

STATE OF NEW YORK

IN ASSEMBLY

May 30, 2018

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Solages) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the civil rights law and the judiciary law, in relation to protecting certain interested parties or people from civil arrest while going to, remaining at, or returning from the place of such court proceeding

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 28
2 to read as follows:

3 § 28. Civil arrest; certain locations. 1. A person duly and in good 4 faith attending a court proceeding in which such person is a party or 5 potential witness, or a family or household member is a party or poten-6 tial witness, is privileged from civil arrest while going to, remaining 7 at, and returning from, the place of such court proceeding, unless such 8 civil arrest is supported by a judicial warrant or judicial order 9 authorizing such civil arrest.

10 2. It is a contempt of the court and false imprisonment for any person 11 to willfully violate subdivision one of this section, or an order of the 12 court issued pursuant to section four-a of the judiciary law, by execut-
13 ing an arrest prohibited by subdivision one of this section or section 14 four-a of the judiciary law, or willfully assisting or willfully facili-15 tating an arrest prohibited by subdivision one of this section or 16 section four-a of the judiciary law; provided, however, that nothing in 17 this subdivision shall affect any right or defense of any person, police 18 officer, peace officer or public officer pursuant to article thirty-five 19 of the penal law.

20 3. Regardless of whether a proceeding for contempt of the court pursu-21 ant to subdivision two of this section has been initiated:

22 (a) a person described in subdivision one of this section may bring a 23 civil action for appropriate equitable and declaratory relief if such 24 person has reasonable cause to believe a violation of subdivision one of 25 this section, as described in subdivision two of this section, or a

1 violation of section four-a of the judiciary law, has occurred or may 2 occur; and

3 (b) the attorney general may bring a civil action in the name of the 4 people of the state of New York to obtain appropriate equitable and 5 declaratory relief if the attorney general has reasonable cause to 6 believe that a violation of subdivision one of this section, as 7 described in subdivision two of this section, or a violation of section 8 four-a of the judiciary law, has occurred or may occur.

9 4. In any successful action pursuant to subdivision three of this 10 section, a plaintiff or petitioner may recover costs and reasonable 11 attorney's fees.

12 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to narrow, or in any way
13 lessen, any common law or other right or privilege of a person privi-
14 leged from arrest pursuant to this article or otherwise.

15 6. As used in this section:

16 (a) "civil arrest" shall mean an arrest that is not:

17 (i) for the sole or primary purpose of preparing the person subject to 18 such arrest for criminal prosecution, for an alleged violation of the 19 criminal law of:

20 (A) this state, or another state, for which a sentence of a term of 21 imprisonment is authorized by law; or

22 (B) the United States, for which a sentence of a term of imprisonment 23 is authorized by law, and for which federal law requires an initial 24 appearance before a federal judge, federal magistrate or other judicial 25 officer, pursuant to the federal rules of criminal procedure that govern 26 initial appearances; or

27 (ii) for contempt of the court in which the court proceeding is taking 28 place or will be taking place;

29 (b) "court proceeding" shall mean any appearance in a court of this 30 state before a judge or justice or judicial magistrate of this state 31 ordered or scheduled by such judge or justice or judicial magistrate, or 32 the filing of papers designed to initiate such an appearance before a 33 judge or justice or judicial magistrate of this state;

34 (c) "family or household member" shall have the same meaning as in 35 subdivision two of section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social 36 services law; and

37 (d) "judicial warrant or judicial order authorizing such civil arrest"
38 means an arrest warrant or other judicial order, issued by a magistrate 39 sitting in the judicial branch of a local or state government or of the 40 federal government, authorizing a civil arrest and issued by the court 41 in which proceedings following such arrest will be heard and determined.

42 § 2. The judiciary law is amended by adding a new section 4-a to read 43 as follows:

44 § 4-a. Certain powers of the courts regarding civil arrests. In order 45 to maintain access to the court and open judicial proceedings for all 46 persons in their individual capacity and to prevent interference with 47 the needs of judicial administration, a court has the power to issue 48 appropriate judicial orders to protect the privilege from civil arrest, 49 in accordance with article three of the civil rights law.

50 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law is amended by 51 adding a new paragraph (w) to read as follows:

52 (w) (i) In order to maintain access to the court and open judicial 53 proceedings for all persons in their individual capacity and to prevent 54 interference with the needs of judicial administration, consistent with 55 section twenty-eight of the civil rights law and section four-a of this 56 chapter, direct that court personnel responsible for all courthouses and

1 the places of all court proceedings in the state shall not allow access 2 to such courthouses and places of court proceedings to non-local law 3 enforcement personnel seeking to enter such locations with respect to 4 violation or violations of federal immigration law unless presented with 5 a valid judicial warrant or judicial order, and designated counsel of 6 the unified court system has individually reviewed and confirmed in 7 writing the authenticity of such judicial warrant or judicial order.
8 Non-local law enforcement personnel seeking to enter such a location 9 with respect to violation or violations of federal immigration law shall 10 identify themselves and such purpose, and present such judicial warrant 11 or judicial order to such responsible court personnel when seeking such 12 access. The chief administrator shall promulgate rules consistent with 13 this subdivision designed to implement the provisions of this paragraph.

14 (ii) Such rules shall also require that a copy of each judicial 15 warrant and judicial order reviewed by designated counsel of the 16 unified court system under this paragraph be sent to and maintained in a 17 central repository by the chief administrator, who shall on an annual 18 basis compile statistics disaggregated by county and prepare a report 19 of such statistics, and also identify in such report, for each such 20 judicial warrant and judicial order, the date such judicial warrant or 21 judicial order was signed, the judge and court which issued such judi-22 cial warrant or judicial order and the location of such court as shown 23 by such document, the date such judicial warrant or judicial order was 24 presented to counsel for the unified court system, a description of the 25 type of judicial warrant or judicial order and, to the extent known to 26 court personnel, whether or not an arrest occurred and the date and 27 location of such arrest. Such report, which shall not include the names 28 of individuals involved, shall be published on the website of the 29 unified court system and copies of such report shall be sent to the 30 governor, the speaker of the assembly and the temporary president of the 31 senate.

32 (iii) For purposes of this paragraph, "non-local law enforcement 33 personnel" shall mean a person or persons employed or retained by a law 34 enforcement agency: (A) of a jurisdiction other than the state of New 35 York or a local government in the state of New York; or (B) of the state 36 of New York or a local government in the state of New York, where such 37 law enforcement agency or employee or agent thereof has entered into an 38 agreement with a federal law enforcement agency, including but not 39 limited to pursuant to 8 U.S.C. 1373, authorizing it or such person to 40 enforce or assist in the enforcement of federal immigration law.

41 § 4. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivi-42 sion, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of 43 competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, 44 impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in 45 its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section 46 or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-47 ment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of 48 the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such 49 invalid provisions had not been included herein.

50 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
