Introduced by M. of A. SIMANOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT in relation to reimbursing non-public schools and teachers for training

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the state shall reimburse non-public schools directly for the costs associated with two days of training for teachers to assist them in preparing their students to meet the state's educational standards. Furthermore, the state shall directly reimburse non-public school teachers in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the pro rata portion of their salary that they are foregoing in order to obtain such training or (ii) an amount equivalent to the pro rata share of the average salary of public school teachers in the school districts in which the non-public schools are located.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
