AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to permitting a plaintiff to recover against a third party defendant in certain cases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new 2 section 1405 to read as follows:

3 § 1405. Permitting plaintiff, as judgment creditor against defendant,
4 to recover and collect unsatisfied judgment or portion of judgment
5 against third-party defendant or co-defendant liable for contribution or 6 indemnification. (a) Where a plaintiff has entered a judgment against a 7 defendant and the judgment remains unsatisfied thirty days after it has 8 been served on the defendant-judgment debtor, and where judgment has 9 been entered in favor of the defendant-judgment debtor against a co-de-10 fendant or third-party defendant on a cause of action for contribution 11 or for contractual or common law indemnification, the plaintiff-judgment
12 creditor may collect any unsatisfied amount of the plaintiff's judgment 13 against the defendant from the co-defendant or third-party defendant up 14 to the amount awarded on the cause of action for contribution or indem-15 nification.

16 (b) Where the plaintiff's judgment remains unsatisfied thirty days 17 after it has been served on the defendant-judgment debtor, and where the 18 defendant-judgment debtor has a cause of action for contribution or for 19 contractual or common law indemnification which has not been reduced to 20 judgment, the plaintiff-judgment creditor may attach, or take an assign-debtor, and recover a judgment therein for the same amount of contribution or indemnification as would be awarded to the defendant-judgment debtor if the defendant-judgment debtor had satisfied plaintiff's original judgment in full. Such remedy is in addition to any other means available to the plaintiff-judgment debtor for enforcement of the judgment. This section shall not authorize direct recovery against a third-party defendant in those circumstances in which the third-party claim against that third-party defendant would have been barred by the provisions of section eleven of the workers' compensation law, and does not otherwise permit a plaintiff to bring a cause of action against a third party if such third party was the plaintiff's employer at the time of the incident or injury.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall apply to all judgments entered by plaintiffs on or after such date.
