Introduced by Sens. CROCI, LARKIN, MARCHIONE, ORTT -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to the priority of persons with responsibility to determine the disposition of human remains

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 4201 of the public health law is amended by adding a new paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) "Member of the military or reserves" means (i) an active duty member of the United States army, navy, air force, marines, coast guard, army national guard, air national guard and/or reserves thereof; or (ii) a member of the New York guard or the New York naval militia called up to active duty.

§ 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 4201 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 401 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The following persons in descending priority shall have the right to control the disposition of the remains of such decedent:

(i) if the decedent is a member of the military or reserves, who died in the course of their duties therein as described in section 1481 of title 10 of the United States Code, then the individual designated, if any, by the decedent on the decedent's United States department of defense record of emergency data, DD Form 93, or its successor form, so long as the written instrument was completed in accordance with federal law;

~~(ii)~~ (ii) the person designated in a written instrument executed pursuant to the provisions of this section;

~~(iii)~~ (iii) the decedent's surviving spouse;

~~(ii-a)~~ (iv) the decedent's surviving domestic partner;
