Introduced by M. of A. LUPARDO, WILLIAMS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to creating the distinctive Red Cross Spirit of Service license plates; and to amend the state finance law, in relation to the creation of the "disaster relief and emergency preparedness fund"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new
2 section 404-ee to read as follows:

3 § 404-ee. Distinctive "Red Cross Spirit of Service" license plates. 1.
4 Any person residing in this state shall, upon request, be issued a
5 distinctive license plate in support of disaster relief and emergency
6 preparedness bearing the phrase "Red Cross Spirit of Service". Applica-
7 tion for said license plate shall be filed with the commissioner in such 8 form and detail as the commissioner shall prescribe.

9 2. A distinctive plate issued pursuant to this section shall be issued 10 in the same manner as other number plates upon payment of the regular 11 registration fee prescribed by section four hundred one of this article;
12 provided, however, that an additional annual service charge of twenty-
13 five dollars shall be charged for such plates.

14 3. Each twenty-five dollars received as the annual service charge
15 under this section shall be deposited to the credit of the "disaster
16 relief and emergency preparedness fund" established pursuant to section
17 ninety-three-aa of the state finance law and shall be used for disaster
18 relief and emergency preparedness programs undertaken pursuant to 19 section ninety-three-aa of the state finance law.

20 § 2. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 93-aa to 21 read as follows:

22 § 93-aa. Disaster relief and emergency preparedness fund. 1. There is 23 hereby established in the joint custody of the commissioner of taxation
24 and finance and the comptroller, a special fund to be known as the 25 "disaster relief and emergency preparedness fund".

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

2. Such fund shall consist of all revenues received by the department of motor vehicles pursuant to section four hundred four-ee of the vehicle and traffic law, as added by the chapter of the laws of two thousand eighteen that added this section, and all other moneys appropriated, credited, or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the state from receiving grants, gifts or bequests for the purposes of the fund as defined in this section and depositing them into the fund according to law. Any interest received by the comptroller on moneys on deposit in such fund shall be retained in and become part of such fund.

2-a. On or before the first day of February each year, the commissioner of the division of homeland security and emergency services shall provide a written report to the temporary president of the senate, speaker of the assembly, chair of the senate finance committee, chair of the assembly ways and means committee, chair of the senate committee on investigations and governmental operations, chair of the assembly governmental operations committee, the state comptroller and the public. Such report shall include how the monies of the fund were utilized during the preceding calendar year, and shall include:

(a) the amount of money dispersed from the fund and the award process used for such disbursements;

(b) recipients of awards from the fund;

(c) the amount awarded to each;

(d) the purposes for which such awards were granted; and

(e) a summary financial plan for such monies which shall include estimates of all receipts and all disbursements for the current and succeeding fiscal years, along with the actual results from the prior fiscal year.

3. Moneys in such fund shall be expended only to provide grants to emergency services organizations for the purpose of developing, implementing, and executing disaster preparedness and emergency response programs approved by the division of homeland security and emergency services. For the purposes of this section, the term "emergency services organization" shall have the same meaning as such term is defined by subdivision two of section twenty of the executive law.

4. Monies shall be payable from the fund on the audit and warrant of the comptroller on vouchers approved and certified by the commissioner of the division of homeland security and emergency services.

5. To the extent practicable, the commissioner of the division of homeland security and emergency services shall ensure that all monies received during a fiscal year are expended prior to the end of that fiscal year.

§ 3. 1. A distinctive plate established pursuant to section 404-ee of the vehicle and traffic law shall only be designed, produced and issued upon the delivery to the department of motor vehicles of a surety bond in the amount of six thousand dollars, which shall be executed by a surety company authorized by the department of financial services to transact business in this state. Provided, however, that if the commissioner of motor vehicles shall have received prior to plate design, production and issuance at least two hundred orders for such distinctive plate together with the additional annual service charge applicable to each such order, which shall be non-refundable, no such surety bond shall be required. All service charges collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited pursuant to the provisions of section 404-oo of the vehicle and traffic law to the credit of the department of motor vehicles distinctive plate development fund established by section 95-g

1 of the state finance law and shall be used for the design, production,
2 advertising and distribution of distinctive license plates in accordance
3 with such section 95-g.

4 2. If, upon the expiration of two years following the date upon which 5 distinctive plates in the series are first available for sale, two 6 hundred or more sets of such plates are sold, a bond delivered pursuant 7 to this section shall be discontinued. If fewer than two hundred sets of 8 such plates are sold by such time, the department of motor vehicles
9 shall be entitled to recover against the bond in an amount proportionate
10 to such shortfall.

11 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 12 it shall have become a law; provided, however, that section three of 13 this act shall take effect immediately; and provided further, however 14 that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any 15 rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its 16 effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on 17 or before such effective date.
