§ 2999-dd. Telehealth delivery of services. 1. Health care services delivered by means of telehealth shall be entitled to reimbursement under section three hundred sixty-seven-u of the social services law.

- 2. An insurer shall reimburse a telehealth provider for covered services delivered via telehealth on the same basis and at the same rate as established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth.
- § 2. Subsection (a) of section 3217-h of the insurance law, as added 10 by chapter 6 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) An insurer shall not exclude from coverage a service that is 12 otherwise covered under a policy that provides comprehensive coverage for hospital, medical or surgical care because the service is delivered 14 via telehealth, as that term is defined in subsection (b) of this section; provided, however, that an insurer may exclude from coverage a service by a health care provider where the provider is not otherwise 16 covered under the policy. An insurer shall reimburse the telehealth provider for covered services delivered via telehealth on the same basis 19 and at the same rate as established for the same service when not deliv-20 ered via telehealth; and may subject the coverage of a service delivered 21 via telehealth to co-payments, coinsurance or deductibles provided that they are at least as favorable to the insured as those established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth. An insurer may 24 subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to reasonable

- 3. Subsection (a) of section 4306-g of the insurance law, as added by chapter 6 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) A corporation shall not exclude from coverage a service that is otherwise covered under a contract that provides comprehensive coverage for hospital, medical or surgical care because the service is delivered via telehealth, as that term is defined in subsection (b) of this section; provided, however, that a corporation may exclude from coverage a service by a health care provider where the provider is not otherwise covered under the contract. A corporation shall reimburse the telehealth provider for covered services delivered via telehealth on the 14 same basis and at the same rate as established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth; and may subject the coverage of a service 16 delivered via telehealth to co-payments, coinsurance or deductibles provided that they are at least as favorable to the insured as those 17 established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth. A corporation may subject the coverage of a service delivered via tele-19 20 health to reasonable utilization management and quality assurance requirements that are consistent with those established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth.
 - § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 4406-g of the public health law, added by chapter 6 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
 - 1. A health maintenance organization shall not exclude from coverage a service that is otherwise covered under an enrollee contract of a health maintenance organization because the service is delivered via telehealth, as that term is defined in subdivision two of this section; provided, however, that a health maintenance organization may exclude from coverage a service by a health care provider where the provider is not otherwise covered under the enrollee contract. A health maintenance organization shall reimburse the telehealth provider for covered services delivered via telehealth on the same basis and at the same rate as established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth; and may subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to co-payments, coinsurance or deductibles provided that they are at least as favorable to the enrollee as those established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth. A health maintenance organization may subject the coverage of a service delivered via telehealth to reasonable utilization management and quality assurance requirements that are consistent with those established for the same service when not delivered via telehealth.
- § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 43 44 policies and contracts issued, renewed, modified, altered or amended on 45 or after January 1, 2017.
