Introduced by M. of A. MAGEE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to developing a beekeeper registry program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 169-d of the agricultural and markets law is 2 amended by adding a new subdivision 5 to read as follows:

- 5. (a) Apiary industry registry. The commissioner, in cooperation with 3 4 the apiary industry advisory committee, is authorized to develop a beek-5 eeper registry program for commercial beekeepers, part-time beekeepers 6 and hobbyist beekeepers. Such program may be managed by an institution 7 of higher education with expertise in beekeeping and bee health. The purpose of such registry program shall be to maintain a census of beekeepers and beehives and provide a means of communication to and from 9 10 beekeepers and bee research programs to provide for monitoring of the 11 bee population in New York state with the goal of protecting the health and wellbeing of bees, preventing disease and maintaining the productiv-12 13 ity of bees for pollination and honey production.
- 14 (b) Registry notification by sellers of bees and beekeeping equipment.

 15 As part of a beekeeper registry program developed pursuant to this subdivision, any person, firm, limited liability company or corporation that sells bees and beekeeping equipment to New York state residents shall provide information required by the department to New York state purchasers of such bees or beekeeping equipment informing them about the beekeeper registry program, including, but not limited to, the purpose of such program and how such purchasers may register.
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.
