1 (e) The term "immigration status" means a person's possession or non-2 possession of certification, documentation, or authorization to be pres-
3 ent in the United States for a specific or undetermined period of time,
4 as an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence as defined in 8
5 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(20), a refugee as defined in 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(42), an 6 alien who has been granted asylum pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1158, an alien 7 that has been lawfully admitted for temporary residence pursuant to 8
8 U.S.C. § 1255a, or any other related status.

9 § 4. Subdivision 2 of section 79-n of the civil rights law, as added
10 by chapter 227 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

11 2. Any person who intentionally selects a person or property for harm 12 or causes damage to the property of another or causes physical injury or 13 death to another in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or 14 perception regarding the race, color, national origin, immigration
15 status, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability 16 or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or 17 perception is correct, shall be liable, in a civil action or proceeding
18 maintained by such individual or group of individuals, for injunctive
19 relief, damages, or any other appropriate relief in law or equity. If it 20 shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the 21 respondent has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be 22 issued by such court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further 23 violation, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been 24 injured or damaged thereby.
