in width, with the phrase "Prevailing Rate of Wages". Such posted statement shall be constructed of materials capable of withstanding adverse 3 weather conditions. The contractor and every sub-contractor shall notify all laborers, workers or mechanics in their employ in writing of the prevailing rate of wage and supplements for their particular job classification. Such notification shall be given to every laborer, worker or mechanic upon hire, on their first pay stub and with every pay stub 7 thereafter, and shall set forth the amounts paid per hour for each 9 supplement provided for his or her particular job classification in 10 accordance with the schedules determined by the fiscal officer. Such 11 notification shall be provided in English and in the language identified by each employee as the primary language of such employee. At the begin-12 ning of performance of every public works contract, and with the first 13 14 paycheck after July first of each year, the contractor and every sub-15 contractor shall notify all laborers, workers, and mechanics in their 16 employ in writing, in English and in the language identified by each 17 employee as the primary language of such employee, in accordance with such form as is prescribed by the fiscal officer, of the telephone number and address for the fiscal officer. The notice shall also inform 18 19 20 each laborer, worker, or mechanic of his or her right to contact the 21 fiscal officer or some other representative if, at any time while working for the public works contractor or sub-contractor, he or she does 22 not receive the proper prevailing rate of wages or supplements for his 23 or her particular job classification that he or she is entitled to 24 25 receive under the contract. If after investigation the fiscal officer 26 finds that a contractor or sub-contractor has (1) failed to post or 27 provide any notice required under this subdivision, including having failed to provide any such notice in the language identified by an 28 employee as the primary language of such employee, (2) failed to set 29 30 forth the prevailing wage or the breakdown of supplements on the pay 31 stub, (3) [wilfully posted the incorrect prevailing wage, or 32 (4) [wilfully set forth the incorrect prevailing wage or the 33 amounts paid per hour for each supplement on the pay stub, the fiscal officer $[\tau]$ shall $_{\perp}$ by an order which shall describe particularly the 34 35 nature of the alleged violation, assess the contractor or sub-contractor 36 a civil penalty of not more than fifty dollars upon the first finding of 37 a violation, two hundred fifty dollars upon the second finding of a 38 violation, and five hundred dollars for each subsequent violation. In 39 assessing the amount of the penalty, the fiscal officer shall give due consideration to the size of the employer's business, the good faith of 40 41 the employer, and the gravity of the violation. 42

(iii) The contractor and every sub-contractor shall keep original payrolls or transcripts thereof, subscribed and sworn to or affirmed by him or her as true under the penalties of perjury, setting forth the names and addresses and showing for each worker, laborer, or mechanic the hours and days worked, the occupations worked, the hourly wage rates paid and the supplements paid or provided. Such payrolls or transcripts thereof shall also set forth the amounts paid per hour for each supplement provided in accordance with the schedules determined by the fiscal officer. Where the contractor or sub-contractor maintains no regular place of business in New York state and where the amount of the contract is in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars such payrolls shall be kept on the site of the work. All other contractors or sub-contractors shall 54 produce within five days on the site of the work and upon formal order of the commissioner or his or her designated representative such 56 original payrolls or transcripts thereof, subscribed and sworn to or

1 affirmed by him or her as true under the penalties of perjury, as may be deemed necessary to adequately enforce the provisions of this article. Every contractor, and sub-contractor, shall submit to the department of 3 jurisdiction within thirty days after issuance of its first payroll, and every thirty days thereafter, a transcript of the original payroll record, as provided by this article, subscribed and sworn to or affirmed 7 as true under the penalties of perjury. Every contractor and subcontractor shall submit to the commissioner, and to the fiscal officer, 9 when the fiscal officer is a city comptroller or other analogous offi-10 cer, within thirty days of its first payroll, and annually thereafter, a 11 transcript of the original payroll record, subscribed and sworn to or affirmed as true under the penalties of perjury, including, documenta-12 13 tion of each fund, plan, or program for which any supplement has been 14 paid or provided. Such transcripts and additional information shall be 15 provided on a form promulgated by the department. Any person who 16 [wilfully willfully fails to file such payroll records with the depart-17 ment of jurisdiction, commissioner, or the fiscal officer shall be guilty of a class E felony. In addition, any person who [wilfully 18 fails to file such payroll records within the time specified in this 19 20 subparagraph shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand 21 dollars per day. 22

- § 3. Subdivision 6 of section 220 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 230 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:
- 6. The fiscal officer $[-\tau]$ may, and on the written request of any interested person shall, require any person or corporation performing such public work to file with such fiscal officer schedules of the supplements to be provided and wages to be paid to such laborers, workmen or mechanics, including information regarding the amounts to be paid per hour for each supplement provided for each particular job classification. The fiscal officer may, and on the written request of any interested party shall, require and furnish proof of any supplements provided or amounts paid to or on behalf of employees in satisfaction of the obligation to provide supplements under this section. Any such person or corporation shall, within ten days after the receipt of written notice of such requirement, file with the fiscal officer such schedules of wages and supplements. An employer may contest a determination by the fiscal officer under paragraphs a and c of subdivision five of this section. The employer must allege and prove by competent evidence, that the actual percentage of workers, laborers or mechanics is below the required thirty per centum and during the pendency of any such contest and until final determination thereof, the work in question shall proceed under the rate established by the fiscal officer.
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law and shall only apply to public work contracts entered into on or after such effective date.
