AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to prohibiting children eleven years old and younger from playing tackle football

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "John Mackey youth football protection act".

2
3 § 2. Article 25 of the public health law is amended by adding a new
4 title 7 to read as follows:

5 TITLE VII

6 YOUTH SPORTS

7 Section 2595. Prohibition of tackle football.

8 § 2595. Prohibition of tackle football. 1. No child eleven years old
9 or younger shall play, practice, or otherwise engage in organized tackle
10 football; provided however, that nothing within this section shall
11 prohibit children thirteen years old and younger from playing, practic-
12 ing, or otherwise participating in any form of football which does not
13 involve tackling.

14 2. Any school, league or other entity whose purpose is to allow chil-
15 dren to participate in football, who allows children thirteen years of 16 age or younger to play, practice, or otherwise engage in tackle football
17 shall be liable for a civil penalty under the provisions of title two of 18 article one of this chapter.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 3. For the purposes of this section:

2 (a) "Organized tackle football" shall include any practice, game or
3 other activity which involves engaging in tackle football and which is 4 organized by a school, or public or private league or other entity whose
5 purpose is to allow children to participate in contact football.

6 (b) "Tackle" shall mean to physically impede the forward movement of a
7 player who is in possession of the ball to the extent that:

8 (i) the player's forward movement is stopped and the player is unable
9 to resume such forward movement; or

10 (ii) the player is forced to touch some part of his or her body to the 11 ground other than the player's hands or feet.

12 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
