AN ACT authorizing the alienation of certain parklands in the town of Brookhaven, county of Suffolk

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subject to the provisions of this act, the town of Brookhaven, in the county of Suffolk, acting by and through its governing body and upon such terms and conditions as determined by such body, is hereby authorized to discontinue as parklands and alienate the lands more particularly described in section three of this act, and to lease such parklands to the Patchogue-Medford Library District for the purpose of establishing a local library branch for a period not to exceed thirty years.

§ 2. The authorization contained in section one of this act shall be effective only upon the condition that the town of Brookhaven dedicate an amount equal to or greater than the fair market value of the parklands being discontinued toward the acquisition of new parkland and/or capital improvements to existing parkland and recreational facilities.

§ 3. The parklands authorized by section one of this act to be alienated are described as follows:

§ 4. Should the leased lands described in section three of this act cease to be used for the purposes described in section one of this act, the lease shall terminate and those lands shall revert to the town of Brookhaven for public park and recreational purposes. At the time of such reversion, any facilities located thereon shall be adapted for public park and recreational purposes.

§ 5. In the event that the town of Brookhaven received any funding support or assistance from the federal government for the purchase, maintenance or improvement of the parklands set forth in section three of this act, the discontinuance and alienation of such parkland authorized by the provisions of this act shall not occur until the town of Brookhaven has complied with any federal requirements pertaining to the alienation or conversion of parklands, including satisfying the secretary of the interior that the alienation or conversion complies with all conditions which the secretary of the interior deems necessary to assure the substitution of other lands shall be equivalent in fair market value and usefulness to the lands being alienated or converted.

§ 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
