IN SENATE

June 12, 2018

Introduced by Sen. BAILEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the general obligations law, in relation to requiring landlords to return security deposits within a reasonable time

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The general obligations law is amended by adding a new
2	section 7-104 to read as follows:
3	§ 7-104. Money deposited or advanced for use or rental of any dwell-
4	ing; retention. 1. Definitions. For the purpose of this section:
5	(a) The term "security deposit" shall mean any advance or deposit of
б	money that is subject to the provisions of section 7-103 of this title,
7	and the primary function of which is to secure the performance of a
8	rental agreement for the use or rental of any dwelling or any part ther-
9	eof.
10	(b) The term "landlord" shall mean any person who receives payment
11	from a tenant for the rental or use of any dwelling or any portion ther-
12	eof and has received a security deposit in connection with such rental.
13	(c) The term "tenant" shall mean any person who occupies any dwelling
14	or any portion thereof for which he or she pays rent and who, in
15	connection with such rental, has furnished a security deposit.
16	2. No security deposit for a dwelling shall exceed more than two
17	months' rent.
18	3. A month prior to the expiration of the lease, the landlord shall
19	notify all tenants that they have the option to conduct a pre-exit walk-
20	through with the landlord to document any and all damages, as well as a
21	post-exit walk-through with the landlord to document any damages caused
22	while moving out that may impact the value of the security deposit. The
23	post-exit walk-through cannot be after the last day of the lease.
24	4. A landlord shall, within twenty-one days of the end of the lease,
25	return to the tenant the full security deposit and any accrued interest
26	to which the tenant is entitled less any amount retained by the landlord
27	under subdivision five of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

S. 9000

1 (a) A landlord may retain all or a part of a security deposit for 5. 2 nonpayment of rent, use and occupancy, unjustifiable abandonment of the 3 premises prior to the expiration of the lease term, nonpayment of utili-4 ty charges, repair work or cleaning contracted by the tenant or damages 5 caused by the tenant to the premises. б (b) (i) In the event that the landlord retains any portion of the 7 security deposit, he or she shall provide the tenant with a written 8 statement listing the reasons for the retention of such portion of the 9 security deposit within twenty-one calendar days after the lease 10 expired. 11 (ii) The written statement shall include photographic documentation for all reasons for retention regarding damages by the tenant to the 12 dwelling and a detailed itemized receipt of repair for such damage. The 13 itemized receipt shall include proof of the cost for the repair of any 14 15 listed damage on said receipt. The itemized receipt shall also include 16 proof of the payment in full by the landlord for the cost of the repair. If the landlord or landlord's employee did not do the repair work, the 17 18 landlord shall provide the tenant a copy of the paid bill, paid invoice, 19 or receipt showing payment in full, supplied by the person or entity 20 performing the work. The itemized receipt shall provide the tenant with 21 the name, address, and telephone number of the person or entity who performed the repair work. If the landlord and/or his or her employee 22 performed the repair work, the itemized receipt shall reasonably 23 24 describe the work performed and any hourly rate charged for the landlord 25 and any employee. 26 (c) When the statement is delivered, it shall be signed by the land-27 lord attesting to the accuracy of the statement. All tenants whose security deposit is being retained shall sign the written statement and 28 return a signed copy to the landlord if the tenant agrees to the accura-29 30 cy of the statement. 31 (d) When the statement is signed by the tenant and returned to the 32 landlord, the landlord shall return to the tenant their security deposit 33 and any accrued interest to which the tenant is entitled less any amount 34 retained by the landlord under this subdivision as agreed to in the statement signed by the tenant. 35 (e) If the tenant does not believe the statement is accurate and thus 36 37 does not sign, the statement was not signed by the landlord, the remainder of the security deposit is not returned within twenty-one calendar 38 days after the lease expired, or repairs cannot reasonably be completed 39 within twenty-one calendar days after the lease expired, the tenant may 40 41 invoke the use of the New York state attorney general's mediation proc-42 ess and, if the mediation process fails or is not used, bring an action 43 in small claims court. 44 6. The willful retention of a security deposit in violation of this 45 section shall render a landlord liable for treble the amount of that 46 portion of the security deposit wrongfully withheld from the tenant, 47 together with reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and the last two 48 months' rent paid by the tenant. In any action brought by a tenant under this section, the landlord shall bear the burden of proving that his or 49 her withholding of the security deposit or any portion thereof was not 50 51 willful. This section shall not limit any other penalties the landlord 52 could be subjected to. 53 7. Any provision of a contract or agreement whereby a person who so 54 deposits or advances money waives any provision of this section is abso-

55 lutely void.

S. 9000

1	8. Any landlord found in violation of this section shall have each
2	refraction reported to the department of homes and community renewal,
3	who shall compile a list of landlords who have violated the provisions
4	of this section including, but not limited to, which provisions were
5	violated. The department of homes and community renewal shall post such
6	list on their website, and such information can be requested in paper
7	format by members of the public.
8	§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall
9	have become a law.
