11 sentence imposed was not less than that which was agreed to by the 12 people as a condition of the plea and set forth in the record or filed

§ 5. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 6 of section 470.15 of the criminal procedure law are amended to read as follows:

(c) Upon a determination that a sentence imposed upon a valid conviction is illegal ~~[or]~~, unduly harsh or severe or unduly lenient, the court may modify the judgment by reversing it with respect to the sentence and by otherwise affirming it.

(b) That a sentence, though legal, was either (i) unduly harsh or severe or (ii) unduly lenient.

§ 6. Subdivision 6 of section 470.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

6. Upon modifying a judgment or reversing a sentence as a matter of discretion in the interest of justice upon the ground that the sentence is unduly harsh or severe or unduly lenient, the court must itself impose some legally authorized lesser or greater sentence.

§ 7. Subdivision 3 of section 530.30 of the criminal procedure law is renumbered subdivision 6 and three new subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 are added to read as follows:

3. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of the people, may revoke an order of recognizance or bail entered by a local criminal court and fix bail in an amount the court determines sufficient or, if the defendant is charged with one or more crimes at least one of which is a felony, commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision three of this section, a superior court judge may not vacate an order of recognizance or bail and fix bail or commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff unless and until:

(a) the defendant has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter or, after knowledge or notice to the defendant or his or her counsel of the application and reasonable opportunity to be heard, has failed to appear at the proceeding or has otherwise waived his or her right to do so; and

(b) such judge has been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

5. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court and an order fixing bail has been entered, and thereafter a local criminal court enters an order releasing the defendant on his or her own recognizance or fixing bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome manner, the people may file with the local criminal court a notice of intention to apply to a superior court judge pursuant to subdivision three of this section. The filing of such a notice shall stay the effect of the order releasing the defendant on his or her own recognizance or fixing bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome manner. A stay pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect for a period of seventy-two hours unless extended or vacated by the judge of the superior court to whom the people apply pursuant to subdivision three of this section.

§ 8. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 530.42 to read as follows:

§ 530.42 Order of recognizance or bail; review by superior court.

1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court or a superior court, and the court has ordered recognizance or bail, a judge of the superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of the people, may review an order of recognizance or bail previ-

1 ously entered in the action and fix bail in an amount the court deter-
2 mines sufficient or, if the defendant is charged with one or more crimes
3 at least one of which is a felony, commit the defendant to the custody
4 of the sheriff.

5 2. Upon an application for review pursuant to subdivision one of this 6 section, the superior court judge may grant the application only upon a
7 determination that the order of recognizance or bail under review
8 constitutes an abuse of discretion.

9 3. An application pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be 10 accompanied by an affidavit or affirmation which shall state the date, 11 and the court or judge to whom made, of every previous application, the 12 disposition of each such application and of any appeal taken, and the 13 new facts presented in the application that were not presented in any 14 previous application.

15 4. When a criminal action is pending in a superior court and an order
16 is entered releasing the defendant on his or her own recognizance or 17 fixing bail, the people may apply on an emergency basis to the court to 18 which an application pursuant to subdivision one of this section would 19 be made for an interim order fixing bail or committing the defendant to 20 the custody of the sheriff. Such an order shall remain in effect for a 21 period of seventy-two hours unless extended or vacated by the court to 22 which the people apply pursuant to subdivision one of this section.

23 5. The chief administrator of the courts, with the advice and consent
24 of the administrative board of the courts, shall adopt procedures regu-
25 lating the court or courts in the county to which an application pursu-
26 ant to subdivision one of this section may be made.

27 § 9. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-
28 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
