STATE OF NEW YORK

11113

IN ASSEMBLY

June 5, 2018

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Schimminger, Lupardo, Magee, Fahy, Jenne) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to the production and control of mead; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended 2 by adding a new subdivision 3-c to read as follows:

3-c. "Braggot" shall mean a malt alcoholic beverage made primarily 4 from honey, water, and malt and/or hops; it may also contain fruits, spices, herbs, grain or other agricultural products. Honey shall represent at least fifty-one percent of the starting fermentable sugars by weight of the finished product. For the purposes of this chapter, braggot shall be designated and sold as a beer.

9 § 2. Subdivision 12-aa of section 3 of the alcoholic beverage control 10 law, as added by chapter 221 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as 11 follows:

12 12-aa. "Farm" means the land, buildings and equipment used to produce, 13 prepare and market crops, livestock and livestock products as a commer-14 cial enterprise. For the purposes of a farm meadery, farm means the 15 land, buildings and equipment used to prepare and market honey and 16 apiary products as a commercial enterprise. A farm may consist of one or 17 more parcels of owned or rented land, which parcels may be contiguous or 18 noncontiguous to each other.

19 § 3. Section 3 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by 20 adding a new subdivision 12-aaaa to read as follows:

12-aaaa. "Farm meadery" means and includes any place or premises, 22 located on a farm in New York state, in which New York state labelled mead or New York state labelled braggot is manufactured, stored and 23 24 sold, or any other place or premises in New York state in which New York 25 state labelled mead or New York state labelled braggot is manufactured, 26 stored and sold.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD15810-03-8

§ 4. Section 3 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new subdivision 19-a to read as follows:

19-a. "Mead" shall mean a wine made primarily from honey and water; it may also contain hops, fruits, spices, herbs, grain, or other agricultural products. Honey shall represent at least fifty-one percent of the starting fermentable sugars by weight of the finished product. The brand or trade label owner of such alcoholic beverage shall designate whether such alcoholic beverage shall be sold as and treated in the same manner as wine or mead for all purposes under this chapter. Provided, however, any mead containing more than eight and one-half per centum alcohol by volume shall be designated, sold as, and treated in the same manner as wine.

- § 5. Section 3 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new subdivision 20-f to read as follows:
- 20-f. "New York state labelled braggot" means braggot made exclusively from honey produced in New York state.
- § 6. Section 3 of the alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new subdivision 20-g to read as follows:
- 20-g. "New York state labelled mead" means mead made exclusively from honey produced in New York state.
 - § 7. The alcoholic beverage control law is amended by adding a new article 3 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 3

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO MEAD AND BRAGGOT

25 Section 30. Mead producers' license.

- 31. Farm meadery license.
- 32. Authorization for sale of mead and braggot by retail licensees.
- 33. Authorization for sale of mead and braggot by wholesale licensees.
- 34. Mead and braggot tasting.
- § 30. Mead producers' license. 1. Any person may apply to the liquor authority for a mead producers' license as provided for in this section. Such application shall be in writing and shall contain such information as the liquor authority shall require. Such application shall be accompanied by a check or draft for the amount required by this subdivision for such license. If the liquor authority shall grant the application it shall issue a license in such form as shall be determined by its rules. A license issued under this subdivision shall authorize the licensee to manufacture mead and braggot within the licensed premises in this state for sale in bottles, barrels or casks to beer, wine and liquor retail licensees pursuant to section thirty-two of this article and to sell and deliver mead and braggot to persons outside the state pursuant to the laws of the place of such sale or delivery. The annual fee for such a license shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars; provided, however, that the annual fee for a farm meadery license shall be seventy-five dollars. The provisions contained in section sixty-seven of this chapter shall apply to all licenses issued pursuant to this article.
- 2. (a) Any person licensed pursuant to subdivision one of this section may conduct mead tastings of New York state labelled meads in establishments licensed pursuant to section sixty-three of this chapter to sell alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption. Such mead producer or wholesaler may charge a fee of not more than twenty-five cents for each mead sample tasted. The liquor authority shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the conduct of such tastings.

(b) Any person licensed pursuant to subdivision one of this section may conduct tastings of New York state labelled mead and New York state labeled braggot and apply to the liquor authority for a permit to sell mead and braggot produced by such mead producer or wholesaler, by the bottle, during such tastings in establishments licensed pursuant to section sixty-four of this chapter to sell alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises. Such mead producer may charge a fee of not more than twenty-five cents for each mead or braggot sample tasted. The liquor authority shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to the conduct of tastings.

- (c) Mead and braggot tastings shall be conducted subject to the following limitations:
- (i) mead and braggot tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, 14 representative or solicitor of one or more mead producers or wholesalers. Such agent, representative or solicitor shall be physically present at all times during the conduct of the tastings; and
 - (ii) any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a mead and/or braggot tasting as authorized pursuant to this subdivision and in accordance with the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations law, shall accrue to the mead producer or wholesaler licensee.
 - 3. A licensed mead producer producing New York state labelled mead and/or New York state labelled braggot may:
 - (a) sell such mead and braggot to licensed farm distillers, farm wineries, farm cideries and farm breweries. All such mead and braggot sold by the licensee shall be securely sealed and have attached thereto a label as shall be required by section one hundred seven-a of this chapter;
 - (b) conduct tastings at the licensed premises of such mead and braggot or any other New York state labeled mead or braggot;
 - (c) sell such mead and braggot at retail for consumption off the premises at the state fair, at recognized county fairs and at farmers markets operated on a not-for-profit basis;
 - (d) sell and conduct tastings of such mead and braggot at retail for consumption on the premises of a restaurant, conference center, inn, bed and breakfast or hotel business owned and operated by the licensee in or adjacent to its meadery. A licensee who operates a restaurant, conference center, inn, bed and breakfast or hotel pursuant to such authority shall comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter which relate to licenses to sell mead at retail for consumption on the premises;
 - (e) apply for a permit to conduct tastings away from the licensed premises of such mead and braggot. Such permit shall be valid throughout the state and may be issued on an annual basis or for individual events. Each such permit and the exercise of the privilege granted thereby shall be subject to such rules and conditions of the authority as it deems necessary. Tastings shall be conducted subject to the following condi-
- (i) tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, representative 48 49 or solicitor of the licensee. Such agent, representative or solicitor shall be physically present at all times during the conduct of the tast-50 51 ings; and
- (ii) any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a 52 tasting of mead or braggot as authorized herein and in accordance with 53 54 the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations 55 law, shall accrue to the licensee.

(f) if it holds a tasting permit issued pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subdivision, apply to the authority for a permit to sell such mead, for consumption off the premises, during such tastings in premises licensed under section sixty-four or sixty-four-a of this chapter; or apply to the authority for a permit to sell such mead and/or braggot at a premises licensed under section eighty-one or eighty-one-a of this chapter. Each such permit and the exercise of the privilege granted thereby shall be subject to such rules and conditions of the authority as it deems necessary.

- 4. A mead producer shall manufacture at least fifty gallons of mead and/or braggot annually.
- § 31. Farm meadery license. 1. Any person may apply to the authority for a farm meadery license as provided for in this section to produce mead and braggot within this state for sale. Such application shall be in writing and verified and shall contain such information as the authority shall require. Such application shall be accompanied by a check or draft in the amount of seventy-five dollars. If the authority grants the application, it shall issue a license in such form as shall be determined by its rules. Such license shall contain a description of the licensed premises and in form and in substance shall be a license to the person therein specifically designated to produce mead and braggot in the premises therein specifically licensed.
- 2. A farm meadery license shall authorize the holder thereof to operate a meadery for the manufacture of New York state labelled mead and New York state labelled braggot. Such a license shall also authorize the licensee to:
- (a) sell in bulk mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee to any person licensed to manufacture alcoholic beverages in this state or to a permittee engaged in the manufacture of products which are unfit for beverage use;
- 31 (b) sell or deliver mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee to
 32 persons outside the state pursuant to the laws of the place of such
 33 delivery;
 - (c) sell mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee to wholesalers and retailers licensed in this state to sell such mead and braggot pursuant to section thirty-three of this article, licensed farm distillers, licensed farm wineries, licensed wineries, licensed farm breweries and any other licensed farm meadery. All such mead and braggot sold by the licensee shall be securely sealed and have attached thereto a label as shall be required by section one hundred seven-a of this chapter;
 - (d) (i) at the licensed premises, conduct tastings of, and sell at retail for consumption on or off the licensed premises, any mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee or any New York state labelled mead or New York state labelled braggot. Provided, however, for tastings and sales for on-premises consumption, the licensee shall regularly keep food available for sale or service to its retail customers for consumption on the premises. A licensee providing the following shall be deemed in compliance with this provision: (A) sandwiches, soups or other such foods, whether fresh, processed, pre-cooked or frozen; and/or (B) food items intended to complement the tasting of alcoholic beverages, which shall mean a diversified selection of food that is ordinarily consumed without the use of tableware and can be conveniently consumed while standing or walking, including but not limited to: cheeses, fruits, vegetables, chocolates, breads, mustards and crackers. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licensees selling mead and brag-

6 got at retail shall apply; and

(ii) operate a restaurant, hotel, catering establishment, or other food and drinking establishment in or adjacent to the licensed premises and sell at such place, at retail for consumption on the premises, mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee and any New York state labelled mead or New York state labeled braggot. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licensees to selling mead and braggot at retail shall apply. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the licensed farm meadery may apply to the authority for a license under this chapter to sell other alcoholic beverages at retail for consumption on the premises at such establishment;

- (e) sell mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee or any other licensed farm meadery at retail for consumption off the premises, at the state fair, at recognized county fairs and at farmers markets operated on a not-for-profit basis;
- (f) conduct tastings of and sell at retail for consumption on or off 15 16 the premises New York state labeled beer manufactured by a licensed 17 brewery or licensed farm brewery;
 - (g) conduct tastings of and sell at retail for consumption on or off the premises New York state labelled wine manufactured by a licensed winery or licensed farm winery;
 - (h) conduct tastings of and sell at retail for consumption on or off the premises New York state labelled liquor manufactured by a licensed distiller or licensed farm distiller; provided, however, that no consumer may be provided, directly or indirectly: (i) with more than three samples of liquor for tasting in one calendar day; or (ii) with a sample of liquor for tasting equal to more than one-quarter fluid ounce; and
 - (i) engage in any other business on the licensed premises subject to such rules and regulations as the authority may prescribe. Such rules and regulations shall determine which businesses will be compatible with the policy and purposes of this chapter and shall consider the effect of particular businesses on the community and area in the vicinity of the farm meadery licensee.
 - 3. (a) A farm meadery licensee may apply for a permit to conduct tastings away from the licensed premises of mead and braggot produced by the licensee. Such permit shall be valid throughout the state and may be issued on an annual basis or for individual events. Each such permit and the exercise of the privilege granted thereby shall be subject to such rules and conditions of the authority as it deems necessary.
 - (b) Tastings shall be conducted subject to the following limitations:
- 40 (i) tastings shall be conducted by an official agent, representative 41 or solicitor of one or more farm meaderies. Such agent, representative 42 or solicitor shall be physically present at all times during the conduct 43 of the tastings; and
- 44 (ii) any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a 45 tasting of mead or braggot as authorized herein and in accordance with 46 the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations 47 law, shall accrue to the farm meadery.
- 4. A licensed farm meadery holding a tasting permit issued pursuant to subdivision three of this section may apply to the authority for a permit to sell mead produced by such farm meadery, by the bottle, during 51 such tastings in premises licensed under section sixty-four or sixtyfour-a of this chapter; or apply to the authority for a permit to sell such mead and/or braggot at a premises licensed under section eighty-one 54 or eighty-one-a of this chapter. Each such permit and the exercise of the privilege granted thereby shall be subject to such rules and conditions of the authority as it deems necessary.

5. A licensed farm meadery may, under such rules as may be adopted by the authority, sell mead and braggot manufactured by the licensee or any other licensed farm meadery at retail in bulk by the keg, cask or barrel for consumption and not for resale at a clam-bake, barbeque, picnic, outing or other similar outdoor gathering at which more than fifty persons are assembled.

- 6. A licensed farm meadery may apply to the authority for a license to sell beer, liquor and/or wine at retail for consumption on the premises in a restaurant owned, conducted, and operated by the licensee in or adjacent to its farm meadery. All of the provisions of this chapter relative to licenses to sell beer, liquor or wine at retail or consumption on the premises shall apply so far as applicable.
- 7. A farm meadery license shall authorize the holder thereof to manufacture, bottle and sell food condiments and products such as honey, mustards, sauces, jams, jellies, mulling spices and other mead related foods in addition to other such food and crafts on and from the licensed premises. Such license shall authorize the holder thereof to store and sell gift items in a tax-paid room upon the licensed premises incidental to the sale of mead and braggot. These gift items shall be limited to the following categories:
- (a) non-alcoholic beverages for consumption on or off premises, including but not limited to bottled water, juice and soda beverages;
- (b) food items for the purpose of complementing mead and braggot tastings, which shall mean a diversified selection of food that is ordinarily consumed without the use of tableware and can be conveniently consumed while standing or walking. Such food items shall include but not be limited to: cheeses, fruits, vegetables, chocolates, breads, baked goods, mustards and crackers;
- (c) food items, which shall include locally produced farm products and any food or food product not specifically prepared for immediate consumption upon the premises. Such food items may be combined into a package containing mead and/or braggot related products;
- (d) mead and braggot supplies and accessories, which shall include any item utilized for the storage, serving or consumption of mead or braggot or for decorative purposes. These supplies may be sold as single items or may be combined into a package containing mead and/or braggot;
- (e) mead-making and braggot-making equipment and supplies including, but not limited to, honey, home mead-making kits, braggot-making kits, pumps, filters, yeasts, chemicals and other mead and braggot additives, bottling equipment, bottles, mead and braggot storage and fermenting vessels, barrels, and books or other written material to assist mead-makers and braggot-makers and braggot-makers to produce and bottle mead and braggot;
- 44 (f) souvenir items, which shall include, but not be limited to
 45 artwork, crafts, clothing, agricultural products and any other articles
 46 which can be construed to propagate tourism within the region.
 - 8. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, any farm meadery licensee may charge for tours of its premises.
- 9. The holder of a license issued under this section may operate up to five branch offices located away from the licensed farm meadery. Such locations shall be considered part of the licensed premises and all activities allowed at and limited to the farm meadery may be conducted at the branch offices. Such branch offices shall not be located within, share a common entrance and exit with, or have any interior access to any other business, including premises licensed to sell alcoholic bever-ages at retail. Prior to commencing operation of any such branch office, the licensee shall notify the authority of the location of such branch office and the authority may issue a permit for the operation of same.

- 3 10. (a) No farm meadery shall manufacture in excess of two hundred 4 fifty thousand gallons of mead and/or braggot annually.
- 5 (b) A licensed farm meadery shall produce at least fifty gallons of mead and/or braggot annually.
 - 11. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law or of any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto, and in addition to the activities which may otherwise be carried out by any person licensed under this section, such person may, on the premises designated in such license:
- 12 (a) produce, package, bottle, sell and deliver soft drinks and other 13 non-alcoholic beverages, vitamins, and other by-products;
 - (b) recover carbon dioxide and yeast;
- 15 (c) store bottles, packages and supplies necessary or incidental to 16 all such operations;
- 17 (d) package, bottle, sell and deliver wine products;
- 18 (e) allow for the premises including space and equipment to be rented 19 by a licensed tenant mead producer for the purposes of alternation.
 - 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the authority may issue a farm meadery license to the holder of a farm meadery, farm brewery, farm winery or farm distiller's license for use at such licensee's existing licensed premises. The holder of a farm meadery, farm brewery, farm winery or farm distiller's license that simultaneously holds a farm meadery license on an adjacent premises may share and use the same tasting room facilities to conduct any tastings that such licensee is otherwise authorized to conduct.
- 13. The authority is hereby authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to effectuate the purposes of this section. In prescribing such rules and regulations, the authority shall promote the expansion and profitability of mead and braggot production and of tourism in New York, thereby promoting the conservation, production and enhancement of New York state agricultural lands.
- 34 § 32. Authorization for sale of mead and braggot by retail licensees. 35 1. Each retail licensee under this chapter shall have the right, by virtue of his or her license and without being required to pay any addi-36 tional fee for the privilege, to sell at retail for consumption on or 37 off the premises, as the case may be, mead which has not been designated 38 as a wine pursuant to subdivision nineteen-a of section three of this 39 40 chapter and has been purchased from a person licensed to produce or sell 41 mead at wholesale under this chapter.
 - 2. Each retail licensee authorized to sell wine under this chapter shall have the right, by virtue of his or her license and without being required to pay any additional fee for the privilege, to sell at retail for consumption on or off the premises, as the case may be, mead which has been designated as a wine pursuant to subdivision nineteen-a of section three of this chapter and which has been purchased from a person licensed to produce or sell mead at wholesale under this chapter.
- 3. Each retail licensee authorized to sell beer under this chapter shall have the right, by virtue of his or her license and without being required to pay any additional fee for the privilege, to sell at retail for consumption on or off the premises, as the case may be, braggot which has been purchased from a person licensed to produce or sell braggot at wholesale under this chapter.
- § 33. Authorization for sale of mead and braggot by wholesale licen-56 sees. 1. Each wholesale licensee authorized to sell beer under this

1 chapter shall have the right, by virtue of its license and without being 2 required to pay any additional fee for the privilege, to sell at whole-3 sale:

- (a) braggot purchased from a person licensed to produce braggot under this chapter. Such braggot shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter regarding the tasting and sale of beer at wholesale and retail; or
- 8 (b) mead purchased from a person licensed to produce mead and which 9 has not been designated as wine pursuant to subdivision nineteen-a of 10 section three of this chapter. Such mead shall be subject to the 11 provisions of this chapter regarding the tasting and sale of beer at 12 wholesale and retail.
 - 2. Each wholesale licensee authorized to sell wine under this chapter shall have the right, by virtue or its license and without being required to pay any additional fee for the privilege, to sell at wholesale mead purchased from a person licensed to produce mead and which has been designated as wine pursuant to subdivision nineteen-a of section three of this chapter. Such mead shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter regarding the tasting and sale or wine at wholesale and retail.
 - § 34. Mead and braggot tasting. Any person holding a retail license under this chapter shall be permitted to conduct consumer tastings of mead and braggot upon such person's licensed premises. All such tastings shall be subject to the following limitations:
 - 1. Tastings of mead and braggot shall be conducted by the licensee or an authorized agent of the licensee. Provided, however, a licensed wholesaler shall not serve as the authorized agent for another entity, nor shall a licensed wholesaler be involved in any manner with a mead or braggot tasting conducted by another entity.
- 30 2. No more than three samples of mead and/or braggot may be provided 31 to a person in one calendar day.
 - 3. No sample may exceed three fluid ounces.
 - 4. No tasting shall be held during the hours prohibited by the provisions of sections one hundred five and one hundred five-a of this chapter.
 - 5. Any liability stemming from a right of action resulting from a tasting authorized by this section and in accordance with the provisions of sections 11-100 and 11-101 of the general obligations law shall accrue to the licensee.
 - 6. No person under the age of twenty-one shall be permitted to serve a sample or handle an open container of mead or braggot.
 - § 8. Subdivision 3 of section 17 of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by section 3 of chapter 297 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:
- 45 3. To revoke, cancel or suspend for cause any license or permit issued 46 under this chapter and/or to impose a civil penalty for cause against any holder of a license or permit issued pursuant to this chapter. Any 47 civil penalty so imposed shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand 48 dollars as against the holder of any retail permit issued pursuant to 49 sections ninety-five, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine-d, and 50 51 paragraph f of subdivision one of section ninety-nine-b of this chapter, 52 and as against the holder of any retail license issued pursuant to 53 sections fifty-three-a, fifty-four, fifty-four-a, fifty-five, fifty-54 five-a, sixty-four, sixty-three, sixty-four-a, sixty-four-b, sixty-four-c, seventy-six-f, seventy-nine, eighty-one and eighty-one-a 55 of this chapter, and the sum of thirty thousand dollars as against the

1 holder of a license issued pursuant to sections thirty, thirty-one, fifty-three, sixty-one-a, sixty-one-b, seventy-six, seventy-six-a, and 3 seventy-eight of this chapter, provided that the civil penalty against the holder of a wholesale license issued pursuant to section fifty-three this chapter shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars where that licensee violates provisions of this chapter during the course of 7 the sale of beer at retail to a person for consumption at home, and the sum of one hundred thousand dollars as against the holder of any license 9 issued pursuant to sections fifty-one, sixty-one, and sixty-two of this 10 chapter. Any civil penalty so imposed shall be in addition to and sepa-11 rate and apart from the terms and provisions of the bond required pursuant to section one hundred twelve of this chapter. Provided that no 12 13 appeal is pending on the imposition of such civil penalty, in the event 14 such civil penalty imposed by the division remains unpaid, in whole or 15 in part, more than forty-five days after written demand for payment has 16 been sent by first class mail to the address of the licensed premises, a 17 notice of impending default judgment shall be sent by first class mail 18 to the licensed premises and by first class mail to the last known home address of the person who signed the most recent license application. 19 20 The notice of impending default judgment shall advise the licensee: (a) 21 that a civil penalty was imposed on the licensee; (b) the date the penalty was imposed; (c) the amount of the civil penalty; (d) the amount 22 23 of the civil penalty that remains unpaid as of the date of the notice; (e) the violations for which the civil penalty was imposed; and (f) that 24 25 a judgment by default will be entered in the supreme court of the county 26 in which the licensed premises are located, or other court of civil 27 jurisdiction or any other place provided for the entry of civil judg-28 ments within the state of New York unless the division receives full 29 payment of all civil penalties due within twenty days of the date of the 30 notice of impending default judgment. If full payment shall not have 31 been received by the division within thirty days of mailing of 32 notice of impending default judgment, the division shall proceed to 33 enter with such court a statement of the default judgment containing the 34 amount of the penalty or penalties remaining due and unpaid, along with 35 proof of mailing of the notice of impending default judgment. The filing 36 of such judgment shall have the full force and effect of a default judg-37 ment duly docketed with such court pursuant to the civil practice law 38 and rules and shall in all respects be governed by that chapter and may 39 be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as that provided by law in respect to execution issued against property upon judgments of 40 41 a court of record. A judgment entered pursuant to this subdivision shall 42 remain in full force and effect for eight years notwithstanding any 43 other provision of law. 44

- § 9. Subdivision 3 of section 17 of the alcoholic beverage control law, as amended by section 4 of chapter 297 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:
- 47 3. To revoke, cancel or suspend for cause any license or permit issued 48 under this chapter and/or to impose a civil penalty for cause against any holder of a license or permit issued pursuant to this chapter. Any 49 50 civil penalty so imposed shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand 51 dollars as against the holder of any retail permit issued pursuant to 52 sections ninety-five, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine-d, paragraph f of subdivision one of section ninety-nine-b of this chapter, 54 and as against the holder of any retail license issued pursuant to 55 sections fifty-three-a, fifty-four, fifty-four-a, fifty-five, fiftyfive-a, sixty-three, sixty-four, sixty-four-a, sixty-four-b,
