AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crime of misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a caregiver for children

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "Lulu and Leo's 2 law".

3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 260.35 to read
4 as follows:

5 § 260.35 Misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a caregiver for a child 6 or children.

7 1. A person is guilty of misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a 8 caregiver for a child or children when he or she:

9 (a) intentionally makes a false written statement about himself, 10 herself, or another person while he or she, or such other person, is 11 being considered for employment, or while under employment as a caregiv-
12 er to a parent or guardian of a child or children, or the agent of a 13 parent or guardian, and

14 (b) such statement contains a materially false representation regard-15 ing the caregiver's background related to the ability to safely care for 16 a child or children, and

17 (c) a reasonable person would have relied upon such statement in 18 making an employment decision.

19 2. For the purposes of this section, "caregiver" shall mean a person 20 employed by or being considered for employment to provide fifteen or 21 more hours of care per week to a child or children in the home of such 22 child or children or in the home of such caregiver, provided that such 23 term shall not apply to a child day care provider required to be 24 licensed pursuant to the social services law.

25 Misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a caregiver for a child or 26 children is a class A misdemeanor, provided, however, that if any
