IN ASSEMBLY

May 16, 2018

Introduced by M. of A. BRONSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the economic development law and the state finance law, in relation to certain requirements for and restrictions on economic development grant recipients

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "jobs 2 protection act".
- 3 § 2. Subdivision 19 of section 100 of the economic development law is 4 amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:
- 5 (c) to adopt regulations in accordance with section eleven-a of the 6 state finance law, to establish the terms and conditions of repayment, 7 including specifying the conditions under which repayment may be 8 deferred, following a determination by the commission of a legitimate 9 hardship.
- 10 § 3. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 11-a to 11 read as follows:
- 12 § 11-a. Requirements for economic development grant recipients. 1.
13 Any person or business organization that receives an award or grant
14 through any economic development program, where such award or grant
15 requires the creation of jobs, shall not reduce the number of employees
16 who were employed within the state at the time such person or business 17 organization accepted the financial assistance for five years after 18 receiving such assistance or during the term of the award or grant, 19 whichever is longer, unless the full amount of assistance is repaid to 20 the state and a penalty equal to five percent of the total assistance
21 received is paid to the state. As used in this section, the term "busi-22 ness" shall include any division of a business or subsidiary institution 23 controlled, directly or indirectly, by another institution.
- 24 2. The commissioner of economic development shall consult with the 25 commissioner of the department of environmental conservation to deter-26 mine whether an applicant for an economic development grant has been
