Introduced by M. of A. PAULIN, ERRIGO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the limited liability company law, in relation to establishing the L3C act regarding low-profit limited liability companies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act may be known and shall be cited as the "L3C act".

2 § 2. Section 102 of the limited liability company law is amended by 3 adding a new subdivision (n-1) to read as follows:

4 (n-1) "Low-profit limited liability company" means a limited liability
5 company that has set forth in its articles of organization a business
6 purpose that satisfies, and that is at all times operated to satisfy,
7 each of the following requirements:

8 (i) the limited liability company significantly furthers the accom-
9 plishment of one or more charitable or educational purposes within the 10 meaning of section 170(c)(2)(B) of the internal revenue code of 1986 (26 11 U.S.C. § 170(c)(2)(B)), and would not have been formed but for its 12 relationship to the accomplishment of charitable or educational 13 purposes;

14 (ii) no significant purpose of the limited liability company is the 15 production of income or the appreciation of property; provided, however, 16 that the fact that the limited liability company produces significant 17 income or capital appreciation shall not, in the absence of other 18 factors, be conclusive evidence of a significant purpose involving the 19 production of income or the appreciation of property; and

20 (iii) no purpose of the limited liability company is to accomplish one 21 or more political or legislative purposes within the meaning of section
22 170(c)(2)(D) of the internal revenue code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. § 23 170(c)(2)(D)).

24 § 3. Paragraph 6 of subdivision (e) of section 203 of the limited 25 liability company law, as added by chapter 470 of the laws of 1997, is 26 amended, paragraph 7 of subdivision (e) is renumbered paragraph 8 and a
27 new paragraph 7 is added to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

(6) if all or specified members are to be liable in their capacity as members for all or specified debts, obligations or liabilities of the limited liability company as authorized pursuant to section six hundred nine of this chapter, a statement that all or specified members are so liable for such debts, obligations or liabilities in their capacity as members of the limited liability company as authorized pursuant to section six hundred nine of this chapter; ~~and~~

(7) if the company is a low-profit limited liability company, as defined in subdivision (n-1) of section one hundred two of this chapter, that the company is a limited liability company; and

§ 4. Subdivisions (g), (h) and (i) of section 204 of the limited liability company law, subdivision (i) as added by chapter 316 of the laws of 2005, are amended and three new subdivisions (j), (k) and (l) are added to read as follows:

(g) shall not, unless the approval of the state department of social services or its successors in function is attached to the articles of organization or application for authority, contain the word "blind" or "handicapped." Such approval shall be granted by the state department of social services or its successors in function if in its opinion the word "blind" or "handicapped" as used in the limited liability company's proposed name will not tend to mislead or confuse the public into believing that the limited liability company is organized for charitable or nonprofit purposes related to the blind or the handicapped; ~~and~~

(h) shall not, unless the approval of the attorney general is attached to the articles of organization or application for authority, contain the word "exchange" or any abbreviation or derivative thereof. Such approval shall not be granted by the attorney general if in his or her opinion the use of the word "exchange" in the limited liability company's proposed name would falsely imply that the limited liability company conducts its business at a place where trade is carried on in securities or commodities by brokers, dealers or merchants~~[-];~~

(i) shall not contain the following terms: "school," "education," "elementary," "secondary," "kindergarten," "prekindergarten," "preschool," "nursery school," "museum," "history," "historical," "historical society," "arboretum," "library," "college," "university" or other term restricted by section two hundred twenty-four of the education law; "conservatory," "academy," or "institute" or any abbreviation or derivative of such terms, shall have endorsed thereon or annexed thereto the consent of the commissioner of education~~[-];~~

(j) shall, in the case of a low-profit limited liability company, contain the words "low-profit limited liability company" or the abbreviations "L3C" or "l3c", with or without periods or other punctuation;

(k) shall not, in the case of a low-profit limited liability company unless the approval of the state department of social services or its successors in function is attached to the articles of organization or application for authority, contain the word "blind" or "handicapped." Such approval shall be granted by the state department of social services or its successors in function if in its opinion the word "blind" or "handicapped" as used in the limited liability company's proposed name will not tend to mislead or confuse the public into believing that the limited liability company is organized for charitable or nonprofit purposes related to the blind or the handicapped; and

(l) shall not, in the case of a low-profit limited liability company unless the approval of the attorney general is attached to the articles of organization or application for authority, contain the word "exchange" or any abbreviation or derivative thereof. Such approval

1 shall not be granted by the attorney general if in his or her opinion
2 the use of the word "exchange" in the limited liability company's 3 proposed name would falsely imply that the limited liability company
4 conducts its business at a place where trade is carried on in securities
5 or commodities by brokers, dealers or merchants.

6 § 5. Paragraphs 8 and 9 of subdivision (d) of section 211 of the 7 limited liability company law are renumbered paragraphs 9 and 10 and a
8 new paragraph 8 is added to read as follows:

9 (8) if the limited liability company is a low-profit limited liability
10 company, its failure to meet any of the requirements set out in subdivi-11 sion (n-1) of section one hundred two of this chapter;

12 § 6. Paragraph 4 of subdivision (a) of section 701 of the limited 13 liability company law, as amended by chapter 420 of the laws of 1999, is 14 amended, paragraph 5 of subdivision (a) is renumbered paragraph 6 and a
15 new paragraph 5 is added to read as follows:

16 (4) at any time there are no members, provided that, unless otherwise 17 provided in the operating agreement, the limited liability company is 18 not dissolved and is not required to be wound up if, within one hundred 19 eighty days or such other period as is provided for in the operating 20 agreement after the occurrence of the event that terminated the contin-21 ued membership of the last remaining member, the legal representative of 22 the last remaining member agrees in writing to continue the limited 23 liability company and to the admission of the legal representative of 24 such member or its assignee to the limited liability company as a 25 member, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the 26 continued membership of the last remaining member; [✗]

27 (5) if the limited liability company is a low-profit limited liability 28 company that has ceased to meet any of the requirements set out in 29 subdivision (n-1) of section one hundred two of this chapter and has 30 failed for ninety days after ceasing to meet those requirements to file 31 articles of amendment with the department of state amending its name to 32 conform with the requirements of section two hundred four of this chap-33 ter governing limited liability company names; or

34 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
