- § 1293. Presumption of taxability. Every person required to pay any tax imposed by this article shall keep records of every ride originating in the city and of all amounts paid, charged or due thereon and of the tax payable thereon, in such form as the commissioner may require. Every such person shall also keep a true and complete copy of every contract, agreement, or arrangement concerning the lease, rental, or license to use a transportation network company vehicle for which the person is required to remit the tax on rides imposed by this article on such person. Such records shall be available for inspection and examination at any time upon demand by the commissioner or the commissioner's duly authorized agent or employee and shall be preserved for a period of three years, except that the commissioner may consent to their destruction within that period or may require that they be kept longer. Such records may be kept within the meaning of this section when reproduced on any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, micro-card, miniature photographic or other process which actually reproduces the original record. § 1297. Secrecy of returns and reports. (a) Except in accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the commissioner, any officer or employee of the department, any person engaged or retained by the department on an independent contract basis, or any person who in any manner may acquire knowledge of the contents of a return or report filed with the commissioner pursuant to this article, to divulge or make known in any manner any particulars set forth or disclosed in any such return or report. The officers charged with the custody of such returns and reports shall not be required to produce any of them or evidence of anything contained in them in any action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the commissioner in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter or in any other action or proceeding involving the collection of a tax due under this chapter to which the state or the commissioner is a party or a claimant, or on behalf of any party to any action, proceeding or hearing under the provisions of this article when the returns, reports or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action, proceeding or hearing, in any of which events the court, or in the case of a hearing, the division of tax appeals may require the production of, and may admit into evidence, so much of said returns, reports or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the action, proceeding or hearing and no more. The commissioner or the division of tax appeals may, nevertheless, publish a copy or a summary of any decision rendered after a hearing required by this article. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a person who has filed a return or report or to such person's duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return or report filed in connection with such person's tax. Nor shall anything in this section be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns or reports and the items thereof, or the inspection by the attorney general or other legal representatives of the state of the return or report of any person required to pay the tax who shall bring action to review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding under this chapter has been recommended by the commissioner or the attorney general or has been instituted, or the inspection of the returns or reports required under this article by the comptroller or

However, the commissioner shall designate only such banks, banking houses or trust companies as are already designated by the comptroller as depositories pursuant to section twelve hundred eighty-eight of this chapter.

33 (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, 34 the commissioner may permit the secretary of the treasury of the United 35 States or such secretary's delegate, or the authorized representative of 36 either such officer, to inspect any return filed under this article, or 37 may furnish to such officer or such officer's authorized representative 38 an abstract of any such return or supply such person with information concerning an item contained in any such return, or disclosed by any 39 investigation of tax liability under this article, but such permission 40 shall be granted or such information furnished only if the laws of the 41 42 United States grant substantially similar privileges to the commissioner 43 or officer of this state charged with the administration of the tax imposed by this article, and only if such information is to be used for 44 45 tax purposes only; and provided further the commissioner may furnish to 46 the commissioner of internal revenue or such commissioner's authorized 47 representative such returns filed under this article and other tax information, as such commissioner may consider proper, for use in court 48 49 actions or proceedings under the internal revenue code, whether civil or criminal, where a written request therefor has been made to the commis-50 51 sioner by the secretary of the treasury of the United States or such secretary's delegate, provided the laws of the United States grant 52 53 substantially similar powers to the secretary of the treasury of the 54 United States or his or her delegate. Where the commissioner has so authorized use of returns and other information in such actions or 55 proceedings, officers and employees of the department may testify in
