such member's final average salary if, upon application filed within [two] five years after the death of the member, the head of the retirement system determines that such member:

- § 4. Subdivision a of section 607 of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 582 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- a. The eligible beneficiary of a member in service, or of a vested member who dies as a result of a qualifying World Trade Center condition as defined in section two of this chapter, shall be entitled to an accidental death benefit in the form of a pension equal to fifty percent of 11 such member's wages earned during his or her last year of actual service or his or her annual wage rate if he or she was credited with less than 12 13 one year of service since last becoming a member, if, upon application 14 filed within [sixty days] five years after the death of the member, the 15 head of the retirement system determines that such member died before 16 the effective date of retirement, as the natural and proximate result of 17 an accident not caused by his or her own willful negligence sustained in the performance of his or her duties in active service and while actual-18 19 ly a member of the retirement system.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred forty-two, hundred forty-three or two hundred forty-four of the military law or the provisions of any other law to the contrary and solely for the purpose of determining eligibility for an accidental death benefit, a member shall be considered to have died as the natural and proximate result of an accident sustained in the performance of duty provided such member was on the payroll in the service upon which membership is based at the time he or she was ordered to active duty pursuant to Title 10 of the United States Code, with the armed forces of the United States or to service in the uniformed services pursuant to Chapter 43 of Title 38 of the United States Code and died while on such active duty or service in the uniformed services on or after June fourteenth, two thousand five.

- Provided, however, the head of the retirement system in its sole 33 discretion may accept an application for an accidental death benefit after the expiration of the [sixty day] applicable filing period, where, 34 but only where, an ordinary death benefit has not been previously paid.
- 36 § 5. This act shall take effect January 1, 2019 and shall apply to the death of a member occurring on or after such date.
