the 21 forfeiture to a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty 22 to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents 23 thereof, and subject to the restrictions of section 280.45 of this arti-
24 cle and section three hundred fifty-seven of the agriculture and markets 25 law, order the farm animals which were the basis of such conviction to 26 be sold. In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the 27 conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the 28 order of forfeiture or by any person dwelling in the same household who 29 conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of 30 such conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful act.
31 The court shall reimburse the convicted person and any duly determined 32 interested persons, pursuant to subdivision (f) of this section, any 33 money earned by the sale of the farm animals less any costs including, 34 but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care, and any fines or 35 penalties imposed by the court. The court may order that the subject 36 animals be provided with appropriate care and treatment pending the 37 hearing and the disposition of the charges. Any farm animal ordered 38 forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to the custody and charge of a 39 duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or 40 duly incorporated humane society or its authorized agent thereof and 41 disposed of pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section.

42 (e) A duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to 43 animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of animals 44 forfeited pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section may, in its 45 discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to individuals 46 other than the convicted person or person dwelling in the same household 47 who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis 48 of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful 49 act, or humanely euthanize them according to the provisions of section 50 three hundred seventy-four of the agriculture and markets law.

51 (f) (i) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing 52 shall be held within thirty days of conviction, to determine the pecuni-53 ary interests of any other person in the farm animals which were the 54 basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five 55 days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, 56 notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven

1 days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, inter-2 ested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock 3 company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity 4 who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in such farm 5 animals.

6 (ii) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the 7 hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in such farm 8 animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted person. The 9 convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or her interest 10 in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties imposed by the 11 court, as specified under subdivision (d) of this section. In no case 12 shall the court award custody or control of the animals to any inter-13 ested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which 14 was the basis of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of 15 such unlawful act.

16 (g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in 17 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any 18 farm animal described in this section. This section expressly does not 19 impair or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a secu-20 rity interest in farm animals or in the proceeds from the sale of such 21 farm animals.

22 § 280.120 Officer may take possession of animals or implements used in 23 fights among animals.

24 Any officer authorized by law to make arrests may lawfully take 25 possession of any animals, or implements, or other property used or 26 employed, or about to be used or employed, in the violation of any 27 provision of law relating to fights among animals. He or she shall state 28 to the person in charge thereof, at the time of such taking, his or her 29 name and residence, and also, the time and place at which the applica-30 tion provided for by section 280.125 of this article will be made.

31 § 280.125 Disposition of animals or implements used in fights among 32 animals.

33 An officer, after taking possession of such animals, or implements, or 34 other property, pursuant to section 280.120 of this article, shall apply 35 to the magistrate before which the complaint was made against the offen-36 der violating such provision of law, for the order described herein, and 37 shall make and file an affidavit with such magistrate, stating therein 38 the name of the offender charged in such complaint, the time, place and 39 description of the animals, implements or other property so taken, 40 together with the name of the party who claims the same, if known, and 41 that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe, stating the 42 grounds of such belief, that the same were used or employed, or were 43 about to be used or employed, in such violation, and will establish the 44 truth thereof upon the trial of such offender. He or she shall then 45 deliver such animals, implements, or other property, to such magistrate, 46 who shall thereupon, by order in writing, place the same in the custody 47 of an officer or other proper person named and designated in such order, 48 to be kept until the trial or final discharge of the offender, and shall 49 send a copy of such order, without delay, to the district attorney of 50 the county. The officer or person named and designated in such order, 51 shall immediately thereupon assume such custody, and shall retain such 52 for the purpose of evidence upon such trial, subject to the order of the 53 court before which such offender may be required to appear, until his or 54 her final discharge or conviction. Upon the conviction of such offender, 55 the animals, implements, or other property, shall be adjudged by the 56 court to be forfeited. In the event of the acquittal or final discharge,

1 without conviction, of such offender, such court shall, on demand, 2 direct the delivery of the property held in custody to the owner there-3 of.

4 § 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 24 of section 108 of the agriculture 5 and markets law, as amended by chapter 392 of the laws of 2004, is 6 amended to read as follows:

7 (a) "Dangerous dog" means any dog which (i) without justification
8 attacks a person, companion animal as defined in subdivision [~~five~~] (e) 9 of section [~~three hundred fifty of this chapter~~] 280.00 of the penal 10 law, farm animal as defined in subdivision [~~four~~] (d) of section [~~three~~ 11 ~~hundred fifty of this chapter~~] 280.00 of the penal law or domestic 12 animal as defined in subdivision seven of this section and causes phys-13 ical injury or death, or (ii) behaves in a manner which a reasonable 14 person would believe poses a serious and unjustified imminent threat of 15 serious physical injury or death to one or more persons, companion 16 animals, farm animals or domestic animals or (iii) without justification 17 attacks a service dog, guide dog or hearing dog and causes physical 18 injury or death.

19 § 5. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 123
20 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by section 18 of part T 21 of chapter 59 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

22 1. Any person who witnesses an attack or threatened attack, or in the 23 case of a minor, an adult acting on behalf of such minor, may make a 24 complaint of an attack or threatened attack upon a person, companion 25 animal as defined in subdivision (e) of section [~~three hundred fifty of~~ 26 ~~this chapter~~] 280.00 of the penal law, farm animal as defined in [~~such~~] 27 subdivision (d) of section [~~three hundred fifty~~] 280.00 of the penal 28 law, or a domestic animal as defined in subdivision seven of section one 29 hundred eight of this article to a dog control officer or police officer 30 of the appropriate municipality. Such officer shall immediately inform 31 the complainant of his or her right to commence a proceeding as provided 32 in subdivision two of this section and, if there is reason to believe 33 the dog is a dangerous dog, the officer shall forthwith commence such 34 proceeding himself or herself.

35 (b) secure, humane confinement of the dog for a period of time and in 36 a manner deemed appropriate by the court but in all instances in a 37 manner designed to: (1) prevent escape of the dog, (2) protect the 38 public from unauthorized contact with the dog, and (3) to protect the 39 dog from the elements pursuant to section [~~three hundred fifty-three b~~ 40 ~~of this chapter~~] 280.00 of the penal law. Such confinement shall not 41 include lengthy periods of tying or chaining;

42 § 6. Section 332 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by 43 chapter 449 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

44 § 332. Disposition. Any person having in his or her care, custody, or 45 control any abandoned animal, as defined in section three hundred thir-46 ty-one of this article, may deliver such animal to any duly incorporated 47 society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or any duly incorpo-48 rated humane society having facilities for the care and eventual dispo-49 sition of such animals, or, in the case of dogs, cats and other small 50 animals, to any pound maintained by or under contract or agreement with 51 any county, city, town, or village within which such animal was aban-52 doned. The person with whom the animal was abandoned shall, however, on 53 the day of divesting himself or herself of possession thereof, notify 54 the person who had placed such animal in his or her custody of the name 55 and address of the animal society or pound to which the animal has been 56 delivered, such notice to be by registered letter mailed to the last

1 known address of the person intended to be so notified. If an animal is 2 not claimed by its owner within five days after being so delivered to 3 such duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, 4 duly incorporated humane society or pound, such animal may at any time 5 thereafter be placed for adoption in a suitable home [~~or euthanized in~~ 6 ~~accordance with the provisions of section three hundred seventy-four of~~ 7 ~~this chapter~~]. In no event, however, shall the use of a decompression 8 chamber or decompression device of any kind be used for the purpose of 9 destroying or disposing of such animal.

10 § 7. Paragraph a of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture 11 and markets law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 2013, is 12 amended to read as follows:

13 a. If any animal is seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of 14 this section, section [~~three hundred fifty-three-d of this article~~] 15 280.30 of the penal law or section three hundred seventy-five of this 16 article for any violation of this article, upon arraignment of charges, 17 or within a reasonable time thereafter, the duly incorporated society 18 for the prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal 19 shelter or any authorized agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for 20 the purposes of this section as the "impounding organization", may file 21 a petition with the court requesting that the person from whom an animal 22 is seized or the owner of the animal be ordered to post a security. The 23 district attorney prosecuting the charges may file and obtain the 24 requested relief on behalf of the impounding organization if requested 25 to do so by the impounding organization. The security shall be in an 26 amount sufficient to secure payment for all reasonable expenses expected 27 to be incurred by the impounding organization in caring and providing 28 for the animal pending disposition of the charges. Reasonable expenses 29 shall include, but not be limited to, estimated medical care and board-30 ing of the animal for at least thirty days. The amount of the security, 31 if any, shall be determined by the court after taking into consideration 32 all of the facts and circumstances of the case including, but not limit-33 ed to the recommendation of the impounding organization having custody 34 and care of the seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If 35 a security has been posted in accordance with this section, the impound-36 ing organization may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs 37 to be incurred by such organization in caring for the seized animal.

38 § 8. Subdivision 6 of section 399-aa of the general business law, as 39 added by chapter 573 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

40 6. (a) No provision of this section shall be construed to prohibit or 41 interfere with any properly conducted scientific tests, experiments or 42 investigations involving the use of dog or cat fur or flesh, performed 43 or conducted in laboratories or institutions, which are approved for 44 these purposes by the state commissioner of health in accordance with 45 section [~~three hundred fifty-three of the agriculture and markets~~] 46 280.10 of the penal law.

47 (b) No provision of this section shall be construed to prohibit any 48 person, firm, partnership or corporation from importing, selling, offer-49 ing for sale, manufacturing, distributing, transporting, or otherwise 50 marketing or trading in the fur, hair, skin, or flesh of a domesticated 51 dog or cat for the purposes of conducting scientific tests, experiments 52 or investigations that are to be performed or conducted in laboratories 53 or institutions, which are approved for these purposes by the state 54 commissioner of health in accordance with section [~~three hundred fifty-~~ 55 ~~three of the agriculture and markets~~] 280.10 of the penal law.

§ 9. Subdivision 1 of section 352.3 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 532 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the issuance of an order pursuant to section 315.3 or the entry of an order of disposition pursuant to section 352.2, a court may enter an order of protection against any respondent for good cause shown. The order may require that the respondent: (a) stay away from the home, school, business or place of employment of the victims of the alleged offense; or (b) refrain from harassing, intimidating, threatening or otherwise interfering with the victim or victims of the alleged offense and such members of the family or household of such victim or victims as shall be specifically named by the court in such order; or (c) refrain from intentionally injuring or killing, without justification, any companion animal the respondent knows to be owned, possessed, leased, kept or held by the person protected by the order or a minor child residing in such person's household. "Companion animal", as used in this subdivision, shall have the same meaning as in subdivision ~~[five] (e)~~ of section ~~[three hundred fifty of the agriculture and markets]~~ 280.00 of the penal law.

§ 10. Paragraph 2 of subdivision (h) of section 446 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 526 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

2. "Companion animal", as used in this section, shall have the same meaning as in subdivision ~~[five] (e)~~ of section ~~[three hundred fifty of the agriculture and markets]~~ 280.00 of the penal law;

§ 11. Paragraph 2 of subdivision (i) of section 551 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 526 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

2. "Companion animal", as used in this section, shall have the same meaning as in subdivision ~~[five] (e)~~ of section ~~[three hundred fifty of the agriculture and markets]~~ 280.00 of the penal law;

§ 12. Paragraph 2 of subdivision (i) of section 656 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 526 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

2. "Companion animal", as used in this section, shall have the same meaning as in subdivision ~~[five] (e)~~ of section ~~[three hundred fifty of the agriculture and markets]~~ 280.00 of the penal law;

§ 13. Paragraph 2 of subdivision (h) of section 759 of the family court act, as added by chapter 253 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
