such property, facilities and improvements, and the traveling public using such facilities. Each person as and when so appointed or desig-nated shall be known as (a) a "Niagara frontier transportation authority security officer or patrolman" and shall be a peace officer as set forth in subdivision forty-five of section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law, or a police officer within the purview of subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law or (b) a "ticket inspector" and shall not be a peace officer or a police officer but, when so desig-nated or appointed, shall be authorized to issue and serve appearance tickets pursuant to section 150.20 of the criminal procedure law with respect to violations of rules and regulations so established. The authority shall establish competitive examinations to determine such appointments of designations based on merit and fitness; such examina-tions shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements of section six of article five of the state constitution. Candidates who pass all aspects of the hiring process but do not receive appointment or designation shall be placed on an eligible list in accordance with section fifty-six of the civil service law, which shall be used to fill any future openings until termination of the eligible list. Candidates who pass all aspects of the hiring process and receive appointment shall be deemed eligible for transfer, provisional or permanent appointment to a competitive or non-competitive position with a city, town, village or police district in accordance with subdivision one of section seventy of the civil service law.

- § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 70 of the civil service law, as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. General provisions. Except as provided in subdivisions four, six and seven of this section and in subdivision eight of section twelve hundred ninety-nine-f of the public authorities law no employee shall be transferred to a position for which there is required by this chapter or the rules established hereunder an examination involving essential tests or qualifications different from or higher than those required for the position held by such employee. The state and municipal commissions may adopt rules governing transfers between positions in their respective jurisdictions and may also adopt reciprocal rules providing for the transfer of employees from one governmental jurisdiction to another. No employee shall be transferred without his or her consent except as provided in subdivision six or seven of this section or upon the transfer of functions as provided in subdivision two of this section.
- § 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 58 of the civil service law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (iv) to read as follows:
- (iv) such maximum age requirement of thirty-five years shall not apply to any police officer as defined in subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, who was continuously employed by a regional transit authority as defined in title eleven-A of article five of the public authorities law and conforms to the requirements of subdivision eight of section twelve hundred ninety-nine-f of the public authorities law;
- § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire January 1, 2019 when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed 1 repealed.
