Introduced by M. of A. ROZIC, DINOWITZ, ABINANTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to restricting the disclosure of personal information by businesses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "right to 2 know act of 2018".

3 § 2. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the right to 4 privacy is a personal and fundamental right protected by the United 5 States Constitution. All individuals have a right of privacy in informa-6 tion pertaining to them.

7 This state recognizes the importance of providing consumers with tran-
8 sparency about how their personal information has been shared by busi-
9 nesses. For free market forces to have a role in shaping the privacy
10 practices and for "opt-in" and "opt-out" remedies to be effective,
11 consumers must be more than vaguely informed that a business might share
12 personal information with third parties. Consumers must be better 13 informed about what kinds of personal information are purchased by busi-
14 nesses for direct marketing purposes. With these specifics, consumers 15 can knowledgeably choose to opt-in or opt-out or choose among businesses
16 that disclose information to third parties for direct marketing purposes 17 on the basis of how protective the business is of consumers' privacy.

18 Businesses are now collecting personal information and sharing and 19 selling it in ways not contemplated or properly covered by the current 20 law. Some web sites are installing up to one hundred tracking tools when 21 consumers visit web pages and sending very personal information such as 22 age, gender, race, income, health concerns, and recent purchases to 23 third-party advertising and marketing companies. Third-party data broker 24 companies are buying, selling, and trading personal information obtained 25 from mobile phones, financial institutions, social media sites, and 26 other online and brick and mortar companies.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 Some mobile applications are sharing personal information, such as 2 location information, unique phone identification numbers, and age,
3 gender, and other personal details with third-party companies.

4 Consumers need to know the ways that their personal information is 5 being collected by companies and then shared or sold to third parties in 6 order to properly protect their privacy, personal safety, and financial 7 security.

8 § 3. The article heading of article 39-F of the general business law, 9 as added by chapter 442 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as 10 follows:

11 ~~[NOTIFICATION OF UNAUTHORIZED]~~ ACQUISITION AND USE
12 OF PRIVATE INFORMATION

13 § 4. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 899-
14 bb to read as follows:

16 party. 1. (a) A business that retains a customer's personal information
