establishment or implementation of this course, except that the commissioner shall contract with a software solution and network infrastructure provider. Such software solution and network infrastructure provider shall be incorporated and located within the state, have conducted business with the state for a period of not less than ten years, offer course content as part of their services, and use biometric technologies to guarantee security. The commissioner shall implement a system that allows an on-line participant to verify his or her identity and ensures that such student's identity and on-line transaction is secure. The commissioner shall endeavor to contract software solution and network infrastructure providers certified under article fifteen-A of the executive law.

§ 399-c. Course content. The commissioner shall contract with a technology contractor who is well-known in the community and specializes in traffic safety curriculum development to develop a curriculum for the driver safety course in conjunction with the governor's traffic safety committee. This curriculum shall contain instruction on driver attitude, collision awareness, the proper use of automobile safety devices, defensive driving, drug and alcohol impairment, safe use of automobile technology, school and work zone safety, toll plaza safety, driving while drowsy, driver distractions, road rage, school bus safety, and such other subjects as the commissioner may prescribe. This curriculum shall be reviewed and updated annually.

§ 399-d. Fees. The commissioner is authorized to impose a fee upon each student who enrolls in the driver safety course which shall not exceed one hundred dollars. The proceeds from such fee shall be deposited in the driver safety course fund as established by section eighty-nine-g of the state finance law.

§ 399-e. Advertising. The governor's traffic safety committee shall develop and implement a program to actively market and promote the driver safety course to the general public.

§ 399-f. Report by commissioner. The commissioner shall report annually to the governor, the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly the number of students taking the course, amount of revenue received, the location of students by county, and whether the course is taken for pre-licensing, insurance, or point reduction purposes.

§ 399-g. Regulations. The commissioner shall promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to effectuate the provisions of this article.

§ 2. Subdivision 4 of section 502 of the vehicle and traffic law is REPEALED and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

4. Examinations. (a) Upon submission of an application for a driver's license, the applicant shall be required (i) to take and pass a test relating to traffic laws, and such other traffic related matters that the commissioner may prescribe, (ii) to take and pass a behind the wheel examination, and (iii) to satisfactorily complete the driver safety course under article twelve-B of this chapter.

(b) The commissioner shall cause the applicant to take a vision test and a test for color blindness. Upon passage of the vision test, the application may be accepted and the application fee shall be payable.

(c) The commissioner shall make available to each applicant for a commercial driver's license instructional handbooks outlining the requirements necessary to qualify for such a license, and containing a discussion of the offenses which will result in disqualification from operating a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section five hundred one-a of this article. Such handbooks shall be available in languages as the commissioner may prescribe.

(d) The commissioner may waive the requirement for passage of a test under subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, for those applicants who hold a valid or renewable driver's license issued by another jurisdiction or the United States government.

(e) The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations establishing eligibility standards for the taking and passing of knowledge tests in other than written form.

§ 3. Section 89-g of the state finance law is REPEALED and a new section 89-g is added to read as follows:

§ 89-g. Driver safety course fund. 1. There is hereby established in the joint custody of the state comptroller and the commissioner of taxation and finance a special fund to be known as the "driver safety course fund".

2. Such fund shall consist of all fees received by the department of motor vehicles pursuant to the provisions of article twelve-B of the vehicle and traffic law, and all other moneys appropriated, credited or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.

3. The moneys in the driver safety course fund shall be kept separate and shall not be commingled with any other moneys in the custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance and the state comptroller.
