1 § 2. Subdivision 6 of section 398 of the social services law is 2 amended by adding a new paragraph (q) to read as follows:

3 (q) Investigate the criminal background of any person of or over the 4 age of eighteen who resides or is proposed to reside with or in the same 5 home as a child who is the subject of a court proceeding pursuant to 6 article three, six, seven, ten, ten-A or ten-C of the family court act.
7 For the purpose of these investigations, and subject to the rules and 8 regulations of the division of criminal justice services, local social 9 services districts may, acting through persons specifically designated 10 by the commissioner of the local social services district, access and 11 receive records maintained by the division of criminal justice services 12 pursuant to subdivision six of section eight hundred thirty-seven of the 13 executive law.

14 § 3. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 6 of section 424 of the social 15 services law, as amended by chapter 602 of the laws of 2008, is amended 16 to read as follows:

17 (b) subject to rules and regulations of the division of criminal 18 justice services, a manager of the child protective services unit, or a 19 person with law enforcement background who is specifically designated by 20 the commissioner of the local social services district for this purpose, 21 shall have access to [~~conviction~~] records maintained by state law
22 enforcement agencies pertaining to persons of or over the age of eigh-
23 teen years who (1) are currently residing in the residence of any child 24 who is alleged to be or suspected of being abused, maltreated, or 25 neglected or who is proposed to live with such child, or (2) are named 26 in any report of suspected or alleged child abuse, maltreatment, or 27 neglect; provided that nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to 28 contradict or modify section one thousand forty-six of the family court 29 act. Any criminal history record provided by the division of criminal 30 justice services, and any summary of the criminal history record
31 provided by the office of children and family services to the child 32 protective services unit of a local social services district pursuant to 33 this subdivision, shall be kept confidential and shall not be made 34 available for public inspection. Child protective services units shall 35 not indicate a report solely based upon the existence of a conviction 36 record;

37 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
