AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crime of misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a caregiver for children

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "Lulu and Leo's $2 \cdot law$ ".
- 3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 260.35 to read 4 as follows:
- 5 § 260.35 Misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a caregiver for a child 6 or children.
- 7 1. A person is guilty of misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a 8 caregiver for a child or children when he or she:
- 9 (a) intentionally makes a false written statement about himself,
 10 herself, or another person while he or she, or such other person, is
 11 being considered for employment, or while under employment as a caregiv12 er to a parent or guardian of a child or children, or the agent of a 13 parent or guardian, and
- 14 (b) such statement contains a materially false representation regard-
 15 ing the caregiver's background related to the ability to safely care for
 16 a child or children, and
- 17 (c) a reasonable person would have relied upon such statement in
 18 making an employment decision.
- 2. For the purposes of this section, "caregiver" shall mean a person employed by or being considered for employment to provide fifteen or more hours of care per week to a child or children in the home of such child or children or in the home of such caregiver, provided that such term shall not apply to a child day care provider required to be licensed pursuant to the social services law.
- Misrepresentation by, or on behalf of, a caregiver for a child or children is a class B misdemeanor.
- 27 § 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 28 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
